SCOTT IS BACK AMONG FRIENDS

HAS SERVED OVER FIVE YEARS IN FEDERAL PRISON.

Had Trouble With a Mexican Laborer Who Later Died and Scott Was Charged With Murder.

After spending five years and four months in federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas, Frank D. Scott has arrived in La Grande, spent his first night between the clean sheets of a bed in Charlie Playle's home and is the happiest man in Oregon.

Frank Scott used to live here. He worked in the Grande Ronde valley for a number of years and also worked for F. D. McCully in Wallawa county.

He is a Spanish-American war soldier and when the nation became rolled up over the Mexican troubles several years ago, he enlisted for service on the border. While serving there he mixed with a Mexican, Scott is a pretty good man physically and he walloped the Mex. a few times. Soon afterwards the southern son of the southern Republic took sick and died. A charge of murder was lodged against Scott. Like many other military matters he could not get his case before the proper authorities and he was sent to federal prison.

His friends thought it would be short work to get him out, but when a man is once in, it is no small task to extricate him. Many appeals were made, but to no avail. F. D. McCully and Charlie Playle have been working hard on the case for they knew the injustice of the prison sentence. Recently H. E. Coolidge interested the Spanish-American soldiers' organization, McCully put in his own again with the senators, Playle hit off his side of the case to Governor Henry Allen, of Kansas, and with the combined effort, Frank Scott was called into the warden's office at Leavenworth a few days ago and granted a pardon and full release.

So rejoiced was he that he went to Kansas City at once and started for Oregon. For over five years he had been in prison and did not know the conditions in the country. Imagine his surprise when he peered a berth to La Grande. It almost took his breath away. Then, when he went into the dining car to eat, he was again given a shock that went straight to pocket-book. He wondered what had happened to everyone that they were trying to rob him with high prices. He sees the game now as it is, and while he is no happy to be out and among his friends that he admits he will be willing to work the rest of his natural life for his board in order to breathe the free, pure air of Eastern Oregon.

BOY SCOUTS

(Conducted by National Council of the Boy Scouts of America)

NEW BOY SCOUT UNIFORMS

For the first time since the organization of the Boy Scouts of America and the adoption of the khaki uniform which has become so popular with the boys of the country the style of that official uniform has been changed. The new style was adopted more than a year ago and the changed patterns became standard January 1.

The uniform of the Boy Scouts of America is protected by Section 125 of the Army Reorganization Law. This prohibits anyone from wearing a uniform similar to that worn by the United States army, navy, or marine corps, but excepts officers or enlisted men of the National Guard, the Boy Scouts of America, the naval militia, or such other organizations as the secretary of war may designate.

The new coat has unusually large pockets, spacious enough, in fact, to hold about everything any lad ever wanted to get into his clothes, and that is saying a lot. It has a lapel collar and a Norfolk built-in belt, with pleated back. The new shirt has large pleated pockets and longer skirts than the old. The words "Boy Scouts of America" are now embroidered ered in a single line of red silk over the right pocket. This leaves the left breast free for badges. The council, or where there is no council, the troop, decides whether the cut of the shirt uniform is to be worn. Also whether stockings or canvas leggings are to be worn. Then the scouts conform to the local style. The official uniforms for scout officials have also been altered materially to conform to standards of convenience adopted after long study of the subject by experts in scouting.

SCHOOL ESSAYS ON SCOUTING.

More than 300,000 essays were written in one day in the elementary schools of New York city on the subject "What Boy Scouts Can Do for Greater New York." This was the regular work for a study period. The idea is being taken up in many other cities, resulting in valuable suggestions for civic betterment.

SCOUTS SOLVE HOUSE PROBLEM.

The Springfield (Mass.) Union tells how a group of local boy scouts helped a woman to solve her housing problem by assisting her in building her house. The boys gave their Saturdays and holidays to the service. They selected the front and rear porches, put on the clapboards and laid the upstairs flooring and other inside jobs.

BOY SCOUT NOTES.

The citizens of Hebardville, Ga. are promoting a memorial for a local boy scout soldier in the form of a community building to be used for boy scout and other young people's activities. Before it was three months old the woman (Wife) boy scout council received from M. U. Ewing, its president, as a gift, an 8-acre tract near that city, with house and barn. It will be an all-year training site.

A Big New Lesson. A new lesson called the Ponderosa is now being cultivated. It grows to the size of grapefruit and, although its flavor is rather mild, may be used in any way in which ordinary fruits are used.

Flying is Not Any More Dangerous Than Autoing

Flying, properly done, is not any more dangerous than driving an automobile, and yet can be made very dangerous, as can an automobile, and, too, by some flyers who do not stop to consider results.

There are several factors to be considered in flying with safety. First—Reliability of the engine. During the war, engines were made extremely light and powerful, so as to carry a greater load of war equipment. These engines needed an overhauling of from 50 to 100 hours. Today engines are on the market that need an overhauling at not less than 250 hours, or, considering the miles flown, at 25,000 miles.

Second—Weather conditions are now taken into consideration. When the Air Mail pilot starts out he is given the weather reports for all sections between his starting point and the other end. Knowing this he can avoid storms by flying high over them or going around. This information will be available for all commercial planes as soon as enough flying fields are established to warrant it.

Licensing and grading of pilots will eliminate another danger in flying. There are too many flyers of the trouble after the plane gets into the air. Last, but not by any means, least, landing fields all over the country will do more for Safety First in flying than anything else. If there is a suitable landing field every fifty miles, and it is well marked and indicated on the pilot's map, every plane flying about the country need never have to land in strange and dangerous fields, which is the cause of many of our accidents. Let us hope that every city will soon realize the need of a good landing field, and that the government will help them in building a flying field that will be a credit to themselves and the country.
