EVEN KNOCKERS ARE QUIETED

GIRLS' BASKETBALL GAMES ARE ATTRACTING ATTENTION. Local High School Quintet Will Meet Enterprise Girls Here Tomorrow Evening.

The girls' basketball team of the high school will play the Enterprise team tomorrow evening on the local high school floor. Last week, the two teams played a hard-fought game on the Enterprise field and the local girls came off with just a bit the best of the score. However, the Enterprise team has been working hard this past week, and plans on getting revenge on Friday evening. A lively, poppy game is expected as the result of this determination on the part of both teams.

The captain of the local team is Maljorie O'Brien, and manager, Myrtle Harlan. The other members of the team are: Forward, Maljorie O'Brien; Freda Klaffenstein; Center, Wynona Lyman; Side center, Mildred Hoyt; Guards, Myrtle Harlan and Bernice Lofland.

People are taking a great deal of interest in basketball this year and even the knockers have to admit that the girls play a pretty good game.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS PLAYS

The first series of games played between the different groups of the Intermediate class at the Y. M. C. A. were played last night and all showed good form and fast work. The first game was between Edgar Oliver's squad and Kenneth Keeney's squad. The final result was 16 to 13 in favor of the Keeney squad. The second game was between Max Gullen's squad and James Coker's squad; the result being 10 to 14 in favor of the latter aggregation.

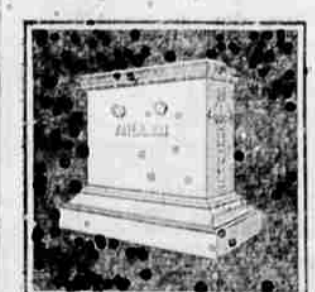

COMPANY WILL REBUILD SOON

BAKER, Jan. 20.—The Sumpter Valley Railroad company will commence work immediately to replace the round house building which was destroyed early Tuesday morning by fire. It was announced today by John W. Hewitt, general manager of the company, that the new building which was estimated at $6,000, was entirely covered by insurance and was not as extensive as was first anticipated. The proposed new building will be similar to the one destroyed by the conflagration, as the eleven stall round house is sufficient to meet the needs of the Sumpter Valley company. Mr. Hewitt stated in making the announcement.

(Continued from Page 1) and it seems that it would have been only fair to use his name. When I decide anything against one of their own number, it is from the purpose of a good newspaperman to open up the scraps. "Bill" Hays ought to live in Eastern Oregon for he has the earmarks of a fellow who likes the mountain ways. There is nothing formal about him and his frankness of manner makes him a favorite with a great many. He was in the house years ago and he was younger then. Bill says when he went to the house he was loaded with more laws that should be passed that would fill the Marion hotel lobby. After he had been there half the session, he was convinced that a lot of fellows had wasted time for years passing laws and he put his bills in his pocket. Joe Singer, sergeant-at-arms of the House, is an alarmist. When he announces the governor's coming and at a joint meeting he used a tone of voice that has the Claxon horn put clear into the basement. But when he is speaking in conversational tone, he is a bland, pleasant voiced gentleman whom you could never refuse to do a favor. Frank Sloan, of Umatilla county, can't just understand yet why it takes so long to do a few things in a legislative session. He has been used
