WHEN A FELLOW'S STRONG AND WELL

and the world seems his to conquer, it's pretty hard to work up any real concern over the future. But assuredly it deserves some serious thought—for no one can afford to forget that youth is the accepted time of preparation for old age. The man who consistently builds up a savings fund forestalls dependence in later years. This institution welcomes the young people's accounts.

The Memorial Tree Fund committee of the Neighborhood Club has selected the week after Easter as the time for a big "Spring Festival" to be given at Eagles Hall, under their direction, with Mrs. G. L. Larson as general chairman. The dates, March 31, April 1 and 2, which will be Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the week after Easter, have been chosen. Numerous women's organizations of La Grande and community are going to cooperate with the tree fund committee and join them in helping make this festival a final grand clean-up in order that sufficient funds may be raised to go ahead and finish the undertaking of planting and keeping the avenue of trees leading to the Park, in memory of the Union county boys who served in the late World War.

The general plan for the festival is to have a regular street of "little shops," each organization represented to have charge of their "shop."

Robert Pattison, window decorator for the J. C. Penny Company, is to have complete supervision of the decorations. The "Handkerchief Shop" will be in charge of the ladies of the Altar Society of the Catholic Church, with Mrs. A. L. McAllister and Mrs. Chester Newlin in charge. The "Basket Shop" will be in charge of the Episcopal Guild ladies, with Mrs. Lee Warnick and Mrs. Claude Seranton supervising, and the "Towel Shop" in charge of the Woman's Relief Corps. The "Cooked Food, Fruit and Vegetable Shop" will be taken care of by the Parkdale Club, with Mrs. J. R. Stoddard, Mrs. Kate Hanley and Mrs. Struck in charge. An "Apron Shop" will be supervised by Mrs. Lou Given and the ever-popular "Candy Shop" will be taken care of by Mrs. Earl Stoddard, Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp, and Mrs. David Stoddard.

The ladies of the L. D. S. Church will manage a "Rug and Pillow Shop," with Mrs. George Stoddard as chairman, and a "Miscellaneous Shop" will be conducted by the ladies of the Thursday Bridge Club, in charge of Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe, Mrs. Fred Kiddle and Mrs. William Bollons.

Another big feature of the festival will be dancing, which is the ever popular diversion for an affair of this kind. Some of the very best music will be provided each evening and dancing will be continuous.

Other entertaining features will be announced later, and, in the meantime, everyone in the city or county is asked to help in any way to make this one of the largest festivals ever held for a most worthy cause. The committee in charge wants each and every one to feel that they have an interest in this undertaking. Any donations will be most gratefully received by the committee in charge, or by Mrs. G. L. Larson, general chairman.

Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Murray were delightful host and hostess last evening for a pretty five-course dinner party at their attractive home on O avenue and First street. A beautiful cyclamen plant formed the lovely centerpiece, while unusual place cards, made of pennants and feathers, to represent birds, added a touch of humor to the whole. Each place card contained a cleverly written verse, which when read, furnished much amusement.

Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zurbrich, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reuter, and Dr. and Mrs. F. L. Ralston.

Chapter 1, of P. E. O., will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. K. Wright. Mrs. Vincent Palmer will be leader for the day, having as her topic, "Fox Farming."

Mrs. F. L. Ralston, was a charming hostess Saturday afternoon to the members of the Clio Club. Cards furnished the diversion for the afternoon, Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp winning high honors.

Beautiful red carnations were arranged in the Ralston rooms, producing a very pretty effect. Delicious refreshments were served after the games.

Due to illness among the members, the popular concert which the Methodist church choir will present in the immediate future, has been postponed from the 18th to March 4th. Diligent rehearsals under the direction of Mrs. Scott Wheatley divulge that the variety of numbers will be large and the quality of the music presented of high order. The concert will be well blended in all respects. The proceeds will apply to the organ fund.

Miss Louise Leighton entertained the King's Herald Society at the home of her parents on Cedar street, Saturday afternoon. Mary Amaden took charge of the lesson, which dwelt on the peoples and customs of Africa. The afternoon was spent in games suggestive of St. Valentine. At the close, delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Paul Krautz.

Washington's Birthday anniversary events in La Grande promise to be numerous but few are attracting the interest of lovers of Southern melodies and "spirituals" that is the coming attraction of the Garner company, under auspices of the Moose lodge. The company of seven recognized artists will sing at the Star Theatre that evening, presenting a program of all the Southern melodies, aris from operas, popular airs—in short, a complete program that will display their skill. Moose who are responsible for their coming are highly rated at the prospect interest taken in the coming attraction. As a musical attraction they promise to be above the average.

Mrs. Harry H. Gray will be hostess for the Alpha Club this coming Friday afternoon.

Mrs. J. E. Reynolds was hostess for the members of the Eastern Star Social Club yesterday afternoon, at her home, 1508 Second street. During the afternoon of cards, Mrs. J. C. McEwan carried off high honors. A dainty one-course luncheon was served by the hostess following the card games.

Bernard Theison entertained at a happy party on Thursday evening, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Theison, when he celebrated his thirtieth birthday. As the event fell during the National Boy Scout week, Thursday of which a special program was given at the Y. M. C. A., members of the Patrol first attended the meeting at the "Y," and afterwards, gathered at the Theison home.

A delicious two-course luncheon was served to the boys, the table being decorated in a gay fashion with hearts and Valentines. During the luncheon, the postman arrived with a large number of Valentines and letters for the guests present, and much fun was occasioned by the giving out of these missives. Games of various kinds furnished entertainment during the remainder of the evening.

Those who helped Bernard celebrate were Wesley and Sheldon Brownlow, Howard Beatty, Francis Robertson, Malcolm Byrkit and Dave McCarthy.

Miss Hulda Anderson is in Corvallis this week attending the state convention of Christian Endeavor. She is the only La Grande delegate in attendance.

Mission Band met Saturday afternoon with Miss Gwendolyn Buchanan as hostess. The regular program was carried out, and the girls enjoyed needlework, at the close of which dainty refreshments were served.

Westminster Guild met at the home of Miss Helen McDonald on Monday evening. Following the short business meeting, during which time a nominating committee composed of Mrs. Oscar Pouch, Miss Ora Eckles and Miss Helen McDonald, was appointed by the president, Mrs. R. F. Murphy, to report at the next meeting.

During the evening's program, Mrs. A. S. Duryou read a well written description of a trip to Shouduin by Miss Margaret Adams. This mission at Shouduin has been adopted by the Westminster Guild of America, and is entirely supported by this organization.

"How the Bible Entered Korea" was a topic well told by Mrs. C. M. Humphreys, while Mrs. E. P. Mossman explained in a most interesting manner the work done by the Bible Society, in the way of carrying religion to various countries and peoples, through the giving of free Bibles.

Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the program, and a social hour enjoyed.

Another good time is promised the members of the country club this week. The furniture is now completely installed and an informal dancing party will be given Friday evening. At the opening party everybody had a wonderfully good time and it is promised that this one will be lots of fun also. Lindsey's orchestra will help out pen into the party.

Social activities are gradually increasing at the club and nearly each evening sees a number of people there. Tuesday night a number drove out and had a photographic dancing party and everybody had such a good time that it was unanimously decided that each Tuesday night be an open house party of this kind. A buffet lunch will be served on these evenings.

Last Sunday a large number took dinner at the club and this feature is being very much appreciated. Sunday, all members are invited to be there. A good old-fashioned Chicken dinner will be served.

James E. Raehan and Loretta Berg, both of Elgin, were united in marriage this morning at 11 o'clock, at the Presbyterian church, Rev. James A. Smith officiating. The fathers of both the bride and the groom were present to witness the simple, but impressive ceremony.

The Girl's Friendly Society will meet this evening at Honan Hall at 7:30 o'clock. A good time is anticipated, and during the evening, plans will be discussed for the Washington's Birthday party which is to be given by this organization.

VINCENT, Feb. 16.—A pretty home wedding occurred Tuesday, February 15, when Miss Alma Eva Mead and Mr. Elmer Weis were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mead, of Vincent.

As the strains of the wedding march were heard, the bridal party assembled beneath a beautiful rainbow shaped arch of greenery. Rev. A. R. Stoen, of the First Baptist Church of La Grande, performed the ceremony.

The bride was charmedly crowned in white tulle, trimmed with chiffon, with a lovely bridal veil, also of chiffon. She carried a lovely bouquet of white and pink carnations, with pretty greenery. The bridesmaids wore white dresses with were prettily decorated with fir greenery. A large number of relatives and friends of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony, later wishing the bride and groom a prosperous and happy life.

Mr. and Mrs. Weis will make their home at Haines, where Mr. Weis is employed by the O. W. R. & N. company.

SEMMERVILLE, Feb. 16.—Miss Helena Fries was the charming hostess of an elaborate Valentine party given at her home in Semmerville last Saturday evening. Valentines, hearts and cupid streamers about the rooms, formed artistic decorations.

An enjoyable evening was spent in dancing, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Johnson furnishing the "peppy music."

At midnight, the guests were served with dainty refreshments and the Valentine Box was opened. Prizes were given to Miss Berdie Starns, who received the greatest number, and the consolation was awarded to Mike Monroe.

Those present were Berdie Starns, Ruth Roberts, Carol Glenn, Helen Bliss, Grace Roberts, Viola Goodwin, Edna Bell Myers, Inez Woodell, Ivy Lamman, Letti Robbs, Ona and Fern McKinnis, Emma McHattan, Leona and Clara Fries, and the Messers, Randall Beam, James Combs, Burr Cantrell, Alex McKenzie, Fred Behrens, Ray Hensley, Ed Behrens, Donald Oswald, Mike Monroe, Reginald Whitlark, Roy McHattan, Ira Lamman, Art Behrens, Earl Lamman, Charles Rhodes, Percy Lamman, Charles Brock, Ray German, Clarence Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Preis, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson and the hostess.

PERRY, Feb. 16.—A delightful and unique Valentine's dance was held in the Perry Community hall on January 14, given by the members of the 3 L's. The ladies did all of the asking, and at no time during the evening, were any of the gentlemen allowed to experience the "wallflower feeling." As a consequence, every one had a most enjoyable time.

During the evening, a supper consisting of sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee was served. Mrs. Irene Carr was assisted in the kitchen by Mrs. Mary Murray, and Mrs. Agnes Andrews served the ice. Mrs. Ida Stephenson was assisted in managing the floor by Mrs. Esther Hanson and Mrs. Naomi Robertson.

The pretty community hall had been very appropriately decorated for the occasion, hearts predominating, while pretty house plants were arranged here and there. The decorating was in charge of Mrs. Nell Robertson, Mrs. Hannah Robertson, Mrs. Zelpha Murray, Mrs. Carrie Bonham and Mrs. Eva Reber.

Tuesday will be "Guest Day" at the Neighborhood Club, when the program will hinge around George Washington, whose birthday will that day be celebrated throughout the nation. A "Washington Silver Tea" has been planned, which promises to be most delightful.

In order that the program may be presented with its fullest effect, it is quite necessary that a generous collection of antiques, heirlooms and colonial articles of interest be collected. Anyone who has any article of this description and is willing to loan it to the club with the assurance of safe return, is urged to communicate with Mrs. J. K. Wright, Mrs. H. S. Brownlow or Mrs. Vincent Palmer. The program that day will be unusually interesting if the plans formulated by Miss Blanche Clark, leader, and the committee, can be carried out. With co-operation of the members, this can be accomplished.

The woman's missionary of the Presbyterian church, the Westminster Guild and any others who are interested will hold a Missionary Study Institute during the next few days at the home of Mrs. E. P. Mossman. The study of the book "Bible in Missions" will be taken up and studied, six lessons being devoted to the chapters. The first meeting will be called tomorrow afternoon at Mrs. Mossman's at 2 o'clock, and at this time, the books will be given out and the lessons assigned. Anyone who is interested in mission study, is most cordially invited to attend this institute, where, instead of studying the same book for several months at the regular meeting, a shorter space, but just as much time, will be devoted to the mission study.

MRS. AKIN SUFFERED SINCE SHE WAS A GIRL

Portland Woman Is Entirely Relieved of Stomach Trouble and Rheumatism by Tanlac, She Says.

"I wish every sick man, woman and child in Portland knew what I know of Tanlac," said Mrs. S. O. Akin, of 460 Malden Ave., Portland, Ore. "I suffered from stomach trouble practically all my life. When a girl, I was always bothered with indigestion and sick headaches. The pains in the pit of my stomach were simply awful, and often I had to get up in the night and walk around on account of the pressure of gas around my heart. My appetite was poor and I had to be very careful about what I ate. I was so badly crippled up with rheumatism I could hardly walk and it was all I could do to turn my head."

"That was my condition when I began taking Tanlac and my improvement with the very first bottle was just wonderful. I continued to take it until it put an end to all my troubles. Ever since I have taken Tanlac

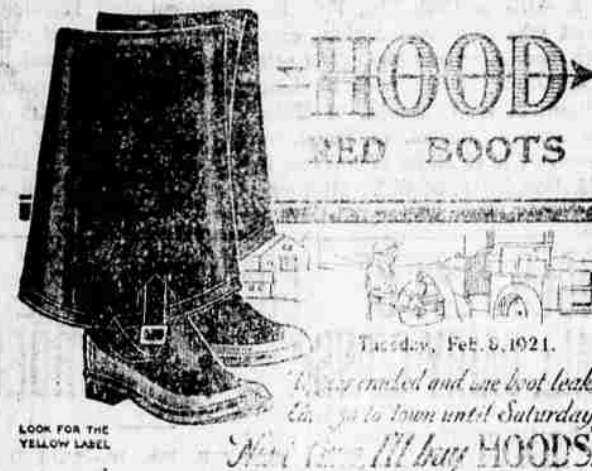

I have been a well and happy woman, and even with the care of my baby I do all my housework and never feel tired. I have gained considerably in weight and feel better than I ever remember feeling before."

Tanlac is sold in La Grande by Silverthorn's Drug Store; Putnam Drug Store; Clyde Kiddle, of Island City, and by the leading druggists in every town.—Adv.
