The Telephone in Business

By far the greater proportion of business today in this country is transacted by telephone. It has become the ordinary means of securing prompt and satisfactory results in the business world. Many business firms are extending the use of the telephone to their transactions over the entire territory they serve. Buying and selling by long distance telephone is bringing satisfactory results whenever tried.

The essential thing in sales work is service to your patrons. Use of long distance lines will increase the efficiency of your service and the expense will be less.

For service to all points ask for Pacific Long Distance.

"THE CINEMA MURDER" AT SHERRYS TODAY ONLY

Would you like to be taken behind the scenes of a studio, see how motion pictures are made, see what terrible and heart-breaking struggles are often necessary for success?

If you would, you must see "The Cinema Murder," with Marie Davies a Cosmopolitan Production, which we will show today only. This is a Paramount-Arterart picture, and it ran in the Cosmopolitan magazine.

It's the story of a motion picture actress. You see her in the studio, you see the scenes taken, you see the whole inside life of the motion picture artist. And you will realize that success is not all glory and money, but is often accompanied by heartaches and suffering.

A comedy and "Mutt & Jeff" also showing.

HERE'S A COMEDY THAT ALMOST BELIEVES IT'S HOMEY TITLE

"Dining Room, Kitchen and Sink," latest of two-reel Christie Comedies at the Star Theatre, is supposed to have been selected as the title to a joke on some of the bedroom farces of the legitimate stage, like "Parlor Bedroom and Bath." Yet, to an extent, it believes its name. It has a dozen policemen, yet not a single chase; a dining room and a sink with out a broken dish and a burlesque company without a bathing suit or a pair of lights. It is a fast and furious farce resulting from a stranded burlesque company, a pair of crooks and a rich uncle and aunt of the star being thrown together in the same house without recognizing each other.

"KING SPRUCE" POWERFUL MITCHELL LEWIS PICTURE

"King Spruce," Holman Day's fascinating narrative of the Maine forests, will be presented in picture form with Mitchell Lewis as the star at the Star Theatre today and Sunday.

The star is introduced as Dwight Wade, a Maine college tutor, whose love for Elva Barrett, daughter of a lumber king, brings him north with the close of the college season.

In order to keep Wade away from his daughter, Barrett offers him a place in his employ through Colin McLeod, his superintendent. Wade accepts, leaves for the woods with McLeod but later is dismissed following an altercation with McLeod. Wade, however, joins forces with Robbers Ide, who has timber interests adjoining Barrett's.

Arriving in the woods, Wade finds Barrett and his men in the act of burning out a family of squatters on his land.

A fight ensues when Wade learns of Barrett's perfidy and the lumber king is seriously hurt. His daughter, Elva, is summoned and again Wade lays siege to her heart.

ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN IN WELL KNOWN STORY

To those who have not read the novel from which "Poor Dear Margaret Kirby, the Selznick picture showing at the Arcade Centre Sunday only, was made, the title does not suggest the strong dramatic power of the production.

The thing of the story deals with the faithfulness of fairweather friends who fawned before Margaret Kirby when she held the scepter of social leadership in her set, and who turned and rent her reputation to shreds, when broken through the financial failure and ill health of her husband, she needed the help of friends the most.

HOW TO GROW OLD GRACEFULLY

"How to grow old gracefully—and quickly" might be the title of a book written by Alice Hollister and Mary Alden, appearing in the new Goldwyn picture "Mistaken," which comes to the Sherry theatre for two days, commencing tomorrow.

Within a few days they have to change from women of 1965 to women of 1909. Lined faces and gray hair and stooped shoulders must somehow be attained.

"UNWELCOME GUEST HAS LIVELY TIME IN HEIRESS' HOME"

No fly with a fixed purpose of perching upon a selected bird head ever equaled the persistence displayed by the Sultor in his courtship of Miss Manybucks. It was the sweetest and charm of the little lady that lured him, rather than the fact that she was an heiress.

The plot of "The Sultor," a Larry Semon comedy will be shown at the Sherry theatre on Sunday and Monday.

SUICIDE RECALLS FORMER EPISODE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 23.—The marital differences of Jack Cudaby, who committed suicide in Los Angeles this week, and his wife, who was Miss Edna Cowin of Omaha, Neb., occupied considerable interest during the 14 years the family lived here. The Cudabys left in 1914 for California.

Cudaby was general manager of his father's speakeasy plant here during the family's residence in Kansas City. He was married in Omaha, December 28, 1909. On March 6, 1910, Cudaby featured in a sensational episode. Police summoned to the Cudaby home late at night by Mrs. Cudaby, found Jerry Lillis a local banker, lying on the floor bound with ropes and severely slashed. Cudaby and his chauffeur were in the room. To the police Cudaby said Lillis "had wrecked his home." Lillis recovered and Cudaby was not prosecuted.

Several days later relatives announced a separation had taken place between the Cudabys. On August 23, 1919, Mrs. Cudaby was granted a divorce, after she had testified of alleged indignities suffered at the hands of her husband. The decree provided that she should receive $100 a year during her lifetime from Cudaby, father of Jack, and that a trust fund of $100,000 should be set up for the elder Cudaby for the four children who were to divide the sum on attaining majority. The court also provided that the custody of the children should go to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cudaby.

Mrs. Jack Cudaby left Kansas City several days after accompanied by the children. In Chicago she announced that the children had disappeared. A nationwide search was started.

Several months afterward it was announced they had been found in a Los Angeles convent, where, it was stated they had been placed by Mrs. Michael Cudaby, the grandmother.

The couple were remarried at Excelsior Springs, Mo., June 29, 1912, and a court decree shortly after set aside the original divorce order.

Cudaby was active in club circles and took part in many sporting events. He was especially interested in polo ponies. His wife was prominent in social affairs here.

METHODISTS WILL BUILD NEW CHURCH

ONTARIO, Apr. 23.—The largest building to be erected in Ontario this summer, perhaps, will be a new home for the Methodist church. The old church building was moved last week to the back of the church property and will be used for social service work after the new building is completed. The local congregation has pledged $2,000 to the new building and is receiving aid from the centenary fund.

MANY POTATOES SHIPPED

During the period between March 23 and March 31 the Pacific Fruit Express company handled 92 cars of potatoes out of Oregon, where 157 cars were handled during the same period last year. During the first week in April, however, the movement of potatoes increased considerably.

WOOL CLIP FOR 1921 IS BEST IN MANY YEARS

BENDLETON, Apr. 23.—"Finest clip of wool in my 34 years experience in Grant county" was the way Joseph Cunha, veteran sheep man of Echo, describes this year's output. "Only three other clips in all these years came near to being as fine," he added.

The Cunha sheep are going through the giant Wattenberger shearing plant, two miles from Echo, and a crew of 64 men are turning out about 3500 head a day. The Cunha flock consists of 8700 head and Cunha considers his yearlings the best ever raised in this section of the country. Shearers get 12 cents each this year.

Spring shearing season is on over the county and the big crew at the Wattenberger plant will go to Huntington from Echo. Shearing will not be so long a season by Echo this year because the Standard sheep have been moved to Huntington in large numbers.
