WINTRY EASTER LIKELY; SNOW FALL ALL DAY LONG

This year's Easter Day will be a white one, according to present indications. Snow began falling at five o'clock Friday morning and, until late last evening, intermittent flurries were the thing whenever the sun crawled under the covers. Then a real winter snow storm started, the sun remaining obscured and the mantle of fleecy white flakes seems to be here to stay for a while. Last year Easter was marked by a heavy snowfall, although it was a late Easter.

FOUND A CURE FOR INDIGESTION

"I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different medicines. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to, now," writes George W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. These tablets contain no poison but strengthen the stomach and enable it to digest the food naturally.—adv.
