LOCAL HAPPENINGS

greatly pleased over the fact that a large number of the counties have made a 100 per cent record as members of the state teachers' organization.

More From Pendleton—

Mrs. Ed. Robb and Mrs. Murvin Masher, of Pendleton, are visitors in the city.

Ray Luper Here—

Ray Luper came in on No. 6 yesterday noon and will spend a few days here, after which he goes to Baker. He is connected with the state water department.

Nine Take Examinations—

Nine persons took the civil service examinations which were given at the postoffice yesterday morning for the office of clerk carrier.

Attends Bankers' Convention—

T. J. Scroggin and William Miller returned Saturday noon from Portland where they attended the Bankers' Convention. Fred Meyers was another La Grande, who went down for the meeting.

Remains Shipped to Pilot Rock—

The remains of Janet Smith, war-time daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Smith, of Starkey, who died here Friday, were shipped last evening by the Bohnenkamp undertaking company to Pilot Rock, and burial will be made at that place.

Mrs. Towery Returns—

Mrs. G. E. Towery has returned from Forest Grove, where she attended the funeral on Tuesday of Lloyd Ritchey, who lived with Mr. and Mrs. Towery last summer. The Towerys run the brickyard.

Held Here For Sheriff—

A. W. Wasson and Mabel Brooks were taken into custody here Friday evening by Sheriff Warnick and held pending the arrival of Sheriff Chrisman, of Wasco county. The Wasco county sheriff arrived yesterday noon. Wasson is wanted in The Dalles for non-support of minor children.

Marriage Licenses Issued—

Marriage licenses issued the past week by County Clerk McCormick were as follows: November 15, Richard Lane and Blanch Combs, both of Union county; Nov. 17, Harry Gilbert Rynearson and Margaret Fugit, also of Union county; Jay Conley and Harriett Belle Mott, both of Union county, and Willard Miles and Nora McDaniel, on November 10.

Word of Many Meanings.

What does not that word cheerful mean truly? It means a contented spirit; it means a pure heart; it means a kind and loving disposition; it means humility and charity; it means a generous appreciation of others, and a modest opinion of self.—Thackeray.
