Eat More and Digest All

You know that there is nothing quite so aggravating and distressing as DYSPEPSIA—you can't eat half the time and then not what you are craving. If you are so situated—afraid to eat—food don't agree with you—stomach trouble when you do, it's a sure sign the digestive fluids are sluggish—the food is not properly assimilated. There is nothing quite so sure as Nyal's Dyspepsia Tablets—they will work wonders with your system, increase your vitality, and make your daily tasks a pleasure.

The evening party of the Glee Club was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Ralston last night. Six tables were placed for the games of Five Hundred. Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp winning the honors of the evening. The home was profusely decorated with huge bowls of red carnations while the score cards carried out the same vivid color scheme. The club parties, given in the evening are said to be a great source of pleasure to the members and their friends. The party last night was a most charming affair.

The Glee Club met with Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp, Saturday afternoon. Two tables were placed for an afternoon of bridge. Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp winning high honors. The home was prettily decorated with flowers of the pastel shades. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ray Murphy, Tuesday, February 15.

Mrs. William Ash is entertaining the members of the Lucky Thirteen Club at her home Thursday afternoon.

The Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club will meet at the home of Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe tomorrow afternoon. This will be the last meeting of this club until after Lent.

The Mardi Club will meet next Tuesday evening with Mrs. Claude Seranton. Through a mistake the Observer printed that statement last week at the time when Mrs. Seranton was quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Neill, accompanied by their small sons, Gene Rolf and William Jr., left Salem Monday to establish their residence in Portland, where Mr. Neill has business interests. During their two years in Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Neill have been active participants in the social life of the young married set and they have made a wide circle of friends. The last three weeks have been filled with farewell honors for this popular couple.

This P. E. O. Sisterhood will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. Lee Warnick. Mrs. J. T. Richardson is leader for the afternoon and will have as her topic, "Interests in Alaskan Industries."

The Bible in Art Class which meets each Sunday morning under the direction of Mrs. E. P. Mossman, has decided to continue the Sunday afternoon vesper service for the juniors, and beginning this coming Sunday afternoon, will hold these weekly gatherings until East of time.

Before the Christmas season, these verses were held and proved very popular with the young folks, about sixty juniors attending each Sunday. A special program will be arranged for the verses, and a most delightful and interesting time is anticipated by those who were members of the vesper class before Christmas, as well as the new members who are cordially invited to enter now.

Mrs. Maurice Hickok, of Portland, was the guest for Sunday of Mrs. Edna Sturdevant, of this city. She has been visiting in La Grande with her sister and was enroute to her home in Portland. She departed Monday morning for the Rose City.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

The Country Club dining-room opened Sunday with about forty guests present for the opening dinner. The members of the board of directors and their wives were the guests of the dinner. The tables were prettily decorated with carnations. Dinner was served in three courses. This occasion marked the opening of the Club house dining-room that is so soon to be the very heart of social life in La Grande and vicinity. Reservations may be secured by calling the club rooms at any time. As the dining room is small, it will be necessary to engage tables ahead of time.

Saturday night the members of the La Grande girls' basketball team were hostesses to the members of the Pendleton girls' team at the Palace Confectionery. Tables were reserved for about forty girls and the guest list included many of the prominent girls of the La Grande high school, as well as the out-of-town team and visitors. This will probably be made a regular affair, as it has been decided that this was one of the most pleasant occasions of the year, when the high school girls have met in a social way.

The Rex Hall will be the scene of an old time dance this evening. The date was changed because Mr. Powers, who is in charge of the old time dance, would be unable to be in attendance tomorrow evening. He arrived this morning to have charge of the evening of fun and frolic.

Saturday, February 5, is set aside by the ladies of the Baptist church as the date that they will give a church supper. They are preparing to accommodate many people and the Baptist church suppers are known in La Grande over for their success.

The Parent-Teacher's association of the Central School will hold their regular meeting Friday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Suedgrass returned this morning from San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle, Spokane and Portland. They have been spending a month in the warmer climate and report a most delightful time in the South.

The Evening Study Group, of the Bible in Art Class, has been organized, and will meet tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Mossman. This class, which will take up the study in appreciation of art was organized recently for the purpose of acquainting the members with phases of art, which cannot be covered in the Sunday morning Bible in Art Class, owing to the shortness of the hour.

The members of the evening class have voted to study the Harbison School comparisons. A set of reference books are now on the shelves of the library, which will aid the members of the class in their study.

Mrs. C. Webster Binger was a delightful business yesterday afternoon for the members of the Eastern Star Social Club and a few invited guests. Five tables were arranged for five hundred. Mrs. L. M. Hoyt winning high honors. Following the card game, a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

NEW DRUGGIST AT SILVERTHORNS

The Silverthorn Drug Company this morning announced that hereafter, they will have associated with them in business, a prominent young man and druggist of La Grande, E. M. McManus.

Mr. McManus has been in the general drug business in Oregon for the past 10 years. In that time he has been with some of the more prominent city stores, such as the Owl Drug Store of Portland, and others of similar prominence, thus giving him a wide line of experience and a great opportunity to observe all the latest methods and ideas of the drug business of today.

But few druggists have had as wide a line of opportunities, said Mr. O. E. Silverthorn this morning, "and Mr. McManus will be one of us in every line and thought, will be able to meet every condition that may arise, and at all times will have full authority with ourselves in the conduct and management of our business."

SIX YEAR OLD LAD TRAVELS BY EXPRES

THE DALLES, Feb. 2.—Six-year-old Leonard Alcock journeyed all the way from Ranger, Texas, to The Dalles as an injured express package. The little lad, surfeited from all the candy and other good things given him by passengers on the trains, reached The Dalles Monday morning, and a few hours later he was placed aboard a train for Bend, in the point of "confinement." In the bottom of his coat was a big express tag bearing the usual marks of express shipment. Edward Berly, an uncle at Bend, is to take care of the boy.

FARNUM MAKES BIG HIT IN THE NEW WESTERN DRAMA, "DRAG HARLAN"

William Farnum, the noted William Fox star, in a rattling fine picture of the West, is the attraction today and tomorrow at the Sherry Theatre, where "Drag Harlan" begins an engagement. "Everybody, down deep in his heart, adores a Western picture, and "Bill" Farnum in a Western is just about the highest development of good entertainment.

Farnum's role of "Drag" Harlan is appealing from beginning to end. He is a mysterious stranger, a soldier of fortune, supposed outlaw, most dreaded man in the West; and, although he does not wear his heart upon his sleeve, he does wear his nimble six-guns in plain sight and ready for instant use. But Jackie Saunders, as Barbara Morgan, rancher's daughter, is the little lady who finds that "Drag" has a heart as big as the proverbial barn.

A comedy featuring the famous "Vanity Fair Girls" is on the same program.

WONDERFUL LEAP ON HORSEBACK FEATURE OF NEW BILL HART FILM

To leap from a high cliff, towering above the river, and land in the water while sticking to the saddle of his Pinto Pony is one of the thrilling feats accomplished by William S. Hart in "Sand" his newest production for Paramount Aircraft, which will be seen at the Sherry Theatre last time today.

In the effort to reach the scene of a train hold-up, the star in the role of Dan Kurrie, takes a short cut and in order to be on time, makes the death defying leap. He is a target for the bullets from the bandits' guns as he starts to swim his horse across the river, and to save the animal, he sends it back and strikes out alone. As a bullet passes his head he dives and the bandits think he is lost. Then he swims under water and comes out in time to turn the table and save the treasure train—doubly so because it is the girl he loves better than his own life. Also showing a comedy.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frost-bitten feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). 25c and 50c jars, hospital size $3.00

WAS AFRAID TO GO UP THE STAIRWAY ALONE

Portland Woman Had Awful Dizzy Spells And Was in Constant Fear of Falling—Tanlac Overcomes All Her Troubles.

I enjoy all my meals now and never go down to the table without feeling thankful for what Tanlac has done for me," said Mrs. Ida Marvin of 1731 Portsmouth Ave., Portland, Ore.

"For two years I suffered from a badly disordered stomach and nervousness and was in a dreadfully run-down condition. I had no strength nor energy and could hardly drag around at all. My appetite was so poor I just had to force myself to eat. Even this caused sour stomach and indigestion which distressed me terribly, and I had such awful headaches and dizzy spells I was afraid of falling. I was so nervous and restless I could scarcely sleep, and felt miserable all the time. "My son, who had gotten rid of a bad case of stomach and liver trouble by the use of Tanlac, brought me a bottle one day and I began to pick up and feel better right away. Well, six bottles have made a new woman of me. My appetite is the very best and I eat and enjoy just anything I want without its bothering me any. My sleep is sound and restful and I'm enjoying splendid health. I just thing a world of Tanlac and gladly give it my highest endorsement." Tanlac is sold in La Grande by Sil
