THE KINGDOM OF GOD

By H. W. Nibley

God is the King and in Him exists all legal authority. He alone has the right of originating a system of government on the earth. He claims this right by virtue of having made man and the earth he inhabits. Men therefore are indebted to God for his own information and for the formation of the planet on which he dwells. God also claims the right of establishing His government among men by virtue of His superior wisdom and power. If God had sufficient wisdom and power to construct such a beautiful world as this with all the infinite varieties of vegetables and animals appended to it, He could form such an intricate and complicated piece of machinery as the human tabernacle as a dwelling place for the human spirit. Then we must admit that His wisdom and power are immeasurably greater than that of man, and hence He is qualified to reign as King.

An order of government established by such an all-wise, powerful Being must be good and perfect and must be calculated to promote the permanent peace, happiness and wellbeing of all subjects. The Great King is a very amiable being, full of benevolence and goodness and never turns any person away empty who comes requesting a favor which He sees could be for his benefit. The King occasionally visited His subjects in ancient times and once tarried with them for several years; but He received such abuse from many of the people that He left them and went to some other part of

His dominions. Where the King is gone the people cannot tell; they have not heard from Him for upwards of seventeen hundred years. He has been absent so long that some of the people have doubted even His existence. They have agreed that if He did exist, some one would very likely have heard something from Him in the course of so many centuries.

Many millions, however, have some idea that He exists and are constantly sending all kinds of petitions to Him; but for some reason He sends no word back; no messengers are dispatched to the petitioners to give them council upon any subject. It has been a very popular thing to send daily petitions to the King and to appropriate one day out of seven for the special purpose of sending in the petitions. The same petitions are frequently sent a number of times. It is very unpopular, however, for any one to expect the King to make any reply to any petitions. Neither has He condescended to send any tidings by a messenger or otherwise. He has not informed them whether He was pleased or displeased with their splendid edifices. His profound silence for so many centuries has caused many to think that for some reason He was very angry with the people. Yet they could not see why He should be angry when the people were doing so much honor to Him; when they were expending millions to hire learned men to preach and write in such an elegant manner about Him.

renew their attendance. Preaching service at 11 a. m. Sermon subject, "The Christian's Source of Power." The Epworth League at 6:30 p. m. Topic, "Modern Progress, Modern Unrighteousness." Mrs. W. A. Zurbriek, leader. Preaching service at 7:30. At this time Rev. S. Raynor Smith, D. D., of India, will address the people of Island City. Dr. Smith is a member of the Arca Team, which will hold the convention at Haines, next Tuesday and Wednesday. He comes to us with a great message, and none can afford to miss hearing him. Island City is greatly favored by having Dr. Smith to address her people, so

The Best Machinery Investment You Can Make

Ask any user of the John Deere Spreader, and he will tell you it is the best machinery investment he ever made—not only because it saves hard work and valuable time, but because it makes every forkful of manure count for a bigger crop yield.

Manure goes farther and does more good when you use a John Deere Spreader. You can spread manure evenly, heavy or light—no under-fertilized or over-fertilized spots.

Come in and see this spreader. We want to show you why it will do better work, why it will last longer than others, why it will cost less for repairs, and why it is easier to load and operate.

Mounting the beater on the axle of the John Deere gives you a combination of advantages you can't get in any other spreader.

Come in and know the reasons why there are so many satisfied users of John Deere Spreaders.

Will You Fill Out a Chart for Mr. Edison?

MR. BURNS pronounced the test most interesting. He enjoyed it and was glad to help Mr. Edison.

You'll enjoy filling out a Mood Change Chart also—and we know you will eagerly help the great inventor in his latest research into the effects of music on the minds and moods of mankind.

Read Mr. Burns' Chart. Then come to our store. Make the test. Learn how music affects your moods. Your Chart will be sent to Mr. Edison.

If you own a New Edison, ask us for a supply of Charts and invite your friends for a Mood Change Chart party. They will find it more entertaining than the Ouija board. If you do not own a New Edison, we will lend you an instrument with a supply of RE-CREATIONS, for giving a Mood Change Party.
