CARMEL MYERS

COMING TO ARCADE

The drab existence of a small town milliner is cleverly contrasted with the butterfly life of a New York society girl in "The Gilded Dream," to be shown at the Arcade Theatre Wednesday only, with dainty Carmel Myers as a star. The story appeared in a recent issue of a popular magazine. It is from the pen of Katherine Lauder Robbins.

NEW INCE CO-STARS

IN SCREEN VERSION OF "MARY'S ANKLE"

Youth and high spirits are the dominating notes in the Thomas H. Ince production, "Mary's Ankle," which is coming to the Sherry Theatre for two days commencing today.

The story is about a Doc Hampton, young and impetuous, who meets a girl of Tag Day and falls in love with her. In order to claim an inheritance from his rich uncle, Doc has to take wedding arrangements seriously. His bluff is called, the uncle informing him that he will be a hand to inspect the bride and take them on a honeymoon to Honolulu. In the emergency he throws the Tag Day girl across Doc's path. He persuades her to pose as his bride, and later, of course, she makes good the deception by falling in love with her pretended husband.

LAUGHTER KEYNOTE OF ALL STORIES ABOUT "TORCHY"

"Laugh and the world laughs with you," has been the motto of Sewell Ford, the noted American humorist. In his seven volumes of stories about "Torchy," his red-headed office boy creation, "Torchy" is the essence of clean fun as is shown when thousands of copies of the eighth "Torchy" book have been sold in advance of its publication. "Torchy" is now to be seen on the screen for the first time, with Johnny Hines, noted stage comedian, as the hero. The debut is at the Arcade theatre Wednesday only.

known in our own country, is to be lightly considered.

F. G. Diven, manager, Western Union Telegraph Company. Ne Poon Chew has been aptly called the Chinese Mark Twain. His humor is delightful, and his wholesome fun permeates his lecture. Anyone that once heard his lecture will wish to hear him again.

J. C. Haack, president of the Grande Ronde Chautauque Association. I, having had the pleasure of seeing and hearing Mr. Ne Poon Chew at our Chautauque assembly eight years ago, take pleasure in saying that inasmuch as he is coming in our midst again under the auspices of the high school program, that as a community we should come out in mass, and fill the house to overflowing. He is an international man and a gentleman of the highest type.

C. M. Humphries, treasurer of the Union County Republican Central Committee. On Wednesday evening of this week, an opportunity will be afforded the people of our city to listen to a lecture by one of the world's greatest men, Ne Poon Chew. It is seldom that a percentage of international reputation comes to us.

A. W. Nelson, former secretary of the Ad Club. Community courtesy commands an overflowing audience when Dr. Ne steps on the rostrum. He is of international reputation. His eloquence, humor, diction, philosophy and personality make him a unique type. His merit is recognized. Only before the citizens is to meet him with an available that will be a fitting tribute to Ne Poon Chew.

LEGISLATIVE SIDELIGHTS

By Bruce Deeds

IMPERIAL HOTEL, PORTLAND, Sunday, Jan. 9

No bunch of school youngsters singing "We're on the Way to Mandalay" could show more life than does the bunch of legislators who are tuning up their motors here today for the forty day legislative run at Salem.

Not only are the elected members active in their handshaking and "joshing" but the vox populi seemed to have turned out in goodly numbers to join in the hip, hip, hurrah sentiment. And all this goes on when Oregon is dry just as it used to when Oregon was wet, in heating beyond a doubt that Mrs. Para Thornton and her following were not far wrong when they used to argue that the booze was superfluous and not essential.

To arrive at the Imperial early in the morning and find Metehan eating an early breakfast means that Phil had been out all night and did not go to his East side home. Al Kadars had a meeting of course.

Then to lock down the dining room a little further and see President Kory of O. A. C. was eating an early breakfast—well, what would that mean? It might mean any one of several things for the president has been known to leave "parvails in the day" hour of eight when the legislature was about to convene and he had heard in advance of the members who were to be on the Ways and Means committee, for President Kory is some of it. Anyway he was up early Sunday morning and let his affable smile permeate through the lobby and incidentally renewing his old-time acquaintance with some of his boys whom he had not seen for quiet a while.

Roy Reiner, president of the senate—that is he will be on Monday—refused to stay in the way very long and was up and out early on Sabbath day. Roy is naturally an early riser. He has traded with Unafilla Indian, all of his life and some of them are such shrewd traders that he had to get up early to keep up with them, hence he formed that very desirable early rising habit which is considered an asset by everyone except Andrew Bland when he goes to the state fair.

Senator Ellis, of Harney-Malheur county—a new man on the job like himself—got hold of the swing of the rope in Phil Metehan's legislative bills and Ellis is a man who is going to do some good work. He said to have been a democrat up to the time President Wilson determined to go to Europe and then he left the party with the donkey for an extreme and joined the G. O. P. elephant crowd. He will be liked personally in his own county that republicans down there shot him into the state senate in 1908 as he had confessed his political sins and took the oath of allegiance to the party of Jim Blaine.

Albert Hugster, our representative from Union county, has about as many friends as there are stars who enter the Imperial hotel doors. And the peculiar thing is secretly anyone ever thinks of Albert being a democrat. Republicans take him into their council and play ball with him just as though he had never known what republican simplicity really is.

democratic tabernacles appeared this afternoon in the lobby. Mill Miller, the state of Louisiana and now Internal Revenue collector—holds the job that Jack Pove is after—stood around scanning the rooming crowd. Senator Sam Garland, typical southern democrat wearing the wide rimmed hat, his monocle curled at the angle always popular south of Mason and Susan's line, approached Miller and the two exchanged the "good-bye" salute of the Oregon democracy. "I feel," said Mill, "that the democrats ought to hold an election this year." He just as this subject was about to be discussed someone said something about a mint julep and Senator Garland drew a long breath. "It is all about money," remarked the old warrior, "but on a morning like this a mint julep would go fine, and if it were left to me to make the mint for it the mint would not be bruised."

NOW FOR A YEAR OF GOOD BUYING

TO THE PEOPLE OF THIS COMMUNITY

This is just a friendly talk, in which we hope to impress upon your minds some very interesting facts.

It is useless for us to speak of the high quality of the groceries we sell. You all know that. But we do want to emphasize the fact that 1921 is going to be a year of mighty good buying at this store. We know that the public is always willing to meet a merchant half way, but most people have an inherent objection to traveling all of the distance themselves.

Right there is where we are going to shine. We are going to meet you half way—sometimes even more than half. That means that when you want the very best of values for your money you have only to come half way. We'll be THERE with the values. It's a case of SAVING MONEY on every purchase for you.
