Observer's Opinion in Minority—It is quite plain that the opinion of the Observer on the Griffith play, "Way Down East," which showed here Sunday and Monday at the Arcade, is in the minority, for a great many have expressed themselves that the play was the best thing they had ever seen. The melodrama of the old type is portrayed in the play and it is very evident that the public as a whole enjoys the old plays, either spoken or in pictures, best.

Art Class Tonight—In order to hurry through their work, so that the slides used might be sent away, the members of the Evening Art Class, which has been meeting weekly with Mrs. E. P. Cleaver will be leaders for a comparative study of the works of Corot and Rousseau.

Jarvis Emigh Has Black Eye—Jarvis Emigh declares that he was mobbed Monday evening by a group of women who had read his fashion notes, and differed with him in opinion. Be that as it may, Uncle Jarvis has one side of his face rather enlarged, a cut on the right cheek and a rather stiff neck. The truth of the matter is that he was in a hurry to get home the other evening, and started walking down the railroad tracks, when he stubbed his toe on one of the rails, and fell, doing much damage to his facial beauty. Today is the first time that he has been out.

NO WATER FOR NON-RESIDENTS SAY THE CITY COMMISSIONERS

The city commission last night denied a petition for extending the water mains from the corner of Balm and Pennsylvania to serve residents, part of whom do not live in the city limits.

The entire commission was against further extension of water mains to serve people not in the city limits, especially in cases such as that of the petitioners last evening, where the section outside of the city limits is well built up.
