

LA GRANDE NEWS 28 YEARS AGO

From the files of the La Grande Weekly Gazette for Friday, December 2, 1892.

Johnny Synhorst, the boiler-maker, returned Tuesday evening from a two months' vacation in the east.

The old Stayer and Walker warehouse, now occupied by Johnny Clark, has undergone considerable repairing this week.

Sparks from a passing engine caused considerable damage to hay on Sam Williamson's place last week.

MARRIED—Tuesday, November 29, 1892, W. O. Kuhn and Miss Linnna McLain, both of this city, Rev. Alexander, officiating.

BORN—in La Grande, Thursday, Nov. 24, 1892, to the wife of A. J. Burke, a son.

A movement is on foot to organize a toboggan club among the young folks of this city.

F. D. McCully has been over from Wallowa county this week looking after business measures.

BORN—in La Grande, Thursday, Nov. 24, 1892, to the wife of J. B. O'Toole, a son.

Miss Mollie Proebstel, one of La Grande's popular young ladies, returned to her home last Sunday evening after an enjoyable visit in Baker City.

L. E. Caviness opened his new and commodious quarters on Adams avenue Monday morning.

Joe Snodgrass and party, who left here some time since, arrived in Oro, Oknegan county, on Nov. 24, making the trip in 15 days. Considerable rough weather was experienced, but no mishaps occurred.

Three ricks of hay, aggregating about 50 tons, on Peeler's ranch near Ladd Canyon, were destroyed by fire Saturday night, about 12 o'clock. The fire was evidently of an incendiary origin.

Rev. R. LeRoy, pastor of the Baptist church, is aspiring to the position of postmaster, at La Grande, under the administration of Cleveland.

In the case of the state vs. Evan Carver, which came up for trial at Union last week, the defendant's plea of murder in the second degree was accepted, and he will be sentenced accordingly. He was once convicted of murder in the first degree, but secured a new trial.

The celebrated musical organization known as Gilmore's band, has been destroyed by internal discord. The German members of the band declared that the newly appointed director, D. W. Reeves, was unable to wield a baton in a manner intelligible to them.

Numerous fences in this city were blown down and several houses were damaged to a considerable extent by a windstorm which visited this city Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. A. Sommer and daughters, Misses Fannie and Mary, arrived from Portland Monday evening, and have again taken up their residence amongst us. Mein Host Sommer will reopen the Reeves house as soon as the new furniture arrives, and Mrs. Sommer, assisted by her daughters, will play the amiable hostess.

Master Mechanic Graham has resigned his position with the railroad on account of ill health.

Monthly reports were given by the teachers of the La Grande public schools this week. The staff of teachers is composed of C. B. Leathman, A. L. Collison, Etta Lamsdon, Alma LeRoy, Bertha Slater, Nettie Clark, Ella Weathers, Emma Whitney, Dora B. Scott, and Nellie M. Stevens.

The most important of all the civil cases on the Union county court docket are those wherein two cattle kings, and landed monarchs, Fred Nodine and J. Q. Shirley, appear as plaintiffs and vice versa, as each has declared war on the other.

FOR SALE OR TRADE
280 acres in Willamette Valley, valued at $8400.00. Owner will trade this for an improved place in this valley, and prefers being near La Grande. The Willamette valley property is all good soil, partly under cultivation, well watered, on a paved road, and enough saw timber on the place to more than pay for it. There is a mortgage against it of $3000.00, at six per cent. The owner's equity is $7,500.00, and he doesn't care to assume much indebtedness. SECURITY LAND & SAVINGS CO. 3-4-3f

FOR SALE

20 acres with good house, and large barn, about 5 1/2 miles north of Island City. This is an improved property, 12 acres of fall wheat in, the balance of the land to be farmed in the spring. This place is on the main road, and the buildings and improvements alone would cost almost as much as the price of the property. The price is $2750.00, with a mortgage against it of $1,000, which could be assumed by the purchaser, running 4 years yet, at six per cent. SECURITY LAND & SAVINGS CO. 3-4-3f
