WM. FARNUM AT ARCADE IN "IF I WERE KING"

William Farnum, the popular Fox star is appearing at the Arcade Theatre today and Tuesday in a special screen version of Justine Huntly Mc Carthy's successful novel and play, "If I Were King."

Having viewed this picture, we do not hesitate to say it is one of the best, if not the very best, that has been shown at the Arcade Theatre in a long, long time.

Walter Law as Thibault gives a good account of himself. Then there is Betty Ross Clarke as Lady Katherine, kinswoman of Louis XI.

Good Weather is Ahead

Last month—about the time the Groundhog was poking his head out of the hole to renew the ancient controversy about his prophetic ability—close observers of business conditions received an infinitely more trustworthy forecast of good business weather ahead.

The size of one of the largest nationally circulated publications was increased from 115 to 148 pages to accommodate national advertisers who offer the public articles of everyday need.

This indicates returning confidence, and proves that business men are going after business with renewed energy.

Our patrons among local business men have always had confidence in this Institution to co-operate with them in their efforts to hasten the return of good business weather.
