SUMMONS. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Union County: James N. McClure, Plaintiff, vs. William M. White, Mrs. William M. White, Bates County National Bank and all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate or interest in or lien upon the real estate described in the amended complaint in this suit, defendants:

You and each of you are hereby required and notified to be and appear in the above entitled court and answer the amended complaint therein filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before the 7th day of April, 1921, and you and each of you are hereby notified that if you fail to so appear and answer the plaintiff will, for want thereof, apply to the court for the relief demanded in the said amended complaint, to-wit, that plaintiff be decreed to be the owner in fee of the real estate described in said amended complaint, to-wit, the west half of southeast quarter of section 36 in Township three south, and west half of northeast quarter of Section 1 in Township four south, of Range 28, E. W. M., in Union County, Oregon, and that plaintiff's title thereto be quieted against defendants and each thereof.

This summons is published by order of Hon. J. F. Phy, County Judge of Union County, Oregon, made and entered on the 18th day of November, A. D. 1920, directing publication thereof once each week for six consecutive weeks in the La Grande, Evening Observer, published at La Grande, Oregon, and the first publication of this summons is made on February 23rd, 1921.

THE PNEUMONIA MONTH. March is a typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter, the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly.—adv.

The Young Mother Youth, with its vitality, makes for the young mother's health and happiness. But later, maternal experiences bring a different result. The care of a family, multiplied household duties, and very often the weakness caused by womanly disease, tend to prolong the suffering and to make convalescence a slow and weary process. Many women—perhaps your own neighbors—have had beneficial experience with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which prepares the prospective mother. Send 10 cents to Doctor Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial package of tablets. SOUTH VALLEJO, CALIF.—"I have taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription during pregnancy and found it excellent. It relieved my headache, backache, and helped me in a great many ways. I was strong, had a good appetite and had comparatively no suffering. Was strong and felt well when I got up and my baby was nice and healthy."—Mrs. S. P. HOUSTON, 6649 Fifth St.

Tomorrow, March 17, is St. Patrick's Day. Although it is Lent and but few social events are being given, on the shamrock and the colors of St. Patrick's native land will predominate in the homes where parties are being given tomorrow and the balance of the weekend.

One of the surprises of the week was the wedding of Miss Justine Clark to Gilbert A. Barron, of La Grande. The ceremony was solemnized on Saturday, March 12th, in the Episcopal Church in Nampa. The bride was attired in a beautiful blue suit with which was worn a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley. Only immediate relatives and friends attended. Mr. and Mrs. Barron left for a short wedding trip, and on their return will be at home in Island City.

The Clio Club spent an enjoyable afternoon with Mrs. Margaret Ingle Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Elmer Stoddard won the prize at cards. The rooms were delightfully decorated for the occasion and the hostess served delicious refreshments during the afternoon.

Mrs. Wren Crews, of La Grande, who is visiting in Albany at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hiram Tober, was the motif for a charming luncheon for which Mrs. Victor Oliver was hostess at her home on Wednesday. Viols and jongsuets were arranged in a lovely bouquet centering the table. The latter part of the afternoon was passed socially.—Albany Herald.

An affair of unusual enjoyability was the card party given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. E. W. Cox at her home on Second street, complimenting Miss Nell Grimmit, of La Grande, who is her guest. Three tables of bridge were enjoyed and following cards a two-course luncheon was served.—Baker Herald.

The Lucky Thirteen club will be entertained tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. Finn.

Mrs. L. C. Scriber, of La Grande, was honored with a pleasant evening party given Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. Walton Worrell. The guests included a group of friends of Mrs. Scriber, who resided in Albany many years ago. The game of Michigan was played at several tables during the evening, followed by refreshments. Mrs. Fred Ward assisted the hostess in serving.—Albany Herald.

Miss Marcella Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Berry of La Grande, was honored last week by being elected to the Kwama society at the University of Oregon. Kwama is a sophomore women's honor society at the university and the number of initiates each year is limited to 15. Initiation is shortly before junior week-end at the university. A novel feature of the pledge day is the wearing of tulips by the honored 19 on that day, which this year was last Thursday. Miss Berry was the only eastern Oregon co-ed honored by the society this year.

COVE, Mar. 16.—At the home of Mat Mitchell, on March 6, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Minnette, to Mr. L. J. Sentner, of Edmonton, Canada.

Mrs. Wesley Smith played Mendelssohn's Wedding March on the piano, accompanied by Miss Margaret Laird on the violin. Miss Laird then sang in a very pleasing manner, "For I Love You Truly." She was accompanied by Mrs. Smith on the piano.

Rev. B. S. Hughes, of the Presbyterian church, officiated at the simple wedding ceremony. Following the ceremony congratulations were given Mr. and Mrs. Sentner, and a jolly evening of music followed, Mr. Sentner playing on the bag pipes, Mr. and Mrs. Laird giving several numbers on the piano and violin. Mayor Joe Trippier also gave some old time selections in fine style on the violin, accompanied by Mrs. Laird. Mrs. Smith then closed the musical by singing "The End of a Perfect Day," after which refreshments were served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Otho Eckersley, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ingram, and granddaughter, Lyle Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Trippier, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Laird and daughter, Margaret, and sons, Robert and Warren, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Robert French and son, Stuart.

The Men's club of the M. E. church met last evening in the church parlors. E. D. Towler, head of the physics department of the high school, read a paper on the reasons for the spread of Christianity, including a brief review of the life of Constantine and a general discussion of the paved road situation at that time. G. W. Beck gave several harmonica selections, choosing some old time melodies for this purpose. Several recitations by F. C. Divens completed the formal program.

Following the program the balance of the evening was spent in a social hour, refreshments being served. A pleasant surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wallace at their home, 2108 Oak street, last Saturday evening. The members of the Happy Hour club were the host.

invited guests. The evening was spent largely in dancing and light refreshments were served before the evening closed. Twenty-one guests attended.

The Westminster Guild met at the home of Mrs. J. L. Ingle Monday evening. The occasion was Guest Day and six new members were taken into the guild. A large number of guests attended.

A delightful program had been prepared for the evening and the entire gathering was intensely interested. Mrs. E. P. Mossman showed pictures showing how it would be possible to reproduce the Bible by means of law, music, architecture, paintings and from memory.

Mrs. A. S. Duryea, Mrs. William Miller, Mrs. J. K. Wright, Mrs. James A. Smith, Mrs. E. P. Mossman and Miss Harriet Short took part in the program, being costumed as figures to be found in the frieze on the wall of the Boston public library.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess before the evening closed.

Miss Bertha Berger was a pleasing hostess for the Camp Fire Girls last Friday evening, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Berger. During the evening, the members of the club decided to make canopies for the Tree Fund Festival, which is to be given March 31, April 1 and 2, in Eagles Hall, under the auspices of the Neighborhood Club Tree Fund committee.

Later in the evening delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were Mary Fraxley, Flavia Ritter, Audrey Harter, Inez Hughes, Geraldine McAllister, Avis Maguire and Bertha Berger.

The members of the Eastern Star Social Club were delightfully entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. F. W. Parsons. Six tables were arranged for "500," Mrs. C. A. Tomassone, of Portland, who is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Binger, winning high honors.

Following the card game, a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess. The members of this club will be entertained by Mrs. J. C. Binger, who leaves soon to make her future home in Portland, next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Binger.

Miss Mamie Geary, of this city is registered at the Hotel Portland in Portland, this week.

Miss Harriet Short left last evening for Portland, where she will spend several days visiting friends. While in the metropolis, she will view the new exhibition which is hung in the galleries of the Art Museum commemorating the artists Anders Zorn, J. Francis Murphy and J. Alden Weir. Zorn died last year, Weir a year ago in December, and Murphy in January of this year. The Swedish artist, Zorn, has an international reputation and is well known in America, having exhibited in all the large collections, while the American, Weir and Murphy, are men of distinguished attainment, much beloved in our country. The pictures are a new exhibition, shown in Portland for the first time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds and Mr. L. J. French were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cox Sunday morning, after having motored here from La Grande.—Baker Herald.

An old time hard times social will be given this evening by Star Encampment, I. O. O. F., the Encampment being hosts to all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. A program of solos, duets, and other vocal and instrumental numbers has been arranged.

Friday afternoon, March 18, will be an especially important meeting for the Neighborhood Club when the Red Letter Day Scholarship Loan will be emphasized. The meeting will be held in the club rooms, beginning at 2:30, and the Neighborhood Club quartet has put forth every effort to make the day a success. A musicale has been arranged, and the public is invited to attend. A free will offering will be taken for the fund.

The following program will be rendered: "Shoogy Shoo," by Carl Ambrose; "Nightingale," (Nevin) by Double Quartette; cornet and trombone solo, selected, Mr. A. Loney and Mr. F. Robinson; vocal solo, "Springtide," (Reinhold Becker); Mrs. T. R. Maxwell; vocal solo, "Roundup," (F. H. Rickman); Mrs. James Herman Siegrist, Earl Stoddard and Lester Stoddard; piano solo, 1. "Romance," (Sibelius), 2. "By the Sea Shore," (Arensky); Mrs. R. J. Green; vocal solo, 1. "Birth of Morn," (Louni), 2. "The Wind in the South," (John Prindle Scott); Mrs. A. L. Richardson; double quartette, 1. "An Irish Folk Song," (Arthur Footle), 2. "It Was a Lover and His Lass," (Berwald); Double Quartette.

Power of West Indian Hurricanes. In the West Indies the natives have named the hurricane warning flag, which is displayed by the weather bureau, "el pañuelo del Diablo." The various hurricanes are named after saints of the church, and birth dates, marriage dates and death dates are selected from them.

FASHION'S TREND IN SUITS

The procession of suits for spring shows the trend of fashion in four directions with many versions of the boxcoat in the lead. Then come the straightline, bloused and sashed models, like that shown in the picture, followed by others. Styles are determined by coats and skirts are plain. This suit has reduced its lines and trimmings to the last degree of simplicity and has, therefore, a new smartness of its own. The sash of wide black satin ribbon, however, is gathered in at the ends and finished with very handsome silk tassels. These blouses and sashed suits are youthful looking and have a chic simplicity approved with much fervor just now.

YOUTH MEETS SPRING

When youth and springtime meet in the mind of the designer of millinery are presented with such conceptions as those in the group of hats shown above. One of the new shiny fabrics makes the draped turban with its audacious drooping bow at the right side. Knife-plated ribbon is responsible for the cheerful but in rose color that looks as if it might be made of sea shells at the right. The odd and dashing shape at the left has a satin brim and fancy braid crown with a cluster that comprises fruits, flowers and foliage posed against it. The wide-brimmed hat, but boasts of lovely lines not interfered with by a cosette and wide of satin ribbon looped at the side. These are only four among the myriads of hats made to grace the heads of young women, but from them may be gathered something of the vivacity and the general brightness of new shapes and materials for spring.

STYLISH AND PRACTICAL

In measuring the most valuable attributes of any garment, feminine judgment is apt to think at least as highly of style as of utility. If one or the other must be sacrificed—it is not style, and it is a faulty circumstance when both are found artfully combined. This is the case with the handsome utility coat shown in the picture. It is long and full, with dolman sleeves and deep yoke that suggests a coat. The collar is ample and may be buttoned up about the throat. The material is a soft but loosely woven pile fabric, light in weight, but cozy, and style of this coat places it in the distinguished class where there are few that are so practical. Dreaming of Candles. A dream of a limited candle is said to extinguish a woman. To dream of an extinguished one is believed to mean a funeral. When you buy candles in a dozen or make them, this is said to foretell merriment and rejoicing.

PILO RELIEVES QUICKLY. It requires but a few minutes of your time each day—a few applications of Nyal's Pilo and the persistent torture associated with piles is banished. There is no need of your suffering day in and day out—unable to perform your duties, unable to secure rest either day or night on account of the incessant pain—Nyal's Pilo affords almost instant relief, and if used persistently will invariably effect a cure. One application relieves the constant itching and makes life more bearable. Pilo is not an experiment—it has proved its merit and we are positive it will do as represented. FIFTY CENTS THE BOX.
