LILA LEE'S NEWEST ROLE GREATEST OF HER SCREEN CAREER.

Celebrated Paramount Star Well Cast in "A Daughter of the Wolf."

The producers of "A Daughter of the Wolf," Lila Lee's latest Paramount picture, which will be exhibited at the Arcade theatre tomorrow only, pronounce it the greatest achievement of her career as a motion picture star.

The story is unique and furnishes the delightful little star with one of the best vehicles yet afforded her for the display of her talents. In the role of the little child of the great North Woods, she is said to be excellent and gives a vivid and true-to-life portrayal.

The story itself abounds in thrilling and gripping situations and depicts the adventures of the little daughter of a rough fur smuggler known as Wolf Ainsworth. She goes with him to the city across the border where he disposes of his furs, and there she falls in love with a rich young man.

Their fateful separation, his search for her and the events leading up to their meeting; how her father and his gang who suspect her lover is a "revenuer" are just on the point of killing him when the revenue officers break in upon them; the terrific fight and the death of the Wolf and capture of his gang; all this and more, is vividly enacted by the star and her splendid supporting cast.
