Beating the Bachelor.
In Sicily the fir tree is unknown as a Christmas adjunct, but the very ludicrous custom of "beating the bachelor" is observed by the women. All of the unmarried men in the village are driven into the church after mass by the outnumbering women and run about the sacred edifice and beaten until they declare (often falsely) that they will wed ere another Christmas come around.

Constant Parade.
Elizabeth lived in a small place. The only times she'd ever seen a large crowd was on the occasion of circus or local parades. The first two days in a large city were spent in awe. The next day, turning to her mother, she said: "Oh, mother, they have a parade here all the time, don't they?"

Always Be Sure of the Number
—When you trust to an old card or letter head you are apt to call a number that has been changed.
—And when you do call a "wrong number" you cause inconvenience and delay for yourself and for the party whom you call in error.
