Keep This Fact In Mind

—Many clothes are ruined by too much heat in ironing. The clothes are scorched and therefore weakened.

A laundryman who thoroughly understands his business uses extraordinary care to prevent such scorching. We take that care.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED.

IMBLER IS HIT BY SMALLPOX

IMBLER, Mar. 24.—(Special.)—Mark Calder, of Baker, was here last Sunday visiting friends.

Ethel Maister has been very low with smallpox. A trained nurse was called from Elrin, and at this writing she is better. Mrs. Frank Martin is also quite sick with smallpox. Her daughter, Hazel, came to care for her during her illness. George Ferguson spent Sunday night in La Grande.

River Reitor made a business trip to La Grande last Monday. Mrs. G. H. McClusky, of Spokane, arrived in Imbler last Monday. She came to join her husband who is saw filer for the Imbler Box and Lumber company. They are stopping at Hotel Imbler.

J. M. Gann was a business caller in La Grande last Wednesday. Herb Fisher was in Imbler last Tuesday and reported that he is getting along fine with his legging. Mrs. Jessie Morrison, of Enterprise, is looking for his camp.

The people of Imbler enjoyed the play, "Safety First," which was given by the M. I. A. of Cove, March 22. Every member of the company played his part in a very pleasing manner.

Wm. Nibarger, of La Grande, was buying potatoes in this locality last Wednesday.

Archie Keown is pruning his cherry orchard. Leo Neiderer, of Summerville, was in Imbler Wednesday.

LADD CANYON ROAD CLEARED

LADD CANYON, Mar. 26.—(Special.)—Mrs. W. C. Couch is spending the week end visiting in town.

The slides have been removed from the Ladd Canyon road and it will soon be ready for traffic again.

Dolly Butner has been suffering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

The ladies of the neighborhood are busy this week preparing articles for the bazaar to be held next week. The articles are to be ready in hand in at the club meeting at Mrs. H. W. Peehler's next Wednesday, Mar. 30.

Mrs. Clyde Hoppa returned home Tuesday for a week's visit and shopping trip to Portland.

Mrs. Dick Peehler is taking a much needed rest from the sick room this week and is visiting with relatives and friends in Union. Helen remains about the same. Her sister, Mrs. Daugherty, is helping to care for her during her mother's absence.

The Easter squall has preserved well in the form of a snowstorm, which lasted only a few hours and was gone, the girls showing keen interest in the stock rally to graze. Mrs. Sumpter came home from the lake last Tuesday, after a two weeks stay taking treatments. She was greatly temporarily relieved from her chronic trouble. Mrs. Ollie Kelley, of Boise, Idaho, has been visiting at her brother's, Dick Peehler, and helping to care for her sister, Helen. L. Deunsmith returned home from Pilot Rock last Friday. Guy Miller has been confined to the house for several days with an attack of la grippe.

Constipation

THERE IS NOTHING equal to Chamberlain's Tablets for constipation. When the proper dose is taken their action is so agreeable and so natural that you do not realize that it is the effect of a medicine. These tablets possess tonic properties that aid in establishing a natural and regular action of the bowels. Chamberlain's Tablets have cured many cases of chronic constipation.
