WRITES ABOUT PORTLAND MAN

Mayor George L. Baker of Portland occupies the place of honor in the April number of Sunset magazine in the department devoted to sketches of "Interesting Westerners." A brief review of the career of Portland's executive by Paul N. Wilson recounts Baker's rise from boyhood by his own efforts, concluding with the statement: "In Oregon they are talking of still greater public honors for Baker's future."

Observant Judge. In a recent divorce suit, where the husband complained, among other things, that his wife neglected his buttons, the judge said: "My dear sir, you should remember that a woman is so used to plucking things that she can't understand why a man should make a fuss about a missing button or two."—Boston Transcript.

This is the kind of testimonial we receive very frequently concerning Silverthorn's Germicide: Silverthorn's Family Drug Store, Dear Sirs: Enclosed find one dollar, for which please send me by mail one bottle of your Germicide for the scalp. Make it pretty strong. You will remember, perhaps, that I got two bottles a little over a month ago while in your drug store. I believe those two bottles have affected a permanent cure. Sincerely yours, GEORGE P. CRANDALL, Alameda, Wash.

THE REASON FOR OUR SUBSTANTIAL GROWTH IS OUR SUBSTANTIAL SERVICE

President Harding Says:

"Thrift is the antithesis of waste, the foundation of fortune, the keystone of security. Thrift is not miserliness or meanness. It is provision and prevision."

From a poor boy Harding saved, sweated and studied his way into the highest seat in the land—the Presidency.

His words on thrift have an added meaning. They are not the lightly spoken thoughts of a child of fortune, but the understanding words of a man who knows.
