AT SHERRYS, BILL HART IN "THE TOLL GATE;" STORY THRILLS

Fifty years ago, our fathers and years before that, their own fathers, thrilled with excitement no doubt over the stories of James Fenimore Cooper. Today we find the same sort of stimulant in the motion pictures of William S. Hart, as presented by Paramount Aircraft, a splendid example of which is "The Toll Gate."

The border line of the Southwest is the scene of the story that is unfolded. As Black Deering, the outlaw who seeks to revenge himself on the traitor in his band, William S. Hart is a commanding and at the same time, pitiable figure. Through a maze of exciting incidents, we follow his career; see him escape after his capture; follow him through many thrilling scenes until, through the influence of a good woman, he gives himself up to the law. But he is over the Mexican border, and the sheriff gives him freedom. He turns sadly southward, for, though the girl begs to go with him, he knows his past life makes him unworthy of her.

Also showing a comedy. "KISMET" AS FILM SETS PICTURE PACE

"Kismet," the Robertson-Cole super-special production, starring the inimitable character actor, Gus Skinner, in his first screen venture, will open at the Arcade Theatre beginning Friday for a run of two days. This is reputed to be the greatest picture of the decade.

The story of "Kismet" placed in the historic old city of Bagdad, calls for settings of unusual magnitude and picturesqueness.

Never in all the history of motion picture production has there been a photoplay produced on such a large scale and of such magnitude as the screen version of "Kismet," in which Gus Skinner makes his debut as a film star.

"Kismet" will only be shown once at the matinee, starting at 2 o'clock. The evening shows will start at 7:15 and 9 o'clock.

The contract with the Robertson-Cole people places the following prices in effect for this production: Matinee, 35c, children 15c; evening, 75c, children 25c.

EDDIE POLO AND VAUDEVILLE AT THE ARCADE WEDNESDAY

Eddie Polo, Universal serial star, had to pay a special bonus to the actors who played with him in his current serial, "King of the Circus." This was blood money. Polo demands that the actors with whom he fight before the camera stand up and take real blows just as he is willing to endure slugging himself.

The fourth episode of "King of the Circus," in which some of the most spirited fighting in the serial is to be seen, will be shown at the Arcade Theatre Wednesday only.

The regular four acts of vaudeville will also be presented with the serial picture.

LeRoy and Conner, two young fellows, entertain with the aid of a piano and some comedy songs.

Frances Fay has a pleasing number of songs and character stories.

Honeyuckle and Violet present an unique number which they call "The Sculptor's Dream." A different number that has proven quite entertaining.

Barth and Barth bill themselves as "Refined Gymnast" and present some new and novel feats.

Regular matinee at 2:15 with two evening shows at 7:30 and 8:40.

"John Gilpin" Conquered on Night. Cowper composed and memorized the whole of his humorous masterpiece, "John Gilpin," during a sleepless night. But it is not so. Tankins says he would be perfectly pleased if it was as easy for human nature to forget resentments as it is to forget obligations.
