

THE PNEUMONIA MONTH.

March is a typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter, the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly.—adv.

Judge F. H. Crawford was host at one of the most enjoyable banquets ever given in La Grande when he celebrated his seventy-second birthday anniversary. The guests were the members of the bar in La Grande, all of whom paid tribute to their host in no uncertain terms when called upon for toasts by Judge J. W. Knowles, who presided as toastmaster.

In his remarks Judge Knowles spoke feelingly and reminiscently of his association with Judge Crawford. Several incidents, particularly, showing the high character of Judge Crawford were mentioned by the toastmaster, who succeeded Judge Crawford to the circuit bench in 1908.

Judge Crawford, who was appointed in 1906 to succeed the late Judge Eakin as circuit judge, Judge Eakin having been appointed to the supreme bench, was a candidate to succeed himself when this appointive term expired, Judge Knowles being his Republican opponent.

For the first time, the members of the bar were told just how Judge Crawford campaigned during that year, which meant his defeat. In every way he was extremely kind to his opponent. When the two met in the smaller towns of the county and Walla Walla county places, Judge Crawford personally extended many courtesies to his opponent, introducing him to his many friends. At the banquet Judge Knowles expressed his thanks for the clean campaign which Judge Crawford waged against him and for these many courtesies extended to him. This is an incident of the campaign that the members of the bar present had never known before.

Judge J. D. Slater, whose father was U. S. Senator when Judge Crawford came here, and his first law partner, recalled many pioneer incidents in his remarks and George T. Cochran called the host of the evening his "legal godfather." R. J. Green, H. E. Dixon, and R. J. Kitchen testified to the assistance which was given them by Judge Crawford, taking the occasion of tendering him their thanks.

Colon R. Eberhard called attention to Judge Crawford's contributions in the molding of the jurisprudence of the state. There are now 99 volumes in the Oregon Reports and beginning with the sixteenth volume Judge Crawford's name appears in every volume in at least one case, he said.

Ed Wright, district attorney, spoke of his association with Judge Crawford when Wright was a boy just growing up and both lived at Union. J. S. Hodgins spoke of the pleasure and assistance that his association with Judge Crawford brought him.

Walter M. Pierce paid a personal tribute to his host and mentioned especially the influence Judge Crawford had on the bar of the state.

Col. F. S. Ivanhoe's tribute was considered the masterpiece of the evening. He has been a deep personal friend of Judge Crawford for over 30 years and his tribute came straight from the heart. Because of his long-standing friendship, Col. Ivanhoe was selected to present Judge Crawford with a humidor filled with cigars. Judge Crawford responded in eloquent terms to his friends' remembrance. Judge Crawford located in Eastern Oregon in 1878, locating at Baker City at that time and shortly after moving to Union. Previously to this he had practiced law in Eastern Washington.

By a peculiar coincidence, Judge Crawford, the late Judge Eakin and Judge Finn, the three pioneer lawyers of La Grande and Union county, are all practically of the same age and were born within a month of each other.

Those attending the banquet as the venerable judge's guests included the following: Judge J. W. Knowles, Geo. T. Cochran, Ed Wright, F. S. Ivanhoe, R. J. Green, Walter M. Pierce, H. E. Dixon, H. R. Hanna, John S. Hodgins, R. J. Kitchen, J. D. Slater, E. R. Ring, A. C. Williams, and Colon R. Eberhard.

Robert Eakin was unable to attend because his home was under quarantine. C. H. Finn was called to Portland on important business and Eugene Ashwell was ill. The banquet was served at the Simmer hotel.

Miss Friederike Schilke

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schilke, of this city, who will appear with the University of Oregon Girls' Glee Club here on Tuesday evening, March 29, at the high school auditorium. Miss Schilke is in her second year at the University of Oregon.

The Elks will initiate the post-Lenten season with a dance at their club house Friday evening, March 25. The committee in charge expects to have the dance one of the most enjoyable events of the season and is arranging for special odd-numbered dances, so that all members, whether old or young, will have opportunity to dance their favorite steps.

Refreshments especially appropriate to Easter will be served during the evening. This dance will be one of the regular Monday night dances which were interrupted by Lent.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Biggers was the scene of a delightful party last Tuesday evening, the occasion being a farewell party for Rex Green, Mrs. Biggers' brother, who has gone to The Dalles to reside.

The guests included ten couples, members of the young society set who were intimate friends of Mr. Green's. The evening was spent in dancing and cards. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

The University of Oregon Girls' Glee Club concert to be given here on Tuesday evening, March 29, promises to be one of the biggest events of the season, and the La Grande University club, under whose auspices they will appear here, is leaving nothing undone to make their concert a success.

This is the first time that the Girls' Glee Club of the University has made a trip to Eastern Oregon, although for a number of years, they have made annual concert tours of Southern Oregon and the Willamette valley. The club is said to possess some extra fine talent this year, and their concert here is expected to be a big drawing card. Tickets are now being sold, and the reserved seat sale will start Friday morning at 8 o'clock, at the Silverthorn Drug Store.

The club is composed of twenty-five members, and will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Leland A. Coon. Mr. Coon is director of the club this year.

Following is the list of the girls who will appear here in the concert: Alice Gohlke, Portland; Leah Zink, Sterling, Nebraska; Esther Wilson, Plainfield, Conn; Florence Garrett, Hillsboro; Genevieve Clancy, Portland; Dorris Hoefler, Astoria; Eloise McPheerson, Portland; Vasilii Hoskins, Pendleton; Constance Miller, Portland; Marian Linn, Eugene; Nell Gaylord, Tillamook; Naomi Wilson Medford; Bernice Alstach, Portland; Imogene Letcher, Portland; Laura Rand, Portland; Belle Chatburn, Marshfield; Katherine Baker, Portland; Alberta Carson, Hood River; Betty Kessl, Corvallis; Marvyl Stevens, Coquille; Irene Rugh, Eugene; Gladys Keeney, Portland; Friederike Schilke, La Grande; Margaret Phelps, Pendleton.

The Associated Girl Students of the high school are planning a public entertainment for the evening of April 5, the proceeds to go toward furnishing the room, a goal this organization has been working towards all year. The program will be held in the auditorium, beginning at 8:15.

and will include stunts by each of the classes—musical numbers, dances, and some feature songs which were said to be very clever. The A. G. S. has given some delightful programs this year, but most of them were for their members only. Admission fees of 25 and 30 cents will be charged for the April meeting.

The Whitman Glee Club will make its appearance in the city tomorrow evening when they will put on a program at the Arcade theatre. Howard E. Pratt is directing the club this year, and brings with him the following men: First tenor—Wallace Allen, Joseph Gaiser, Finellius Carlson, Herbert Thompson, and Alfred Wheelodon; second tenor—Ralph Agustavo, Hallam Mendenhall, Earl Beeman, Richard Whitman; first bass—Russell Akey, Howard Reed, Arthur Douglas, Eugene Woodruff; second bass—Grant Bean, Jere Neterer, Wallace Brode, Joseph Tewinkle, Edwin Casebeer.

The club also has an orchestra of their own, composed of: Russell Akey and Ralph Agustavo, cornets; Earl Beeman and Al Sherman, saxophones; Howard Reed, violin; Wallace Brode, flute; Richard Whitman, cello; Stuart Whitehouse, banjo; Frederick Wilson, drums; Arthur Raaberg, piano.

The following program has been announced for tomorrow evening: Part 1. Salute, "Quin, Quin, Quality," (Whitman War Song), "Winter Song," Bullard, Glee Club; "Estudantina," (Lacome), Varsity Quartette; "Macushia," (MacMurrugh—arranged by Salter), Glee Club; Baritone Solo, "On the Road to Mandalay," (Speaks), Howard Reed; "The Builders," (Seiler), Glee Club.

Part 2. March, "Thunder Cloud," (Alford), Popular Melodies—Syncopated—(selected), Campus Orchestra; Cornet Solo, "Can't You Hear Me Calling, Caroline," (Roma), Ralph Augustavo; "You Can't Play Every Instrument in the Band," (Selected), Harper Joy; "Rhythmic Follies," (Selected), Campus Orchestra; Piano Solo, "La Regatta Veneziana, (Liszt-Rossini), Walter Mueller; "Bingville Chautauqua," new stuff, and "Parson Harper Home from Conference," old stuff, Harper Joy; "De Coppah Moon," (Shelley), Varsity Quartette; "The Sword of Ferrara," (Bullard), and "When the Morning Light is Breaking," Whitman Hymn, Glee Club. Walter Mueller, Accompanist.

An appreciative audience listened to a well arranged musical program yesterday afternoon in the Neighborhood club rooms. Mrs. John Chapman was the leader and read a splendid paper on American composers. Some of the best compositions of the composers discussed were later rendered by a number of La Grande's talented musicians.

An Irish fold song, composed by Frederick Foote, was well rendered by the Neighborhood club double quartet. Mrs. Hawley Richardson played "A Day in Venice" and Venetian Love Song." Another selection of Nevins, "The Nightingale," was sung by the double quartet.

The next number was a piano duet, "A Scalp Dance," composed by Lieurance, America's unique composer of Indian music, which was played by Mrs. R. J. Green and Mrs. Geo. Birnie. They also played a composition by McDowell, "In the Tyrol."

The last selections were two piano numbers by Burleigh, played by Miss Hilda Anthony. The numbers were "November," and "Indian Summer."

All the numbers were beautifully rendered and the audience greatly enjoyed the entire program. Mrs. J. C. Bingner was hostess last evening for the members of the Eastern Star Social Club at a card party given at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Bingner. After a pleasant evening spent around the five tables arranged for Five Hundred, most delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. High honors at cards fell to Mrs. Andrew oney.

Miss Elma Bay celebrated her 13th birthday by giving a theatre party Saturday, at the Arcade, to a few of her school friends. After the show they went to the home of Mrs. F. A. Charboneau, 1410 Washington Ave., where delicious refreshments were served. The house was tastefully decorated with violets and carnations. Those present were, Marguerite Zweifel, who was also celebrating her 13th birthday, Donaline Oxner, Gracie Cullin, Margaret Baker, Marjorie Warnick, Thelma Daniels, Irma Packett and Elma Bay.

A very interesting program was arranged for Friday afternoon at the Neighborhood Club rooms, this being "Scholarship Loan Fund Day."

Mrs. A. E. Ivanhoe briefly explained the great amount of good being done for deserving students all over the United States.

The Ladies' Double Quartet sang several numbers and were heartily enjoyed.

Mrs. A. L. Richardson and Mrs. T. R. Maxwell were delightful soloists for the afternoon.

A special feature of the program was a duet on the trombone and cornet by Messers Andrew Loney and Frank Robinson.

The post-Lenten season will be ushered in with a dance on Monday, March 28, by the country club. This is expected to be one of the most enjoyable events of the season and many members have been looking forward with pleasant anticipation towards the affair for several weeks.

The committee in charge announced this afternoon that every member will be given an opportunity to be present, whether he has a car or no, transportation means being worked out now so that all can attend. Lindsey's orchestra will furnish the music and a delightful supper will be served during the evening. The affair will be for members only.

Titan Tractor Back to the Old Price $1,000

WE have reduced the price of the Titan 10-20 to its former low price of $1,000 f. o. b. Chicago. This is the same Titan tractor which 75,000 farmers have put into remarkably successful service—the same tractor, plus 1921 improvements and additions.

A full set of removable extension angle lugs sold as extra equipment under the former $1,000 price is now included without extra cost. Fenders, Platform, Angle Lugs, Throttle Governor, Friction Clutch Pulley, Wide Range Adjustable Drawbar, Water Air Cleaner—all are included in the $1,000 price.

International 8-16 and 15-30 Tractors Also Reduced in Price

Farmers who want a lighter tractor, built like a high-grade automobile but with the same sturdiness and reliability of the Titan, can now get the International 8-16 at $1,000 f. o. b. Chicago. We have long restricted the sale of this model to a limited territory, but increased production enables us to release it to all sections of the United States. The International 15-30 tractor has been reduced to $1,950 f. o. b. Chicago. Bear in mind that we give unequalled service, made possible through 92 branch houses and thousands of local dealers, to every International tractor owner, no matter where located.

Prices of Other Lines Reduced

Prices have also been reduced on chilled plows, tractor plows, cream separators, kerosene engines, seeding machines, International threshers, harvester-threshers, wagons, hay presses, and a number of other lines on which your dealer can give you full information.
