OTIS SKINNER TO APPEAR HERE IN FAMOUS "KISMET"

In all the length and breadth of fiction, there is no more picturesque a character than Hajj, the beggar of wright made Hajj famous in the stage version of "Kismet," and Otis Skinner, perhaps the best known and most popular actor in the country, immortalized Hajj during the years he gave life to the characterization on the stage.

The Robertson-Cole Company has filmed the famous play, which will be run for two days only at the Arcade Theatre, starting Friday, and thousands of people in this city are going to have an opportunity of seeing Hajj, the beggar, portrayed by no less a person than Otis Skinner himself. It is a safe prediction that the swaggering, crafty, a venture loving and amusing old Hajj vagabond will win every one's heart in the years to come, when old plays are discussed, his memory will be green.

On the stage Hajj made an instantaneous hit wherever "Kismet" was played; the screen version will do that and more, for, one the screen Hajj has an opportunity far beyond the limitations of the speaking stage, and Skinner's interpretation of this role in the screen version will stand for a long time to come as the finest study in character work that the moving picture camera ever recorded.

On account of the magnitude of this production there will be only one show in the afternoon, starting at 2 o'clock. The evening shows will start at 7:15 and 9 o'clock. A seven-piece orchestra will play at the evening shows. The following prices will be in effect for this picture: Matinees, 35c, children, 15c; Evenings, 50c, children, 25c.

"ROADS OF DESTINY" WITH MISS FREDERICK AT SHERRY THEATRE

"Nothing that within you lies can change the plan of which you are a tiny part. Choose any road, go east, go west, or north or south and meet the thing from which you ran away."

That man's life is governed by fate and that he is not allowed to work out his own destiny is vividly portrayed in the new Goldwyn starring vehicle for Pauline Frederick, "Roads of Destiny," which comes to the Sherry Theatre last day today.

It is a screen version of the famous story written many years ago by the equally famous writer, O. Henry.

In the adaptation, the story has undergone a change, inasmuch as the play centers around a heroine instead of a hero. Pauline Frederick portrays the part of Rose Merritt, who finds tragedy and disillusion awaiting her no matter what road she takes. This production necessitates a combining of what one might term four separate pictures, each in itself complete, and all dealing with the same characters who work their destinies out in four different ways showing what results might have been in each case.

Also "No Babies Allowed," comedy.

ANITA STEWART IN KATHLEEN NORRIS STORY AT ARCADE

"Harriet and the Piper," Anita Stewart's latest First National picture, which will be screened at the Arcade Theatre today and Tuesday, is from Kathleen Norris' story of the same name. The story, which has a Greenwich Village setting, ran serially in the Pictorial Review, and has since been published in book form.

Those who have already seen "Harriet and the Piper," both at this coast and in New York, are unanimous in declaring it the best film vehicle in which Miss Stewart has yet appeared, not excepting "In Old Kentucky," which was one of the most successful of last season's productions.

A comedy is also being shown.

Don't live for yourself alone, nor die for your heirs.

BILL HART AT SHERRY THEATRE

William S. Hart in one of the best pictures of his career. It is called "The Tall Gate" and is a thrilling and unusually appealing story of the rugged days of the olden West.

Mr. Hart, appears as Black Deering, head of a bandit gang, but an honorable man beneath his rough exterior. Deering is anxious to abandon his life of pillaging, but Jordan, his chief lieutenant, urges him to one more hold-up. It is a frantic race and Deering is captured, but he manages to escape. Eventually Deering reaches safety in a clearing where the cabin of Mary Brown is located. She proves to be the deserted wife of Jordan. Under her influence, Deering resolves to do the right thing and gives himself to the sheriff. As a colonel, he rescues a detachment of deputies from Jordan and kills the traitor. As a reward, the sheriff allows him his freedom.

Also showing a comedy.
