THE OFFICE CAT

—By JUNIUS—

HEART INTEREST POMP

How dear to my heart
Is the old silver ducat
When pay day presents it
Once more to view;
I hardly receive it
Till somebody's out it.
The old silver ducat
Tralla-lala-lal!

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

We know as well as the reader that Longfellow wrote better poetry than ours.
But Longfellow didn't have half a dozen printers at his elbow howling for "copy."

AIN'T SHE A MEAN OLD THING?

When President Wilson was reported as seriously ill the other day, find newspapers carried stories of the heart, foot, ear, lung, eye, elbow and other assorted and varied specialists who had been called in to examine him, one weak La Grande young lady who can usually be found around Silverthorn's about one-third every day, was heard to remark:

"Well, why don't they get him a brain specialist?"
Yes, yes, my dear, why don't they?

Just what have you done to deserve weather as fine as this?

Harold Carpy says that anyway you never saw a married woman who was so near-sighted that she couldn't find fault.

Usually when a young man isn't satisfied with the work he's doing, his boss isn't either.

The question often arises, do we select public officials to work, or to talk?

If you would get the fattest pay envelope, do nothing—but know enough to tell others how to do it.

EDITOR LEFT OWN

She was strong on Woman Suffrage, and her subject was "Woman. Without her, man would be a savage." And this is how the paper had it:
"Woman, without her man would be a savage."

A WAY TO GET EVEN

AND NUMBERS 'EM BACKWARD

A Reliable Remedy for Colds and Croup

It would surprise you to know the number of people who use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. J. N. Rose, Verona, Pa., writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used by myself and husband for a number of years for coughs and colds. I also gave it to my little grand daughter three and a half years of age when she had croup last winter. It broke up the attack at once. I have recommended this remedy to many of my friends and neighbors who have also used it with good results."—Ad.
