son, Willem Mengelberg, the Holland conductor, will return from that country next February to be conductor for our orchestra for the latter half of the season.

"The reporter ventured the opinion that $1000 was a large fee to conduct one concert.

"I do not think so," said Mr. Strinsky. "It has taken the education of a lifetime to make me a conductor, and a fee of $1000 a concert is reasonable. Take the case of a great pianist who plays on a piano at a concert. He gets at least $1000, if not more, for playing the piano. I play on a bigger instrument an orchestra. A concert is directed by me. You see, $1000 is reasonable. I am worth that much to Miss DeElla Condit, of Eugene, and Mr. H. J. Kirk, of Portland, were united in marriage at Eugene on April 26th. Mrs. Kirk was formerly a La Grande girl and graduated from the local high school with the '19 class. She has been a student at the University of Oregon for the last two years. Mr. Kirk is a graduate from the University of Illinois, and is an electrical engineer. Mr. and Mrs. Kirk will make their home in San Francisco.

On Friday afternoon, May 6, the Greenwood Parent-Teachers' association held one of the most interesting meetings of the year, at which time a special program was given to raise money for the rest room, which is being equipped by the association for the benefit of the teachers and pupils. The committee reported $50.00 taken in from the sale of tickets.

After the program a short business meeting was held, and the following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Maud Charlton, president; Mrs. Elizabeth French, vice-president; Miss Daisy Newhouse, secretary and treasurer.

Delegates for the state convention to be held in Pendleton May 11, 12 and 13, were also chosen. Those selected were: Mrs. Charlton, Mrs. French, Mrs. Harnden, Mrs. Wilker, Mrs. Housen and Mrs. Cass.

Plans were discussed for next year's work, which promises to be most interesting and instructive. Much credit is due those in charge for the pleasing manner in which the following program was rendered:

Piano solo, Miss Peterson; Two Indian songs, Miss Ryan's room; Board Drill, Miss Elliott's room; songs by Greenwood Junior Chorus; Folk dance, "The Shoemaker," Miss Bennett's room; Klap Dance, Miss Newhouse's room; Picture Posing, Mrs. Okey's room; group of flower songs, Mrs. Thacker's room; "The Death of Hector," by Carlyle Huntly and Forat Holmes, from Miss Crouther's room; "Kentucky Philosophy," by Cecil Cade, Miss Crouther's room; feature dance by Marion Harris, Miss Snook's room; songs by Miss Peterson's room; recitation, Joe Butch, songs, by Miss Snook's room; vocal solo, "The Sandman," by Hubert Casson, Miss Klein's room; setting up exercises by Mrs. Green's room; health talk, Miss Zorn; reading, "The Pioneer," by Mrs. Charlton; vocal solo, Miss Eunice Fowler.

The women's Mooseheart Legion was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Fisher on Willow street. The ladies spent the afternoon working on a quilt for Mrs. D. E. Shanks.

Mrs. Fred Smith then gave an interesting talk from the Mooseheart Year Book, after which Mrs. Fisher served a delicious ice and cake.

The next social afternoon will be at Mrs. Roy Smith's on May 19, and the order of the day will be sewing a quilt together.

The annual meeting of the St. Peter's Episcopal Guild was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Zurbrich. Mesdames Claude Seranton, W. G. Sawyer, Fred Gaskill, D. H. Jesse, and Donald M. Pigue assisted Mrs. Zurbrich in entertaining.

The annual reports of a very successful year, and election of officers, were the special order of the day. The new officers elected were: Mrs. Claude Seranton, president; Mrs. Frank Oxner, vice-president; Mrs. John Chapman, secretary; Mrs. H. E. Moore, treasurer.

The business meeting was followed by a social hour. Mrs. W. G. Sawyer and Mrs. Fred Gaskill presided at the tea table.

Westminster Guild will be entertained Monday evening by Mrs. Sidney Hupperst at 1301 O Ave. Miss Edith Peechin has the program in charge and will take for her topic the concluding two chapters of the book being studied.

The Parkdale club held a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Garrett Oldenberg, in Fruitdale, Wednesday afternoon. The feature of the occasion was a silver tea for the purpose of raising a flower fund. A goodly sum was raised for this purpose.

Assisting Mrs. Oldenberg were Mrs. Bowers, Mrs. Emmett and Mrs. Schaeffer. Next Wednesday, May 11, the club will meet at the home of Mrs. Elvira Stillwell. At this meeting officers for the ensuing year will be elected and every member is urged to be present.

Mrs. A. L. Richardson and Mrs. H. J. Bohnenkamp will be hostesses for the members of the P. E. O. Chapter and their husbands, this coming Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Richardson. The hostesses have arranged a delightful musical program, and Mrs. Richardson has given special detail to every phase of the evening's entertainment, which promises to be one of the best programs ever arranged by Mrs. Richardson.

Mrs. Tony D. Smith, of Union, who is supreme representative of the Pythian Sisters, left today for her home in Union, after visiting with Mrs. J. R. Oliver, of this city.

The annual visit of the Grand Chief of Pythian Sisters organization for the State of Oregon last evening was a very pleasant and memorable occasion to members of the local temple. Mrs. Julia Blyeu, who is home in Seaside, Oregon, was accompanied on her visit by Mrs. Alice E. Galloway, Past Grand Chief of Enterprise, and Mrs. Margaret Smith, Supreme Representative of Astoria, Oregon. Other visitors from Lucette Temple, No. 11, were Mrs. Ida Cline, Most Excellent

Chief; Mrs. W. W. Stevenson and Miss Chloe Taylor.

The officers' work was exemplified by the local officers and the floor work demonstrated by the local degree staff. Mrs. Blyeu spoke in regard to the growth and prosperity of the organization throughout the state and complimented Rowena Temple on the amount of altruistic work being done here. Officers and members were asked to keep in mind the high ideals of the order at all times.

A very impressive feature of the evening was the presentation by the Grand Chief, of Officers' Jewels to the following ladies, who have served as Chiefs in the local temple: Mrs. Nellie Frawley, Mrs. Della Harnden, Mrs. Winnie Oliver, Miss Celia E. Bollman, Mrs. Cora Lewis, and Mrs. Lida O'Neal.

The refreshments offered at the close of the evening were daintily served by the committee in charge on tables decorated with spring blossoms and potted plants.

Mrs. Ida Cline, Most Excellent Chief of Pythian Sisters of Union, extended a hearty invitation, in behalf of Lucette Temple, to Rowena Temple of La Grande, for a return visit next Monday evening, at which time Mrs. Blyeu is expected to be their guest.

Mrs. Lyman Huff, of La Grande, is the guest this week of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bert Knight, of Union.

Lower Prices on Soda Water.

Please notice the lower prices on Soda Water Drinks at Silverthorn's Fountain:
Ice Cream, by the pint 30c
Ice Cream, by the quart 60c
Plain Ice Cream, by the dish 10c
Plain Ice Cream Soda Water 15c
Plain Ice Cream Sundae 15c
Fresh Strawberry Ice Cream Sundae 25c
