WHEN WORKING FORCES ARE CUT

In times of business depression the poorest workers are laid off first and efficient men and women retained. Backache, stiff muscles, aching joints, swollen hands and feet, rheumatic pains, bladder weakness and other symptoms of kidney trouble keep many persons from doing their best. John Geo. Bauer, Jr., 3162 Brighton Rd., N. S., Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "I am relieved of all kidney trouble now, but the only sure relief was Foley Kidney Pills. I am now well and strong; no more getting up at nights." —Sold Everywhere. adv.

ROADMASTER IS NAMED

PENDLETON, Jan. 21.—I. J. Shannon has been appointed by the county court to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of County Roadmaster R.E. Phelps, and has already commenced on his duties being occupied with the taking of an inventory on the machinery and other property of the county used in road work. His appointment has been expected for some time as he has been serving the county under Roadmaster Phelps and upon the resignation of the latter to take up the engineering work on the Arlington sewer construction, the new appointment was made.

THEATRES

FRANK MAYO AT ARCADE TODAY.

A smashing story of civilized manpower with an echo of savage ancestry somewhere behind it is "Honor Bound" in which Frank Mayo stars Saturday.

Not a comedy, not a tragedy "Honor Bound" contains admirable phases of each and has something sincere under its skin besides.

It is the idea that the influence of primitive ancestors may slumber for centuries under civilization's veneer, only to be awakened by a reversion to type or "throwback" in the face of primitive situations. It is not a new thought, indeed, for Kipling and others have used it before, but it is one conducive of high dramatic situations, and one that is new to the media of the screen.

TOM MIX SHOWS NEW SENSATIONAL STUNTS.

A flying leap through a small-paned window to the ground ten feet below is one of the hair-raising stunts performed by Tom Mix, the Fox daredevil cowboy star, in "The Untamed" booked for showing at the Star Theatre Saturday and Sunday.

A most unusual and fascinating element underlying the story is the strange companionship of a man and two animals—a demoniacal horse and a devil of a dog—who seem to have supernatural instincts that draw them apart from others of their kind and cause them to seek the companionship of one another, looking always to the man as their leader. Much has been made in the story of this weird trinity of kindred spirits.

WEIGHING OF BULLETS SETTLES CRIME RIDDLE

The weighing of two misshapen, smashed pieces of lead which had once been bullets and the scientific deduction therefrom, proving the innocence of one man and the guilt of another of murder, constitutes one of the remarkable incidents of "The Black Gate," Vitagraph's latest picture.

This production, with Earle Williams playing the stellar role, will be the feature attraction at the Sherry Theatre last showing today.

Also showing the comedy "Silk Stockings."

"HUMORESQUE" IS COMING TO THE SHERRY THEATRE.

The picture at the Sherry Theatre Sunday and Monday is aptly called "Humoresque." It combines all the pathos and laughter that is in Dvorak's famous melody.

"Humoresque" is a Fannie Hurst story, written with all of her deep knowledge of human beings of the ordinary mould. The novel has been transformed with rare sympathy and understanding to the screen. Starting with the boyhood of a youngster in New York's Ghetto, born with two masterful passions in his breast—love for his mother and love for his music—the photoplay shows the child later as a youthful genius of the violin entertaining royalty and giving a huge concert in New York for his own people. Then comes the great sorrow that seems to forbid him ever playing violin again. But in a wonderful manner the clouds are rolled by, and he and his faithful mother are made happy.

YOU KNOW, BUT SOMETIMES FORGET.

Everybody knows that an imitation is never so good as the original and genuine article. Imitations and substitutes never have the same high quality that brought the leader success. Foley's Honey and Tar stands at the top of the list of family remedies for colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchial and la grippe coughs. W. L. Anglin, Antioch, Ga., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar for 15 years and can take a small bottle and stop a cold after it gets started. It is the very best." Contains no opiates. Children like it.—Sold Everywhere. adv.

Serious Results From Colds.

Colds not only cause a tremendous injury to every one who contracts financial loss but are also a serious them as they lower the vitality and prepare the system for the more serious diseases. It is not at all unusual for people who have serious lung trouble to say, "I had a hard cold last winter." Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and cure your cold while you can.—Adv.

GOOD FOR SORE THROAT

When your throat becomes slightly irritated—you neglect it for a few days—it increases in severity and becomes so sore you can hardly swallow—

Be prompt in your treatment — you don't want it to become chronic and probably end in Tonsilitis or Quinsy—that would mean either an operation or prolonged treatment, and much suffering.

Purchase a bottle of
A.D.S. Sore Throat Remedy and gargle the throat thoroughly—it allays all irritation, soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and prevents further infection.
