After the regular business session of the Neighborhood club Tuesday afternoon, the members present listened to a delightful musical program rendered by all from the compositions of Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, America's foremost woman composer. Mrs. Sherwood Williams was the leader for the day and she read a well-prepared paper dealing with Mrs. Beach's works. The first musical number was given by the pupils of the second grade of the Central school, under the direction of Miss Gabel Osterling. The little folks delighted their listeners with the selections "Why" and "The Owl." They were accompanied by Mrs. Lee Reynolds. For the second number Miss Hulda Anthony played "Gavotte Fantaisie" in her usual charming manner, and graciously responded to an encore.

Two selections, "Ah, Love, But a Day," and "The Year's At Spring," were two beautiful numbers ably rendered by Mrs. A. L. Richardson, who is always a favorite musical circles. She responded to an encore. Mrs. W. W. Boy officiated at the piano in her usual inimitable manner.

Mr. Kenneth Gekeler played two violin selections, "Romance in A" and "A Lullaby." He was accompanied by Miss Anthony and these numbers were greatly appreciated. Mrs. Sherwood Williams, in the delightful manner that always characterizes her singing rendered "Ecstasy" and "Just for This." As in all, Beach's best numbers were well handled and it was a most pleasing program from beginning to end.

Saturday night at the home of Mrs. John Stoddard was the scene of a very pretty announcement party given for Miss Blanche Black and Lester Stoddard. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McManus were the honor guests of the evening. Miss Mabel Herzinger was joint hostess of the evening.

The evening was spent in dancing and a hundred was played during the course of amusement. Miss Gene Wells appeared in a pale blue Ballet dress and danced the Rose Dance. As a grand finale, she tossed a pale pink rose to Elmer McManus which contained the announcement of Miss Black and Mr. Stoddard.

The home was prettily though simply decorated with bowls of pink roses and small white flowers, thus carrying out the color scheme of pink, blue and white.

Late in the evening, white candles decorated with pale pink and blue flowers were passed out among the guests as favors. A glowing fire burned in the fireplace, thus adding a pretty touch to the scene, and refreshments were served in the glowing firelight.

The guest list included the Misses Blanche Black, Deloris Pearson, Irene O'Connell, Miss Ash, Mildred Bush, Wilman and Mabel Osterling, and Mabel Herzinger, the Messrs. Lynn Larson, Paul Masse, Herbert Hopkins, Homer Lefel, Robert Pattison, Stanley Miles, Julian Ash and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McManus, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Clague, Mr. and Mrs. Hill Templeton and Mr. and Mrs. John Stoddard.

An event that promises to be of more than ordinary merit, is a musical program to be given in February by the Methodist church chorus choir. Committees have been named to prepare and carry out a plan that will provide some excellent music for the occasion. The specific date is tentatively set as February 18th, and the nature of the program is now being worked out.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shaw were host and hostess to a number of their friends at their home near Alice. The evening was spent in cards and dancing and, at a very late hour, an elaborate supper was served by the hostess.

Mrs. W. R. Jones is entertaining the members of the Thursday afternoon bridge club at her home Thursday afternoon.

The C. W. B. M. of the Christian church, will meet with Mrs. J. D. Smith, 1706 First Street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All members and women of the church are urged to attend, and plans will be made for C. W. B. M. Day.

The Executive Committee of the Christian Endeavor of the Christian Church met at the home of Mrs. R. H. Coker last night. Plans were discussed and made for the social Endeavor is to have the 21st of this month. The Eastern Oregon Convention of the Christian Church meets in La Grande in February and the young folks are working hard to insure the delegates a hearty reception. After the business session, Mrs. Coker served delightful refreshments.

On Friday evening, Jan. 7, Crystal Rebekah Lodge No. 50 and the La Grande Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F. held a joint installation of officers, after which the served a fine luncheon to 150 people. A short program of talks and music was given. This was followed by a dance. The new officers installed in the Rebekah lodge were: N. C. Myrtle Houston; V. G. Dorothy Gardner; Sec., Louise Clarke; Treas., Mattie Golden; Warden, Larry Parsons; Cond., Larry Parsons; I. G., Miss Halvey; O. G., Mrs. Halvey; R. S. N., Rosa Glass; L. S., G. Eva Bowers; R. S. V. G., Viola Benham, and Chaplin, Mrs. Chardwick. Officers of the I. O. O. F. who will fill the offices for the coming year are: N. G., P. R. Suddam; V. G., W. C. Robinson; Sec., R. E. Clarke, Treasurer, H. E. Coledge; Cond., G. R. Lindsey; Warden, J. M. Midrum; I. S., Chas. Weigle; I. G., L. Holman; R. S. N. G., Ed. Crossen; L. S. R. G., W. E. McClure; R. S. V. G., J. Roslock; L. S. V. G., J. B. Lindsay; R. S., S. W. Austin, L. S. S., T. J. Keel; Chaplin, H. D. Saker.

About 50 young ladies and maids were entertained Monday evening in the parlors of the M. E. Church, by the Young Woman's Educational Auxiliary. Five little Japanese maidens greeted the guests and ushered them into the parlor, which was artistically decorated in Oriental flowers and flowery kingdom scenes. After a snappy business session, the president, Mrs. R. P. Lailis, turned the meeting over to the program committee consisting of Mrs. H. S. Brodton, chairman; Mrs. Cecil Bolton, Mrs. M. M. Bibberstein and Miss Holling. The first number was a little Japanese tableau, presented by five little girls in costumes. Dorothy Brodton, as the hostess, Geda McKenna, as the Japanese mother; Lois Nelson, who played some American music, and Helen and Jean Williams, Mrs. Bibberstein, costumed as Japanese princess, executed the Japanese set in an instructive way. After that the little Misses Williams put on a clever skit in which Helen and the maiden singing "Cherry Blossom" and Jean sang the capricious little "S. Jackie, in costume.

The study for the evening was given as a quiz, for all members. Guides were chosen for a spelling contest and Mrs. H. E. Dixon stood up the longest by answering the most questions from the study book. A social hour followed, during which delicious refreshments were served by the little Japanese maidens who had made a distinct hit during the evening.

Mrs. A. A. McAllister and Mrs. W. R. Jones will be joint hostesses for the members of the Kaffee Klatch on Friday afternoon, at the Jamboree.

Monday evening the members of the Westminster Guild Chapter were delightfully entertained by Miss Amy Miller at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Murphy. The early part of the evening was taken up with business, and the work of the Girls' Friendly Society was explained to the members of the Guild by Mrs. Robert A. Pratt, who has been appointed to a part of the organization in La Grande. Mrs. Pratt was assured that the Guild members would do anything to help the movement along.

Miss Hulda Anderson and Miss Hattie Shaw gave excellent talks on the missionary life and work in Persia. Miss Anderson telling some especially interesting stories which she had heard Dr. E. T. Allen and Dr. Packard, who were stationed at Brumley, Persia, for several years, tell. These two missionaries, and their wives, after spending much hard labor in the field, saw the day during the late war, when everything was destroyed, and their people driven off. The two missionaries finally made their way out, and are now in the Pacific Northwest, raising money with which to go back and build up the mission town.

The latter part of the evening was spent in a social way, delicious refreshments being served by the hostess.

A most welcome surprise and shower was given by the ladies of the Catholic Church to Father Loser, Monday afternoon on his return to the rectory. Owing to the sickness of some of the out-of-town children, Father Loser gave up his home, which was placed in quarantine for two months. Hardly had he established himself in his home, when the ladies, exhibiting their own spirit of kindness and zeal for their pastor and parish, planned this party. An abundance of groceries and fruit were received at the shower, the fruit in particular, being of the choicest, home variety. Among the articles received were meat, sugar, bread, coffee, tea, cocoa, sardines, salmon, clams, catsup, spices, fresh vegetables, towels and cloths, and a sufficient supply of home prepared jellies, vegetables and fruit to provide the rectory until next fall.

The ladies also brought their own refreshments which were served at the close of the party. The beautiful floor lamp and oil painting which was presented to the house at the occasion of the bazaar, graced the home for the first time.

Father Loser takes occasion again to thank the ladies and men of the parish, as also the numerous friends of the church in La Grande and vicinity, for the splendid spirit of kindness and cooperation ever manifested during the pastorate of good Father Briscoll, as also during the present incumbency.

The announcement which has been made by the L. D. S. Choir that the Ladies' Columbia Symphony Orchestra will appear in this city on Jan. 20, has aroused considerable interest among music lovers and theatre patrons. That attraction is one of the most unique orchestras that has ever appeared in the United States or Canada. It has a woman conductor, Mme. Frances Knight, a very distinguished musician, and entire personnel of the orchestra is made up of gifted young lady musicians.

Their program is a particularly happy and versatile one and includes vocal selections of Genevieve Gilbert, soprano, four solo dances by Miss Dorothy May Volkey, ranging from the Russian Ballet to toe dancing. Each dance is given in different costume with full orchestral accompaniment.

The orchestra travel in their own private sleeper and are making their first trans-continental tour, achieving splendid success at all points.

Their complete program will be published shortly, meanwhile their appearance is eagerly anticipated by music lovers.

The first meeting of the Girl's Friendly Society, which is just being organized in the city, will be held Friday evening at 7 o'clock in Honan Hall. All girls of the city are given an invitation to be present at this organization meeting, and to hear the plans which the ladies who are organizing the club, have made for the coming year. It is expected that Mrs. Tourist of Washington, wife of Bishop Tourlet, will be in the city Friday evening, and will have many interesting things to tell the girls at that time.

The Friendly Society is an organization of girls of all denominations, or no church at all, and girls of all ages from 12 years on.

Following the meeting Friday evening, a social hour will be held, during which time the members can become acquainted with one another and have a good time such as all girls love to have. Election of officers will also take place.

Later, it is expected to have a Corny Stutzen, principle of St. Margaret's School, of Boise, Idaho, in the city when a special meeting will be called in order that she might meet with the girls.

For all those girls who are between the ages of five and twelve years, there will be a meeting on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Honan Hall, at which time stories will be told and games played under the direction of Miss Inogene Russell. These girls will be known as Candidates.

Another club to resume meetings this past week was the Foxgloves Club, which is now in its third year of existence. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hibberd were host and hostess for the members of this club, with a few invited guests, on Saturday evening. Invited scores were counted following the card games. F. E. Oxner was found to be high point winner.

A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess to bring the evening to a pleasant close.

The new officers recently elected for the ensuing year of the Eastern Star, will be installed this evening, when members of that order will gather at the Masonic parlors at 7:30 o'clock. The annual installation of officers is always followed by a delightful social hour, and a delightful evening is anticipated for tonight.

The members of the Bible in Art class met for their first session following the holiday vacation, last Sunday morning at the home of the director, Mrs. E. P. Mossman. Most of the study hour was taken up in a business meeting, preparatory to the work which is to be taken up by the class for the coming months. During the meeting, several new members were welcomed into the class, and it was decided to keep the roll books open one more Sunday, after which the class roll will be closed and no new members will be taken in. Because of the work Miss Hulda Anderson and Miss Margaret Anson have done for the class in the work of holding the vespers each Sunday afternoon before the Christmas season, these two Sunday School workers were voted into the class as honorary members.

It was decided to hold a night art class, which will be open to members only, along with the class work. This class will take up the study of art, or how to know and understand pictures.

In the very near future, a banquet will be held by the members of this class at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Mossman, as committees were appointed Sunday morning to make plans for this much anticipated affair.

Mrs. J. J. Carr is spending several days visiting with friends in Vancouver, B. C.

Over 150 little clever Chinese invitations have been issued by the Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church for the Chinese Tea, which is to be held at the home of Mrs. E. P. Mossman tomorrow afternoon.

The invitations, designed from real Chinese invitations, were of bright red paper, fashioned in an unique style, and, of course, written in the Chinese mode of running the letters up and down the page, instead of cross-wise as in the English language. The guests have been invited for 2:30, and a most original program has been arranged for the afternoon, all of the topics being handled in the Oriental way. The play "Little Ah May," which was so well received at the Presbyterian Union several months ago, will again be presented by the girls of the Westminster Guild Chapter.

PERRY DANCES DISCONTINUED

PERRY, Jan. 10.—(Special).—Owing to the fact that cost for music, etc., has become so high that there was no profit left and often a deficit of several dollars, the trustees of the local dance hall have decided to discontinue the Saturday night dances, for a time at least.

To furnish lights during the time while no power can be secured from the dynamo at the mill, a Delco system is furnishing lights for a few of the houses on the Middle Flat.

The men who are hauling lumber from the mill up the river to Hilgard report the snow as being very light and that the south-slopes are practically bare.

A meeting of the Four L's last week, Albert Ballantyne was elected athletic manager and preparations were made to furnish some sports and games for the men during the winter. Practice will begin this week and the boys hope to organize and win in shape a basketball team, in order to take on the Stoddard quintet in the near future. Volley ball and other games will be provided in order to accommodate the older men who cannot stand the strenuous exercise of basket ball. At the meeting today evening several of the boys and some of the older boys tried short bouts with the gloves. An oyster supper and smoker preceded the boxing matches.

Fred Struden is here visiting with his son and daughter. A bill move from Portland to La Grande as soon as his home is vacated.

A dance was held in the amusement hall Saturday night, the proceeds going to the athletic fund. Local musicians donated the music.

Doc Bullis has moved to La Grande and the house he occupied will be moved to Perry some time next month.

J. P. Hogeness, Harry Hansen, George Andrews, Bert Colwell, Walter Pohman and Levi Murray and their wives attended the old time dance in La Grande, Thursday night.

Miss Mildred Stringham is in the state capital as stenographer for the State Hunter during the session of the Legislature.

Several employees of the Grand Ronde Lumber Company have been working on the bad stretch of road near the country club house for the past few days.

The Three L's elected officers last Thursday evening at their regular meeting. Mrs. Walter Pohman was chosen president for the first term of 1921. Mrs. J. P. Hogeness was elected vice-president.

COVE COUNCIL IS INSTALLED

COVE, Jan. 11.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams, of Gleichen, Canada, are spending a month here with relatives.

The New Year's dinner, an annual affair at the Mt. Fanny Grange, was well attended and was greatly enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Yoder, of Canada, are spending a few weeks in Cove visiting Mrs. Yoder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Sill.

Mr. and Mrs. John Deah have gone to Shelton, Nebraska, to visit John's mother and old home.

Mrs. A. B. McClain and son, Theodore, have just returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. C. Davis, in Weiser, Idaho.

Leonard Milman and Miss Clara Gardner were married January 1, at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. J. Sandcock. The groom was one of "our soldier boys" and spent two years in China, where he was stationed during his term of service.

There have been an exhibition at Bloehers Store, during the past week, several curios from the Philippine Islands, sent here to Mrs. J. E. Mills by her sister, who is a teacher in Manila.

Miss Maude Yoder, a teacher in the Home schools, has been a guest at Joe Sill's residence during the past week.

Christmas morning a little son came to gladden the home of Dr. Avery Roberts at Ontario, Oregon. Dr. Roberts was a Cove boy and his many friends in Cove wish him happiness.

Miss Lucy Comstock spent her vacation with her parents in Boise, Idaho. Mr. Ray Baker visited her mother in Pendleton recently.

Miss Hazel Duncan spent the Christmas holidays at her home in Weston, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Hanson are residing at the home of his parents, Reva and Mrs. Hanson.

The new City Council of Cove was inaugurated last week. The council now consists of J. E. Tripper, mayor; T. G. Wilson, Recorder and councilmen C. L. Rowe, Lew Bloom, Frank Musick, Mrs. J. W. L. Kaufman and Mae Stearns.

E. O. Santhorn's Sentence. Private Binks was incurable in his disposition and always been too mean and careless to suit the commanding officer, but he knew how to preserve his position. Binks said the captain would give you your chance. Stand there in the corner and whistle for one hour. Private Binks stung into the strains of "The Star-Spangled Banner."

Four sentences is all that is required to attend to the rising weeds to attention.—American Legion Weekly.

The Old School. The old school kept too dry enough while the heating heat rapidly on his head, but he knew how to preserve the downpour for his own needs. He the range of the trees that bore them and gaining in volume, as needed as a trickle to the windows, and a break fountain of the house. The many channels met at the bottom to run down the hole in a torrent and wash under the most narrow earth.—1914-15.

Not Vocal Sound. The grasshopper does not use the throat in producing its shrill note. It is produced by the wings. One of the ribs of each wing resembles a drum while another part of the wing is drawn tight like a drum. When the grasshopper draws one of the other it causes the drum to vibrate.

Bardonia's Wheel Window. Many of the medieval Sardinian churches had round wheel windows in their west fronts, writes S. H. Giles in the Journal of the American Institute of Architects, but the greater number of these churches had their tracery ruined by being walled up in order to put a kitchen glass window in the middle.
