A STORE FOR MEN

Gives Tanlac Credit For Splendid Health

T. J. PARKER
4246 Juneau Street, Seattle, Wash.

"I used to think all the Tanlac testimonials were exaggerated but I have felt thankful a thousand times I ever believed in it strong enough to give the medicine a fair trial," said T. J. Parker, well known salesman for Gately's Clothing Store, residing at 4246 Juneau St., Seattle, Wash.

"Several years ago I commenced having periodic spells of sickness and a few months ago I had an attack that I thought would finish me up. When I did finally get up, I was scarcely able to go. I had no appetite and what little I forced myself to eat caused so much gas on my stomach I could hardly get my breath.

"At night I was often so bloated I couldn't breathe while lying down and just had to sit up and struggle for air. At times I had cramps so bad I could hardly endure it. My liver was sluggish and sometimes I got so dizzy I would nearly fall. I felt tired and miserable all the time, couldn't even sleep and for days at a time wasn't able to go to work.

"Well, a friend of mine finally got me to try Tanlac, and it certainly has done a good job for me. My appetite is fine now and although I am eating just anything I want and as much as I please, my stomach never gives me the least trouble. I have picked up in weight, my strength has come back to me, and I am now enjoying the best of health.

"All the men at the store know Tanlac put me back on my feet, and I am glad to give this statement for what it may be worth to others."

In concert at Orchestra Hall, Chicago recently and won instantaneous favor. Joseph Kendrick, tenor, has decided gifts in his artistry. For ten years he was soloist in Chicago's Woodlawn Park Presbyterian church. He has a voice of rare beauty. The baritone, Mr. Clayton Quayle, possesses a voice of rich quality, and like the other vocalists, is an artist of rare accomplishment.

Harrison Harch holds an enviable place among the younger American pianists. He is a thorough musician and has an ideal technique far above the average in modern work.
