Local News In Brief

Visitors in Baker.
L. Larsen and T. Hagen, of La Grande, are in the city.—Baker Herald.

Stoop Family in Quarantine.
The family of Lou Stoop, focal real estate man, has been placed under quarantine for scarlet fever.

Grain Association Men Here.
I. M. Ludwick, state organizer for the Oregon grain growers' association, arrived from The Dalles last night.

Visiting in Imbler.
Mrs. Gertrude Spiker was a passenger on the branch line train this morning for a few days' visit with friends in Imbler and Elgin.

Differential Effective Soon.
A differential of three cents between sacked and bulk wheat will be effective May 10, the present differential being four cents.

Mission Band to Meet.
The Mission Band of the Presbyterian Church will be entertained by Tillie Olson at the home of Mrs. A. S. Anderson, 507 Adams Ave., Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Like Musical Comedy.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Donald Meyers spent last evening in Baker, the guests of Mr. K. L. Burke, manager of the Baker theatre, where they attended the musical comedy, "The Sweetheart Shop." They report it is a very good comedy.

Tennis Court Good.
The tennis court at the Y. M. C. A. is now in good condition and will remain so until the next rain. All members wishing to use the court should call the Y. M. C. A. and make arrangements for using it during specified hours.

Stanford a Wonderful Place.
Robert Emahiser, who is attending Stanford University, writes that he is still attending Stanford, although several of his friends had the impression that he had left the university. He says he is having the time of his life, "but can hardly wait until it's time to head for Oregon, for no place on earth can look as good to me as La Grande. Stanford is a wonderful place." Robert is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity.

Heavy Wind During Night.
A heavy wind coming up during the night saved the Grande Ronde valley a thorough airing and did some good work drying up the roads and farms, helping traffic and farm work considerably. About the only damage noticeable was done to an awning that had been left down over night and which was bent out of shape.

Bargain Counter Popular.
Rebuilt cars on the bargain counter at Hilton's garage and Fords are in demand this spring, according to Frank Hilton. The weather has kept business from being as good as it should be but there is a healthy demand for cars nevertheless. Hilton's bargain counter has some good buys that are being marked down in approved bargain counter fashion at the rate of 45 per cent.

Mt. Emily Trip.
The boy scouts, under the leadership of A. Edwin Pryke, scoutmaster, will make a trip to Mt. Emily tomorrow unless it should rain during the night or in the morning. The trip will not be made to the point, but Mr. Pryke announced that all boys making the trip are expected to get the permission of their parents to make the trip. The boys will meet at the south end of the mountain and are asked to bring lunch for one meal. They are also asked to wear rubbers or boots. It is expected that the hiking party will return about five in the evening.

Home From Hospital.
Cullen F. Wood, who was operated on at the Grande Ronde hospital recently for appendicitis, has recovered sufficiently to return home.

Says May Is Slow.
The track meet held in La Grande Wednesday, between La Grande and Union was won by La Grande by a wide margin. The meet was held in a driving rain, according to local coach, O. B. Francis, who was in attendance. Coach Francis expressed confidence that Baker high will have no trouble in winning the dual meet in La Grande, this next week, if the local track men take more interest and train arduously.—Baker Democrat.

Miss Nichols Will Speak.
Miss Mary A. Nichols, Union county librarian, will be one of the main speakers at the Alpha Club meeting in Baker next Monday afternoon. The topic for the day is one on libraries. Miss Nichols will tell the Baker ladies about the library of La Grande and especially about the small libraries being established in Union county. Miss Cornelia Marvin, of the Oregon state library, will also be another speaker for Library Day in Baker.

Class Hears First Hand.
T. J. Scroggin, cashier of the United States National Bank, spoke to the civics class of the high school yesterday on the federal reserve system. This is the third of a series of talks which have been given before the class by prominent local people. Senator Colon R. Eberhard spoke, upon his return from Salem, of the past legislature and the making of laws. David L. Stoddard, city commissioner later spoke on the city commissioner form of government. It is probable that there will be other speakers appear before the class before the school term is over. The civics class is composed of seniors.

BROTHER AND SISTER KILLED.
Raymond Anderson was called to Omaha, Neb., last Monday by the deaths of an only brother and only sister. Particulars are lacking, but presumably, as they were returned from church to their home in a suburb Sunday noon, the motorcycle on which they were riding struck the curb, killing the young man. The young lady was rushed to the hospital but died Monday night without regaining consciousness. She had just graduated from high school and was planning on visiting La Grande this summer. They were buried Thursday. Raymond was accompanied to Omaha by his uncle, C. E. Anderson.

Salem is demanding license fee from telegraph firms. Western Union recently paid $425, and the Postal Telegraph company has been asked for $800.

Governor Olcott has turned the lance over to L. E. Beane, speaker of the past house of representative. The case involves the alleged fraud relating to land of the California and Oregon land grant.

Hood River orchards are breaking into bloom, and the peak of the blossom period will be reached the first of this coming week. Apple bloom is especially heavy.

The prune growers of Newberg believe the damage to the fruit from the recent cold spell, is slight. They hold a thinning of the prunes will be good for the fruit, tending to make it larger.

Little four-year-old Helen Crawford of Condon was drowned when she attempted to rescue her twelve-year-old sister, who had fallen into the creek. The older girl was unharmed.

Accident Victim Better.
R. L. Bowe, who was recently severely injured in an automobile accident, returned home yesterday from the hospital.

Visiting Here.
Mr. and Mrs. Max Wood, of Clifton Creek, near Nora Powder are spending several days at the C. S. Dugan home.

Meeting at Cove Today.
A meeting of the farmers in the Cove section is being held this afternoon at which time the Oregon Grain Growers' association representatives are explaining their organization plan to the farmers. Harry G. Avery, county agent, is among those who are at Cove today.

Likes Town, Not Prices.
In the morning's mail came a picture post card from "Mr. Stranger," with the following remarks concerning our fair city: "I have heard about this town for years. At last I visited La Grande, and it is sure grand. But next time I come I will bring a lunch with me. Three friend eggs at seventy cents. Some profit."

Special Car From Here.
Officials of Oregon who are planning on attending the big convention in New York City this summer of the Christian Endeavorers, are planning to have a special car go from La Grande. This will carry Wallawa county, and probably Baker county delegates, should the arrangements reach a satisfactory completion.

Reys Small Farm.
Conductor A. W. Lefel has purchased and taken possession of the 20-acre farm of Mrs. Bryde Smith Donnell, who is now a resident of Tucson, Arizona. The tract is located in Fruitdale, well improved containing eight acres of commercial orchard, cherries and apples. The deal was negotiated through the Geo. H. Curry real estate agency.
