

LEGISLATIVE SIDELIGHTS

(BY BRUCE DENNIS)

STATE HOUSE, Salem, Jan. 11.—(Special Correspondence.)—At least one Legislature will go down in history as exemplifying, in its fullest form, the word "harmony" with a big "H."

ing clerk for the State senate "until death do us part" let his sonorous voice resound through the Senate Chamber this morning, which had a decidedly quieting effect upon the nerves of every one present.

Enjoy A Winter Without A Chap

Skin chapping is very annoying and painful and should be guarded against. You may easily escape chaps this winter by using

PRIMROSE CREAM LOTION

It will keep your skin soft and in a healthy condition. It not only prevents chapping, but quickly heals rough and inflamed skin and restores its natural softness.

Use it before and after exposure to the cold and wind.

Put up in attractive bottles and priced at 30 cents.
