J. A. Russell to Baker—J. A. Russell left this morning for Baker, where he will look after his meat shop there and attend to other business matters.

Loy Wissler Here—Loy Wissler is in La Grande today visiting with friends and relatives. He makes his home here part of the time and at Pendleton the rest of the time.

Charles Conkey Back—Charles Conkey has been in Portland on important business. He arrived home this morning from that place and says that Minam and La Grande appeal to him a great deal more than Portland.

Moves to La Grande—Fireman Harry Weatman, who has been taken off his run at Pleasant Valley, has moved with his wife to La Grande.

Wilfred Smith Here—Wilfred Smith is a guest at the home of his brother, Earl B. Smith. Smith is well known here and comes from Burnt River.

Ticket Clerk Comes Here—Stanley Jenkins, ticket clerk at the O. W. R. & N. depot at Baker has accepted a position in the depot at La Grande until such a time when more people desire to leave Baker and make more work for him there.

R. E. Fowler Here—R. E. Fowler will arrive this evening from Pendleton and will attend the initiation of the Elks' lodge here this evening. He will spend the week end here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Fowler.

Miss Nash in Critical Condition—Miss Elsie Nash, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Grande Ronde hospital Tuesday afternoon, is as yet in a very critical condition. Lending a serious aspect to her condition is the fact that the appendix burst, giving Miss Nash but a fighting chance.

Attorney Returns—L. Denham left this morning for his home in Elgin after spending a week here as a witness and also an attorney for the plaintiffs in the contest of the Melroy will. He will return about Saturday, when the case will be argued.

Bond Exchange Comes Soon—In preparation for the exchange of fourth liberty loan coupon bonds for permanent bonds, the government has just sent out notices to all banks notifying them that they may accept bonds for conversion. The new bonds will be sent to the banks about Feb. 1 and the old bonds will then be sent to the federal reserve bank.

The Chandlers Return—Mr. and Mrs. Jap Chandler left this morning for their home in Elgin, after spending several days here as witnesses in the contesting of the Melroy will. They were accompanied by Mrs. Laura Morton, who has been here to attend the funeral of the late J. Warren Chandler. Mrs. Morton is from Portland.

Safety Razor Sharpener Here—E. D. Derringer is at the Fire Station and has something novel—something that La Grande has never had in its midst before. He has installed a safety razor blade sharpener and is now taking orders from the safety razor users in La Grande. Heretofore men have been forced to send their razor blades to Portland or Elgin and now La Grande is fortunate in having a place where they can have their blades sharpened at home.

On Chautauqua Work—Mrs. W. F. Phy, whose husband, Dr. W. T. Phy, owns the Hot Lake sanitarium, is at the Multnomah on her way to San Francisco. Mrs. Phy has signed a contract with the Elison-White company for a 20 weeks engagement. Her work will start in April at Los Angeles and the tour is to cover the Pacific coast. She will be billed as Winifred Windus. Her work ranges from readings from such tragedies as "The World and His Wife" to light comedy. Mrs. Phy has spent a good part of the past two years in Boston studying elocution. She is a western girl, having been born in Pullman, where she graduated from Washington State College. While there she took English and dramatic work and later sought expression.—Oregon Journal.

Mrs. Last Visits Hot Lake—Mrs. F. M. Last and daughter, Mrs. LeRoy Parker, left this morning for Hot Lake, where they will spend the day.

Browning to Union—J. L. Browning, the poetical traveling man, left this morning for Union on business for the Oregon Grocery Co.

Attorney Hesse Here—Attorney Henry Hesse is in La Grande today conferring with R. J. Green here on the E. Forstrum Mercantile business case. Mr. Hesse is from North Powder.

Father Passes Away—Friends of Everett May, formerly of this city will be grieved to learn of the death of his father, George Waleyt May at Spray, Oregon, where he was postmaster. Five children survive.

Here for Ceremony—Francis V. Galloway, prominent attorney of The Dalles, and also district deputy grand exalted ruler for Elk's lodges of Oregon north, is in the city today, on his annual inspection tour. He will also be in attendance at the ceremonies this evening when a large class will be taken into the Elk's lodge.

Piano Sales Good—J. A. Gray, who is here from Pendleton to sell pianos, has certain been busy along that line. He has been up in Wallawa county and all in the Grande Ronde valley. All to he has paced some fifteen orders in the past week. He is also handling good line of electric pianos and the are pending sale. They are used, great deal in theatres and pub gathering places.

Tie Up Manager—All are not horses that are fit to posts, according to the Elks today. They created quite a sensation this afternoon when they let out all the log chains in the city and attached them to the well known City Manager Garrett, as then tied him to a post. Garrett took it like a gentleman and it only time he was ashamed to show his face was when the Observer reporter passed by him. Mr. Garrett seemingly is not strong for publicity.

LA GRANDE AND UNION TO PLAY
GAME WILL BE CALLED AT 8:30 TOMORROW EVENING.
Local High School Gymnasium Will be Scene of a Good Game, is Expectation.

The boys basketball team of the local high school will clash with the Union quintet here tomorrow evening at the High School gymnasium. The game is called for 8:30 o'clock.

Just how strong the Union team is, cannot be ascertained in local circles, as the Baker team has defeated the Union team, but La Grande has not as yet played Baker, so a comparison in that direction cannot be made.

With the defeat of last Saturday evening at Joseph still ranking in their hearts, the local quintet have determined to make the Union team fight for the game tomorrow evening. Much hope is expressed, however in local circles, owing to the fact that the members of the team will be in better condition for the game tomorrow evening than they were last Saturday evening.
