A LA GRANDE INTERVIEW.

Mrs. Johnson Tells Her Experience.

The following brief account of an interview with a La Grande woman four years ago, and its sequel, will be read with keen interest by every citizen.

Mrs. C. I. Johnson, 802 Spring St., La Grande, says: "I know Doan's Kidney Pills are a good reliable kidney medicine and am glad to recommend them whenever I hear anyone complain of kidney trouble. I have been taking Doan's off and on for a number of years, whenever my kidneys cause me any trouble and they have never failed to do me good. I am subject to kidney disorder at times causing a dull aching pain across the small of my back. My head aches and I get so dizzy I can hardly walk across the floor. I feel as if I were falling forward. During this trouble my kidneys act very irregularly and I feel miserable all over, but after I have taken a box or two of Doan's Kidney Pills, I am free of kidney trouble. My back stops aching and my kidneys act regularly. In every way,

I feel as well as ever." (Statement given May 26, 1916.)

On May 6, 1920, Mrs. Johnson said: "I have never found anything to do me as much good as Doan's Kidney Pills. I depend on them if my kidneys trouble me, for they are sure to give relief."

The Surest Thing for SKIN DISEASES

It's no disgrace to contract eczema and it may not be necessary to continue to suffer.

Skin disease is one of the most difficult problems of medical science. Whole libraries have been written on the treatment, but if you are suffering you do not need the symptoms described—you know all about that.

Most cases of skin diseases are curable—some are not. Where anything can cure or relieve, you can depend upon:

NYAL'S ECZEMA LOTION

It tops the intolerable itching and permits sleep.

Good also for better, barber's itch, ringworm, dry or scaly skin, and ivy poisoning.

Prices 50c and $1.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds were host and hostess for two very pretty parties, one on Friday evening and another on Monday evening. On Friday evening, the spacious rooms of the Reynolds residence witnessed eight tables arranged for five hundred, Miss Janet Jones winning high honors at the close of the evening. On Monday evening, guests for seven tables were invited, and Mrs. J. L. Ingle carried away high honors.

Beautiful red carnations added a pretty touch to the rooms of the Reynolds home. Following the card games each evening, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

About sixty-five young people attended a Valentine Party given at the First M. E. Church parlors last Monday night, under the auspices of the Young Women's Educational Auxiliary.

The committee in charge were, the Misses Alveta Peterson, chairman; Janet Jones, Mabel Oesterling, Alice Eckstrom, Nell Mahaffey, Bertha Wallinger and Mrs. A. W. Nelson, and they are to be congratulated on making the evening most enjoyable.

The church parlor was beautifully decorated with valentines, streamers, and showers of red hearts.

The first part of the evening was devoted to cleverly arranged amusements, after which all enjoyed a very good program. Mrs. Fuller sang two very beautiful solos; Miss Mahaffey gave a reading, "Oh, I dunno"; Helen Williams played a piano solo.

"The Shadowgraphs" by the committee caused much laughter and merriment. The last number was "The Coon-Town Sextet," also by the committee.

Later in the evening little June Wells came tripping in charmingly dressed as a "Cupid," bearing her bow and arrows with which each took a chance shooting the red hearts under which was hidden a verse telling his fortune.

The refreshments were in keeping with the evening—brick ice cream with a red heart in the center and dainty, heart-shaped sugar wafers and coffee.

The next meeting of the Young Women's Auxiliary will be held February twenty-first. Each member is requested to study the chapter and be prepared to ask questions on the lesson, as a pleasant surprise will be in store for all.

One of the big parties of the four part of the week was the Five Hundred party at Eagles Hall on Monday evening, for which the Knights of Columbus and the ladies of the Altar Society were hosts and hostesses. Fourteen tables were arranged for cards, and early in the evening, all were surrounded by merry players. Mrs. J. F. O'Connell and Ed Stravens were the high prize winners, while J. C. Holm was presented with consolation.

A delicious two-course luncheon was served at the close of the card games, and the party was pronounced by all present as one of the most delightful given for some time by either of these organizations.

Friday afternoon, Mrs. Roy Forrester and Mrs. Clyde Peterson entertained a few friends at the home of Mrs. Peterson on Third street. The hours were pleasantly spent in needlework and conversation, and, to bring the afternoon to a delightful close, refreshments were served by the joint hostesses at an appropriate hour.

The Parkdale Club is being entertained this afternoon by Mrs. R. A. Whitson and Mrs. William Anson at the Whitson home in Fruitdale.

Mrs. Roy Farley (Helen Curry), who is being welcomed in Pendleton, was honored in a pleasing way Friday afternoon when Mrs. James Johns, piano, entertained with an informal party at her home on Garden street, the guests being former students of the University of Oregon and a number of their college friends of Mrs. Farley. The afternoon was spent in needlework and chat, followed by a tea hour, with Mrs. Farley and Mrs. John Farley presiding at a table decorated by a charming cluster of gold and red carnations and soft gray pussy willows. Miss Claire Daley assisted Mrs. Farley in serving.

U. was the honoree the guest list included, Mrs. Roscoe Keater, Mrs. Lyman Rice, Mrs. D. O. Hobart, Mrs. H. W. Jackson, Mrs. Hattie Wanner, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. John Dolph, Miss Laura Jerard, Miss Dorothy Roberts, Miss Claire Daley, Miss Elsie Fitzmaurice, and Miss Beth Smith. Pendleton, East Oregonian.

The Presbyterian Men's Club entertained the Methodist Men's Club at an informal get-together at the home of Dr. R. F. Murphy, Wednesday evening. The Methodist club was just recently organized and the affair was in the nature of a welcoming of the new organization by its older brother organization.

C. M. Humphries, president of the Presbyterian club, presided at the meeting. No formal addresses were made but a number of the members responded to requests for short talks. Among those who spoke, besides President Humphries, were Rev. E. J. Hinton, pastor of the Methodist church; Rev. James A. Smith, pastor of the Presbyterian church; Robert Eakin and Norman Fries.

A paper, written by J. F. Heasty, on "The Beauty of the Church" to the Rev. E. J. Hinton, was read by E. A. McElhannon. Several numbers were rendered by the quartet of the Methodist Men's Club.

The quartet is composed of Sherwood Williams, C. E. Cooper, E. D. Towle, and Paul Kautz.

Fifty members of the two organizations were present. Refreshments were served during the evening.

At the next meeting, to be held in the Methodist church parlors, the members of the Presbyterian club will be invited as the guests.

Mrs. Albert Hunter, of La Grande, is visiting Mrs. Anna Culbertson, Salem Capitol Journal.

IMBLER, Feb. 9.—The Misses Lucy McBride, Georgia Marshall, Vena McKinnis, and Mrs. Albert Squire gave a miscellaneous shower Thursday evening at the home of Miss Lucy McBride, honoring Miss Vada Squire, who is soon to become the bride of Mr. Miles Fallow.

The McBride home was prettily decorated for the occasion, and, after church, Miss Squire was persuaded to go to the McBride home, where had assembled many of her girl friends. The evening was spent in a very pleasant way. A mock wedding furnished much fun, Miss Anna Hudson acting as bridegroom and Miss Georgia Marshall as bride, the McDonald sisters as flower girl and ring bearer. The ceremony, which was, of course, the prettiest thing, was read from the Sears and Roebuck catalogue by Mrs. Albert Squire.

During the evening, musical numbers were enjoyed, and recipes for cooking and how to make a good husband, were presented to the bride in book form, a recipe having been written by each guest present.

Then the bride-to-be opened her many dainty and useful gifts, and, at a late hour, a delicious luncheon was served.

Those present were, Mrs. Albert Squire, Anna Litteral, Ruth Litteral, Hazel Gouey, Mabel Linnis, Edna Snider, Alice Kaufman, Ona Hudson, Georgia Marshall, Vada Squire, Vena McKinnis, Mary and Margaret McDonald, Hazel Martin, Beattie Kassing, Opal Bingsman, Anna Crouser, Eva and Velma Biels, Leo Deering, Lantia Gaskill, Velma Conklin and Lucy McBride.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stoddard left last evening for Portland, to stay until about Saturday or Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Stoddard (Blanche Black), were married on January 21, in Salt Lake City, and, after spending a two weeks' honeymoon in that city, returned to La Grande, spending the past week here. Many affairs were given for the bride couple before their departure from La Grande, and since their return they have been showered with congratulations. They will make their home in Perry after March 1.

Members of the Elk's lodge and their friends enjoyed the informal dancing party at the Elk's hall on Monday evening. Lindsay's orchestra furnished the music for the evening, and the social committee had left nothing undone for a good time. At 11 o'clock, the special committee in charge announced that refreshments were ready, and all repaired to the banquet room, where a delicious luncheon was enjoyed. The committee in charge was composed of Arthur Van Fleet, chairman, Martin Stein, Floyd Charbonneau, Victor Eckley, H. M. Hibernstein, Charles Harra and Ben Rasmussen.

Women of Mooseheart Legion held a social meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. S. Shultz, 1901 East N Avenue. The time was spent in quilting the quilt that was raffled off at "Slippery Gulch" for the benefit of the Moose Lodge. At the close of the afternoon, a luncheon was served by the hostess, the color scheme of pink being carried out in the dining room. Red paper hearts were suspended from the ceilings and windows. Mrs. J. Kline won first prize during the afternoon, and Mrs. C. Larsh received consolation.

Those present were, Mesdames J. Harlan, Fred Smith, C. Larsh, W. Crandall, D. Brannon, J. Kline, Marjorie Collins, C. W. Lofland, Georgia Dolbow, Mary E. Mayville, and L. Northcott.

The M. E. A. dance tomorrow evening will be in the nature of a Valentine party, the committee in charge have announced. Dancing is to start earlier than usual, the hour having been set for 8:30 o'clock.

Alpha Club met on Saturday afternoon, with Mrs. W. H. Talbot as hostess. Pretty red carnations were arranged throughout the rooms of the Talbot home. During the afternoon of bridge, Mrs. C. E. Moore won high honors, after which refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. F. L. Ralston will be hostess this week for the members of the Club.

A "Linen" dinner is being planned by the ladies of the Methodist Missionary Society for Friday evening, at 6:30 o'clock. The dinner, to which the public is cordially invited, is being given in order that they might raise a special sum of money. Plates will be 50 cents apiece. They are making arrangements to serve a good dinner in the church basement, and following the dinner hour, a short program will be given.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Seranton entertained the members of the Maple Club last evening, with a delightful "Valentine" party. The Seranton home was decorated with bright, red carnations, in harmony with the Valentine idea, and much fun and a great deal of laughter was caused by the Valentines presented each guest, as special favors.

Cards furnished entertainment, Jack

McNamee being awarded high honors. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the games, by the hostess.

A very enjoyable birthday party was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Gerald Ebbell in honor of Isabel Becher's fifteenth birthday. The evening was spent in playing games, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Those invited were Mrs. R. Walls, Eva Provost, Ruth Larsen, Harriet Casey, Madeline Barbeau, Walter Dyer, Edward Fitzgerald, Willard Clark, Roy Charbonneau, Leo McCorkle, and Walter Peabber.
