WHITMAN COLLEGE GLEE CLUB HERE THURSDAY

The Whitman College Glee Club that is scheduled to appear at the Arcade Theatre Tuesday evening has just finished a most successful tour of the Yakima Valley, where they appeared in a number of towns and made a most decided hit.

The following extract is taken from the Yakima Herald; where the Whitman club appeared.

Before an audience that filled the high school auditorium to overflowing, the Whitman College Glee Club gave its song revue last night. The program was varied and was enthusiastically applauded throughout. The work of the club shows excellent training, is well-balanced, without the usual weakness in tenors, so common a fault in college organizations. The orchestra selections were tuneful, spirited and infectious with good cheer and "college pep." The impersonations of Harper Joy were clever and would do credit to the "big time" in vaudeville. All in all, the program was a delight and worthy of the fine endorsement which it received.

This club will give but one concert Thursday evening at the Arcade Theatre, starting at 8:15. None of the seats will be reserved and the doors will be open at 7:30. Prices for the concert are: Lower floor, 83c; Balcony, 55c.

COWBOY BUCK JONES AT ARCADE WEDNESDAY

The attraction at the Arcade Theatre Wednesday only will be "Two Moons," starring Buck Jones, the Fox cowboy star. Great things in the way of a treat for the thousands of admirers of this handsome young actor are promised in this picture, which was adapted from Robert Welles Ritchie's novel, "Trails to Two Moons," an exhilarating tale of the bitter feud between the cattle men and the sheep herders of Wyoming.

The La Grande Philharmonic Orchestra, under the able leadership of Andrew Loney, Jr., will appear in their last regular concert immediately following the feature picture. A good program has been prepared and a treat is promised to all music lovers.

"HAIRPINS" AT SHERRY'S TODAY AND TOMORROW

What happens when an old-fashioned young woman marries a young man with a weakness for jazz and pretty stenographers?

This is the interesting situation in Enid Bennett's new picture, "Hairpins," which shows today and tomorrow at Sherry's. The star is delightful as ever as the young wife who would rather track a bargain in rib-roast to its lair than have her hair permanently waved. Matt Moore, brother of Owen and Tom, is the leading man.

"Hairpins" was written by C. Gardner Sullivan, the best known writer of original stories for the screen in the business.

Also showing a two-reel comedy and "Movie Chats."

Hawk Really Farmer's Friend. From early times in the eastern United States country boys, and even sportsmen, have held "hawk shoots" during the autumn flights, making their ambushes at places where wood and grass way to fields, and particularly where the flight-line is determined by an adjoining body of water. Such hunting is in general rather harmless, or worse, for most of our hawks are beneficial birds.—Exchange.

Double Surety Lost. Junior's dog, Rex, had a collar, with his name and address engraved on it. One day the boy let the dog go out. Later he discovered that he had forgotten to put the dog's collar on. "Oh," said the child, "how he's sure to get lost. How will he ever know where he lives without his collar?"
