

One of the season's most pleasurable events was the fancy party given by Frederick Kivette and Robert Emahiser, to a number of their young friends at the W. H. Kivette home on O avenue. The rooms were beautifully decorated in orange and black Halloween motifs, and the gay colors of the costumes, commingled to produce a real holiday effect. No effort was spared by the parents of the young hosts for the pleasure and entertainment of the guests. Dancing was the chief amusement and a delicious repast was served later in the evening. Those enjoying the occasion were: Marcelle Berry, Gladys Cutler, Deloris Pearson, Vic Crawford, Madeline Jones, Winifred Kennedy, Florence Lynch, Dorothy Casey, La Rue Hanks, Thomas Hill, William Houghen, Ted Larsen, Oson Brandt, William Short, Eugene Newlin, Grant Geddes, Robert Emahiser and Frederick Kivette.

Many La Grande people were agreeably surprised when word was received announcing the marriage of Miss Inez Knowles, daughter of Judge J. W. and Mrs. Knowles, of this city, to Edward Brown, of Pennsylvania. Miss Knowles is a graduate of the local high school, later graduating from the Oregon Agricultural college. Mr. Brown is also a graduate of the same school. When the call came he enlisted in Company K, 102 Infantry, with the rank of sergeant. He returned to this country a few months ago, to his home in Pennsylvania, where he has been until a few weeks ago, then going to Missouri. The wedding took place at the home of the relatives of the bride in Joplin, Missouri, at 1 o'clock, November 11. The young couple expect to make their home in Kansas City, Kansas, for the next few months. Their many friends join in wishing them the best of luck and happiness in the future.

The annual reception to new members will be held by the Neighborhood Club, Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 18. This is to be a strictly social occasion and is always looked forward to by the club members with happy anticipation.

The committee in charge of the afternoon's entertainment consists of the following named ladies: Mesdames G. L. Larison, A. T. Hill, A. C. Hampton, Verne L. Johnson, David Stoddard, C. B. Miller and Harry Zurbick. As this is the big social event of the club year, there will undoubtedly be a large attendance.

The first student body dance of the year was held last evening in the gymnasium of the high school, in honor of the Pendleton football team. There was a good crowd, with lots of pep and from the time the first "step" was played till the "Home Sweet Home" was finished, everything was of top notch order. This is the first dance given since the new hard wood floor has been put in and with such good music not enough can be said of the good time had by all present. It is hoped that there will be many more in the future.

Miss Etha Marion Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Thomas, was married to James William Renwick, of Portland, Wednesday evening, at the home of the bride's parents by Dr. Van Waters, of Portland. The house was decorated with white chrysanthemum and red carnation. A dinner was served after the wedding to the few guests and relatives who were present. The ring ceremony was held.

The young couple left for Portland Wednesday evening with Mr. William Elliot, of that city, who came here to attend the wedding. They will make their home in Portland where Mr. Renwick is in business.

At the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cotner, 1404 O Avenue, Gene Cotner invited in a number of his friends to help him celebrate his thirteenth birthday on the thirteenth of the month. Those to help him celebrate the occasion were Norris Landrum, Reynolds Landrum, Bob Murray, Jack Dennis, Bernard Thelsen, Hugh Logan, Dallas Jacobson, Lyle Stillwell, Buster French, Evelyn Emahiser, Verda Rae Smith, Mildred Murray, Jesse Burbridge, Lillian Sims, Frances Mae Cotner and Olive June Cotner.

tired to the dance hall, for another round of pleasure, after which a sumptuous supper was served in the banquet room.

The home of Dr. Verne and Mrs. Johnston, on Friday evening, was the scene of a merry party, when eight friends of Master Norman Johnston, gathered to help Norman celebrate his eighth birthday. After an enjoyable dinner, the guests were taken to the theatre and then distributed to their various homes. Those present were: Marion Crow, Norris Landrum, Reynolds Landrum, Philip Newlin, Lawrence Ray, Ralph Seikrist, Leonard Boylan and Norman Johnston.

Miss Mary Johns, Miss Helen Johns and Miss Beth Smith are among Pendleton people who left yesterday for Eugene to attend the Homecoming celebration at University of Oregon. They are members of Gamma Phi Beta and will be guests of that sorority during their stay at the University. East Oregonian. Miss Helen Johns was a teacher in the local high school here last year and is well known throughout this city.

Thursday of last week, Mrs. Charles Reynolds entertained the Mardi Club at her home on Washington avenue. Seven tables at cards furnished entertainment for the guests, after which suitable refreshments were served. High score for the evening went to Mrs. C. H. Scranton. The next meeting of the club will be held with Miss Janet Jones next Tuesday evening.

The members of the Eastern Star Social Club motored to the home of Miss Carrie Hunter on Tuesday afternoon and enjoyed an afternoon of cards. Mrs. L. M. Hoyt won high honors, after which the hostess served refreshments.

Announcements have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Wade of Enterprise, announcing the marriage of their daughter, Annie, to James Gibson Taylor of Fresno, California, on Saturday, November 1. The young couple will be at home at 2218 Illinois street, Fresno, California, after December 1st.

Mrs. E. P. Mossman, a prominent society and club woman of La Grande, gave a splendid lecture on art before the Enterprise Woman's Club Thursday. Mrs. Mossman is an authority on art and the three Art Shows which she gave last spring will be remembered as the finest ever given here.

A delightful luncheon was given by the Enterprise ladies, in her honor Friday.

One of the first social events of Thanksgiving week will be the Neighborhood Minstrel Show. Everyone expects to attend and several hostesses are already planning dinner parties for that night and line parties afterwards at the show.

Complimenting Mrs. O. E. Silverthorne, who leaves tonight for California, where she expects to spend the winter, the Past Presidents of the Neighborhood Club tendered her a delightful four course luncheon at the Foley Hotel at one-thirty o'clock yesterday afternoon. The club colors of white and gold formed the color scheme. A basket of beautiful flowers was presented to the honoree in a tender and befitting speech. Many good wishes were expressed by those present for a safe and pleasant trip for Mrs. Silverthorne. She has been very prominent in club activities in La Grande and will be greatly missed in musical circles also, where she has proven herself most invaluable. It is hoped that Mrs. Silverthorne will return to La Grande in the Spring.

The personell included Mesdames George Carpy, A. T. Hill, A. E. Evans, Anna Polack, J. E. Wright, Vincent Palmer, George T. Cochran, Ray W. Logan, Albert Hunter, O. E. Silverthorne and Miss Margaret Anson.

A very attractive musical program is to be rendered at the Neighborhood Club reception Tuesday afternoon at which the following numbers will be given: Piano Solo—Miss Hilda Anthony. Character Song—"This is What Thanksgiving Brings"—Pupils of the second and third grades under direction of Miss Kathleen Rye. Violin Solo—Miss Bertha Young.

Besides these numbers the Neighborhood Club has been very fortunate in securing Prof. Jaxerino with his famous band, who has consented to give one of his wonderful entertainments. Classical selections from the opera by Thomas Catti followed by the striking aria "O Mio Babbalino" and other classics will enthrall and appeal to the hearers. A rare treat, musically, for the ladies.

"POLICE PURSES, REFUSE TO BUY," URGES OFFICIAL

Courage of Customers Only Way to Cut H. C. L., Lester Declares

Chicago—A nation wide movement to police our own pocket books and develop courage of the customer in front of the counter to refuse to buy an article which he cannot afford, was advocated today by Orrin C. Lester, vice-director of the savings division of the Treasury Department. Speaking before the annual convention of the International Lyceum and Chautauque Association, in session here, Mr. Lester said that the development of courage to refuse to buy and to do it with as much grace and pride as the clerk behind the counter names the price, would make economy both fashionable and respectable in America.

It is estimated, Mr. Lester said, that for most incomes an average of 20 to 40 per cent may be allotted for food and from 10 to 20 per cent for clothing. Why should not the people of our too small incomes make a concerted effort to refuse to buy an article of food or clothing that costs more than a proper proportion of the above percentages? A dollar is only half as large as it was four and a half years ago. We must either increase the size of the dollar or adjust our wants to the size it now is.

Mr. Lester concluded with an appeal for the speeding up of production, the elimination of wastes, consistent and rigid economy and saving and investment of money for the government saving securities and Liberty Bonds.

well, they come down in price or go out of existence."

In discussing thrift and the need for the wise use of money, Mr. Lester made special appeal to the women of America. He said:

"The government movement for saving, conducted through the medium of the sale and distribution of Thrift and War Savings Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificates, is very closely connected with the question of the high living cost. The practical and lasting answer to this question lies more in education than in investigation. The Federal Food Administration found that 90 per cent of products consumed in this country passes through the hands of the women of this country.

People Supreme

"All the profiteers combined and all the combines together cannot defeat the people on this question when they get interested enough and information enough to act together. The thing I want to see in this connection is a 'Refuse to Buy' movement among the people of this country. A prominent produce dealer of San Francisco said the other day, 'If the people should take it into their heads to stop eating any one perishable food for five days, they could ruin the market.'

"A Pacific Coast newspaper, discussing this statement editorially, put its finger on the cost of living remedy when it said: 'It may be that profiteering is at the bottom of present high prices, but a man cannot produce if you refuse to buy his goods.'

"Regardless of investigations and criminal prosecutions, we shall have the problem of the high cost of living as long as we have extravagant and thoughtless consuming public."
