

Thanksgiving Linens

PRICE means a great deal more today than ever before in buying Thanksgiving linen. The stores who did not foresee the tremendous advances that were coming and who, for one reason or another, were unable to take advantage of the then prices cannot, through any possibility, fairly quote such prices as ours.

WHILE you will find some lots of linens limited, you will find as large a variety and as good quality as you will find anywhere, in these times when merchandise is so scarce and hard to get.

MANY PLAYS ARE BOOKED

The Arcade theatre has signed up with a number of good plays, some of them musical comedies, and the people of La Grande should not go show hungry this winter, as has been the case during some of the past winter seasons.

One of the biggest attractions to be booked by the Arcade manager is "Chin-Chin," a musical comedy that is rich in Oriental and Old English costumes, unique and colorful. The plot deals with Aladdin and the Wonderful Wish-Lamp, from which arise the many funny situations which take place in the comedy. The two big laugh makers are Walter Willis and Roy Binder—assuming five different characters each. The list of other fun makers is good and includes Tom Brown's Famous Cloza Saxophone Band, the Teddy Bears, and the Laughing Horse in the circus scene. "Chin-Chin" has been playing in the middle western cities during November. Don Paschla, Colorado Springs, Cheyenne and Salt Lake City being a few of the cities made by the company.

"Revelations of a Wife," a drama; "Mutt and Jeff," a musical comedy; "Bringin' up Father to Society," also a musical comedy, are some of the other attractions which have been booked by this theatre, through Klaw and Ellinger. The bookings are handled by George Hood of the Seattle office. Klaw and Ellinger have the dimensions of the stage of the Arcade, and are able to book only plays which can be handled easily on the local stage.

According to Don Myers of the Arcade, the booking of plays for this theatre is an experiment. Should the people like the plays, more will be booked, but if the La Grande populace does not care for them the experiment will be dropped.

HALE HAMILTON AS FINANCIAL GAMBLER

Popular Metro Start to Appear at Cyclone Comedy-drama at the Sherry Theatre.

Like the greatest of all his stage successes, "Hot-Rich-Quick Wallingford" is Hale Hamilton's new picture play, a peppery comedy-drama called "The Four Flushers" in which he will appear at the Sherry theatre today and tomorrow.

The role portrayed by the forceful young Metro star, that of Lon Withers, a young New York clerk who puts on a big front in a darling bid for a big contract, is very similar to that made famous by him in the sensational stage success in which he was seen in all quarters of the globe.

Different from either "After My Own Heart," "Five Thousand a Hour," or even "Full o' Pep" is this newest vehicle of Hamilton's which is an original story written especially for him by Isola Forrester and Maura Page.

It is a breezy, powerful tale of romance, generously sprinkled with gripping adventure and a beautiful love theme, produced under the direction of Harry L. Franklin at the Metro studios in an atmosphere of luxury and wealth.

Also shown the last chapter of "Perils of Thunder Mt." Come and see the Dash.

No Thunderbolts.

A "thunderbolt" was lately said to have fallen at Cardiff, in Wales. As a matter of fact, there is no such thing as a thunderbolt, but two phenomena often give rise to a belief in something of the sort. When lightning strikes the ground it sometimes bores a hole of considerable depth and width and may supply substance to the soil. Generally, however, what pass as thunderbolts are aerolites, meteoric fragments which come from the skies, but have nothing to do with thunder.

Unlike Day Over Pilgrims. In 1731, on the 25th of September, a gang of 130 Indians were taken from Newgate Prison and put aboard ship to be transported to America to repopulate the country. Later in the century England changed the destination of her transported criminals to Botany Bay and favored America with shipments of destitute people just discharged from the poorhouses.

Would Be Up to Date.

Minnie, five years old, lives in the country. One summer she was taken to visit in town, where she was much interested in the electric lights. The first time the faithful kerosene burner was lighted after her return home she looked at it with evident disfavor, then ran to her father with: "Papa, let's give our lamps away and get us some gas lights in bottles."

Occasional Vexation Profitable.

A noted writer of detective stories once said he solved most of his puzzles over the billiard table, and a scenario writer declared that the tonic for a sluggish imagination is a 30-minute game of pocket billiards. From all of which it may be surmised that the fellow who gets away from the grind, spasmodically or regularly, gets a better perspective of the business than the fellow who feels the business cannot spare him.

Laid Color on Thickly.

There were periods when even men rouged. In the Eighteenth century little attempt was made to imitate nature's coloring. The ladies "laid it on thick" in round red spots, and seemed to apply it, as they did patches, to obtain a supposed decorative effect, and to stimulate the blush of nature. The red and white they used, unlike the modern cosmetics, were actually poisonous, and there is record of more than one lady of quality who died from the effects of white lead.

Paul Verlaine.

Passion, wisdom, creative genius, the power of mystery or color, it has been wisely said, are allotted in the hour of birth and can be neither assimilated nor learned. For good and evil—for he was a mixture of evil and good—Verlaine possessed all these qualities. Verlaine is always faithful to himself, to the two sides of himself, and he has thus succeeded in rendering as no one ever has before, the whole home duplex, the eternal conflict of humanity.—Arthur Symons.

Where Politicians Err.

Politicians think by stopping up the chimney they can stop its smoking. They try the experiment, they drive the smoke back, and there is more smoke than ever.—Burne.

Don't fail to see the "Husking Bee" and Miss Clem McKinney's company at the Star theatre tonight.

HIPPODROME VAUDEVILLE AT ARCADE TOMORROW

An overture by Lindsey's orchestra and a two reel Fox comedy will open the Hippodrome Vaudeville show at the Arcade tomorrow.

Bergen and Bergen are two classy girls appearing in a singing number.

Bert Legman is a clever young man appearing in a number of character impersonations. All of his changes are made in front of the audience which adds interest to his act. He has a good line of comedy and his Luke McLuke impersonation is a scream.

Rainbow Lilly and Mohawk are two talented American Indians presenting their novelty offering called Twentieth Century Indians. Their number consists of songs, dances and many interesting numbers known and done by the Red man only.

Fossilander Brothers present a Comedy Musical Revue which is a laughable and unique offering. Besides playing on the popular instruments they have a number of novelty musical instruments which they know how to use and one of the members is a comedian of no mean ability.
