Local News In Brief

Will Visit Old Friends—
Charles J. Hohlbein, who formerly lived in La Grande and has many friends here, arrived a few days ago from his home in Livermore, California. He will be the guest of his sister, Mrs. Monsell, and Charlie Becker while here.

Dentist Returns Home—
Dr. Ellis Wilson, dentist of Elgin, returned to his home this morning after a short trip to this city.

Enterprise Doctor Here—
Dr. C. C. Goldsberry, of Enterprise, was an overnight visitor in La Grande.

Elgin People in Town—
Among the Elgin people here last night were J. R. Stuber and Melvin Barnes. F. H. Bloomer, of Starkey, was also here.

Spent Week End Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boyd and Harry Foreman, of Baker, spent Sunday here, having made the trip by motor.

Prayer Service Postponed—
The regular prayer service at the Methodist church will not be held this week. All are asked to attend the big general hospital meeting at the L. D. S. Tabernacle at 8 p. m.

Was Visiting Daughter—
Mrs. David Houston arrived in La Grande Saturday evening from Joseph, where she has been spending the past three months with her daughter. She left the same evening as her arrival, for her home in Jerome, Idaho.

Auxiliary Dance Tonight—
The ladies auxiliary of the Cooperative League will give a dance this evening at Rex Hall, to which the public is invited. Both modern and old fashioned dances are on the program, and with good music, a general good time is anticipated.

Reflection Deceives—
A pile of burning trash threw a reflection on a house in the vicinity of Sixth and I that made the house appear, from a distance of several blocks, as though it was on fire. Some one turned in the fire alarm at Fourth and K and the department rushed to the scene only to find that what appeared to be a fire was none. The alarm was turned in about 7:30 last evening.

Rebekah Bazaar Tonight—
Through a mistake, the Observer stated Saturday that the Rebekah Bazaar would be held that evening, when the bazaar is scheduled for this evening at the Odd Fellows hall. The Rebekahs state that they will have lots of candy, cakes and articles of wear at "back to normal" prices. As the entire proceeds are to be donated to the Memorial Driveway fund and the public is invited, the Rebekahs hope for a goodly attendance and large receipts. The I. O. O. F. hall is over the Hub store.

Speeder Caught—
George Clark, giving his address as 1110 B, was arrested last night for violating the speed limit on Fourth street.

Spend Sunday in Valley—
A party, composed of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hug and Lydia M. Hug, spent Sunday with the Sions on Pumpkin Ridge.

Take Valley Drive—
Mrs. John Frawley and Miss Mary Frawley drove down to Summerville last Sunday.

Mrs. Cope Improving—
Mrs. Nellie Cope, of Elgin, was taken to the Grande Ronde Hospital last Sunday evening. She had to undergo an operation and is getting along very well.

Former Clerk Visits—
Roxley Prillaman, who was formerly a clerk in the Klean Kut Kash Grocery, but is now employed in a jewelry store in Pendleton, spent a few days with relatives and friends in the Cove and La Grande, returning this morning.

Business Caller Here—
Armin Hug, of Summerville, was a business caller in La Grande yesterday and today.

John C. Shea Here—
John C. Shea, at one time connected with the local O. W. officers, dropped into town this morning on No. 21 for a short business visit. He is registered at the Foley Hotel.

Will Go to Union Wednesday—
A large number of stockmen from La Grande and a committee from the Union County Ad Club will go to Union Wednesday evening to meet with the Union stock show directors and other residents of Union interested in the stock show.

Baby Daughter is Born—
Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Kingsley of the arrival of a baby girl, born April 29, to Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Rowe at Redondo Beach, California. Mrs. Rowe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley. Mr. and Mrs. Rowe are former residents of this city. Mr. Rowe having been a fireman here for a number of years.

WEATHER FORECAST
Tonight and Wednesday, occasional rain.
