QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY—AN UP-TO-DATE CANADIAN INSTITUTION

The Arts Building

The installation of a new Principal and a new Chancellor brought many Americans and Canadians to Queen's University, Kingston, Ontario, in October, for although it is a small university in respect to the number of its students it has sent many distinguished graduates into the world and has gained such a character for sound learning and enterprise that it stands high among the universities of this continent.

The Gates to Knowledge

E. V. Beatty, President Canadian Pacific Ry. and Chancellor Queen's University

The importance of research work and has enabled Professor Clark, who holds the Chair of Physics, to establish a laboratory for the investigation of substances under extremely low temperatures, with the use of liquid hydrogen, the only laboratory of its kind in North America.

Special efforts have been made by the faculties to meet the needs of returned soldiers whose scholastic career had been interrupted by the war.

TAX FORMS TO BE PRINTED

Plans for issuance early in December of forms for filing income and excess profits tax returns are being made by the Bureau of Internal Revenue. Taxpayers will thus be given the opportunity of making out their returns immediately upon the closing of their books for the year 1919, when accurate knowledge of their accounts is fresh in their minds.

by which the net income exceeds $1,000,000.00, are the same as for the year 1918. The exemptions of $1,000.00 for single persons and $2,000 for married persons and heads of families remain unchanged.

PRESIDENT OUT FOR FIRST TIME TODAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—President Wilson was taken downstairs in a wheel chair today and hauled by the automobile on the lawn. This is the first time he has been outdoors since taken ill.

Combinations in Soap. The principle of soap making is always the same and is based on the combination of fat and an alkali, as in the case of tallow and lye. Variations in soaps are largely due to additions of perfumes, coloring matter and such substances, which have nothing to do with the primary purpose of soap, which is to cleanse.

ELKS CAMPAIGN TO HELP THRIFT

members at every subordinate lodge in the state of Oregon will enter enthusiastically into this campaign and through their efforts keep success to this post-war effort.

Harry G. Allen, president of the Oregon State Elks Association, who is in the city Saturday, endorsing with the committee of La Grande lodge upon the government's war savings campaign, to sell war savings stamps war savings and treasury certificates.

"In every county of Oregon live wire committees composed of prominent members of the Order of Elks are ready to handle the campaign. An appeal will be made to every citizen of the state to do his or her part.

pected to also do their full share, so that by the first of the year we can report that the deficit now facing the state in this campaign has been met.

The War-Savings campaign is not alone an enterprise to sell government securities but in addition, there is an important factor which the Elks are interested in. This factor is the incentive to save which is brought forward by the sale of War-Savings certificates. At this time when costs of everything are soaring, a particular effort should be made by all to save, and no better investment is presented than War-Savings and treasury certificates.

"The Elks of Oregon respect the support of all citizens and because of the lack of funds we will expect the citizens to go to their banks and contribute to the fund as it is possible there is no time for home-to-home solicitation and I trust that this appeal will be heeded by all, young and old."

The Seats of the Mighty. A certain captain went calling upon the village belle. The old man kept a very vicious household, and upon the occasion of the officer's call the dog was untied. When the fearsome canine had finished with the captain the seat of the latter's trousers was missing. His brother officers, looking him about his predicament, asked if the girl was worth risking his anatomy in that fashion. The captain replied: "Maybe not, but I have always been willing to give up my seat to any lady."—Judge.
