THEATRES

THE STREET CALLED STRAIGHT AT SHERRY'S

Basel King was a daily visitor at the Goldwyn studios during the production of his famous novel, "The Street Called Straight," an Eminent Authors offering which will be shown at the Sherry Theatre last day today. Mr. King conferred frequently with Director Wallace Worley regarding the various situations in the story. Mr. Worley found it a distinct advantage in translating the book to the screen to have the viewpoint of the author who created the characters and visualized their action.

Also showing Buster Keaton in "Neighbors." It's a wonderful comedy.

SMASHING DRAMA OF CANADIAN MOUNTED POLICE AT ARCADE

William Russell provides excitement aplenty in his latest William Fox production, "The Challenge of the Law," which comes to the Arcade Theatre today and Tuesday. In this picture, it is said, he gives a striking picture of the Royal North West Mounted Police, whose assignment has been to stop a desperate band of fur smugglers from taking their furs across the border into the United States. It closes with the fur smuggler single handed and costs a leader of the gang, whom he suspects. A rescue of the smuggler is effected, but results in the murder of another member of the Mounted Police.

The fur smuggler pays the penalty, the fur smuggling is stopped and the Captain who led the men in developed in some thrilling scenes.

A two-reel comedy called "You Told 'em Lions, I Bear," is also being shown.
