MAKE TRIP TO
MT. EMILY
GRANGE HALL, Feb. 1 (Special) Mrs. Arthur L. Hull returned home last Monday from a week's visit with relatives in Winona, Minn.
Fred Beck, Warren Garrett and Elliott Sengler made a trip Sunday to Mt. Emily, just to see how that country looked in the winter. They went on horseback as far as they could and then on foot to the Blumenthal cabin where they borrowed this and tramped on to the Lookout. The vast expanse of timber all covered with ice and snow, the deep canyons all filled with snow-laden underbrush, made a scene that will be long remembered by the boys. The snow is six feet deep on the average at the Blumenstein place and the farther up the deeper.
It is very hard for Mrs. I. D.
Smith to get about on account of having a very sore foot. It is some better but is still very painful.
Because of storm and a great deal of sickness, the month of Jan-

THEATRES
MARJORIE RAMBEAU IS SEEN ON SCREEN IN A
SENSATIONAL ROLE.
Marjorie Rambeau in "The Fortune Teller," the Robertson-Cole Super-Special which opens today at the Sherry Theatre for two days, is seen at the very pinnacle of her fame as the greatest emotional actress of the American stage. Her screen appearance immortalizes the exquisite dramatic art which gained her the unanimous praise of foremost critics.
The first nighters who had the good fortune to witness the opening of the play in New York were electrified by the sweeping force of Miss Rambeau's characterization of the difficult stellar role. Her fine, dignified interpretation of the beautiful and cultured Renee Browning, the superstitious wife of a scientist, and her graphic depiction of the same woman as a fallen and degraded creature were the extremes of her emotional sweep.
Also showing a comedy.

TODAY LAST DAY FOR WILLIAM FARNUM PICTURE
The performance tonight of "Drag Harlan" at the Arcade Theatre marks the close of the latest of the William Farnum star series made in the schedule of William Fox.
The action has the delightful tang of the old days of the Western Plains when gun-fighting was both an indoor and an outdoor sport, when good men and bad ones "went out" with their boots on; when a quick trigger finger was a man's best life insurance; when a pretty girl was a treasure that all men coveted, and gold was something to be battled for. All people who love to read stories of the West, who are interested in the tricks of gun-fighting, resorted to by America's old-time outlaws and cowpunchers, find "Drag Harlan" very much to their liking.
Starting Friday the big five-reel comedy featuring Ben Turpin will be shown.

Trouble Ends
Very Quickly
When we received the following letter from Mrs. G. J. Hurd of Witter Springs, California, we were rather skeptical as to some of the statements it contained, so we had one of our men make a personal call on Mrs. Hurd and verify every statement. The letter follows:
"For twenty-five years I suffered with rheumatism. I was never out of pain and my limbs were so swollen I seemed deformed. Could only stand on my feet for a few minutes at a time and was almost a helpless cripple. I had given up all hope and life held no pleasure for me. During all this time I tried remedies, spent months at the hot springs and was treated by physicians, but temporary relief was all I received. I had little faith in Anti-Uric at first, your claims were so mild and I seemed to get worse after using the first outfit. But I continued and the results were wonderful. The swelling in my limbs disappeared, the pains ceased and I could walk without the aid of a cane. Even storms, wet weather and exposure do not affect me."
"It has been over two years since I have used Anti-Uric and I have had no trouble whatever. My weight has increased from 84 to 170 pounds. I eat anything I please and am as active as a girl in her teens. I owe all my health and happiness to Anti-Uric and do trust those suffering with rheumatism will not neglect this wonderful remedy for I know it cures." This letter should prove to all suffering with rheumatism that Anti-Uric is the master of that dread disease in all its forms. No matter how long you have suffered try Anti-Uric and it will do for you. Your money will be refunded. Anti-Uric is for sale by Silverthorn's Family Drug Store.
