

Local News In Brief

Will Drive to Boise

Mrs. J. M. Staley and daughter, Mrs. F. M. Brackett and Miss Lorraine, will drive to Boise tomorrow to spend a few days with friends. Mrs. Brackett expects to leave for Portland for a short visit next week and then return to her home in San Francisco.

Go to Baker

J. M. Pearce went to Baker this morning to attend a meeting of the Knights of Columbus this evening.

Back to Salem

W. A. Dalziel, state sealer, will leave this evening for the state capitol after attending to business connected with his department in this part of the state.

Fine Booklets Being Issued

Booklets on Colorado, Estes Park, Yellowstone Park and Alaska have been issued for the tourist trade and may be had by seeing Agon Joe Keeney, of the O-W. The booklets are beautiful and cause wanderlust to steal over one the moment the cover is opened.

Farm Changes Hands

J. E. Hall recently sold to Thomas Jones and son, Elsa, his ranch of 160 acres three miles northeast of Union. All stock and machinery going with the deal. Consideration, $22,000. Mr. Jones and family, since coming from the East three years ago, have been living on the W. H. DeBlin ranch—Union Republican.

Drives to Wallowa County

O. L. Larson left this morning for Wallowa county on business for the La Grande Forestry company. Mr. Larson is making the trip by auto. He expects to return here the end of the week.

Take Prisoner Back

Sheriff Zoeth Houser, of Pendleton, was here yesterday to take Jack Clarke back to Umatilla county where he is wanted for stealing an automobile belonging to T. Dickerson, of Freewater. Houser accompanied Houser here and drove his car back. Clarke was taken into custody here by Deputy Sheriff John Striker, Clarke having made his get-away from the Umatilla authorities Saturday.

Sings Praise of Union Spirit

"In Union there is strength," said Bruce Cox this morning in commenting on the love feast by the Union Commercial club at which members of the local club and men interested in stock raising in this vicinity were present. Cox is much pleased over the spirit of community friendliness shown at the banquet last night. He believes that La Grande and Union should get together often on such occasions and see strength both figuratively and in reality in the spirit shown by Union.

Mrs. O'Connell Returns

Mrs. J. F. O'Connell returned to La Grande yesterday, after spending the past week or so in Portland, where her husband was operated on at St. Vincent's hospital. She reports Mr. O'Connell as doing very nicely, but it will be two or three weeks before he will be able to leave the hospital.

Coited in Marriage

Miss Ardis L. Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Palmer, and Mr. Walter Palmer, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents last evening, Rev. G. L. Clark, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Pendleton, officiating. The young couple will make their home in this city.

Alpha Club Friday

The Alpha Club will meet Friday afternoon, the regular day, with Mrs. Frank Hilton, instead of Saturday as was announced in the Observer yesterday.

No Confirmation of Rumor

A rumor circulating through the city today to the effect that a contractor had been shot at Hilgard yesterday could not be confirmed. The sheriff's office had received no report today and it is probable that the parties starting the rumor confused the recent shooting of a contractor at Durkee, near Baker.

Kamela Road Passable

The road across the mountains through Kamela is passable at all points, according to John F. Birney, county roadmaster, who inspected the road.

Imbler Man Here

"Uncle Sam" Brooks, of Imbler, stayed in La Grande over night last night. He came in yesterday to attend the stock show and commercial club love feast in Baker.

Disposes of Property Here

Mr. Webber, a mail clerk with headquarters at Baker, was in La Grande a short time yesterday transacting business. He disposed of some property while here.

O-W. Officials Ave Here

Just to look over the division, M. J. Buckley, general superintendent of the O-W., H. M. Adams, vice president of the Union Pacific, and Harry Lassberry, general freight agent, arrived in La Grande this morning. Mr. Adams will go to Baker but the other officials will return to Portland from this city.

Visit in Pleasant Valley

Mrs. Henry Bucholz and daughter, Winifred, left this morning for Pleasant Valley where they will visit Mrs. Frank Hansen for several days.

Drive From South Dakota

While only six days driving to W. McPherson and wife and four children arrived in La Grande feeling fine. Mr. McPherson is a brother to Dr. McPherson and expects to locate here.

Leaving for Texas

Raymond J. Blystone and wife will leave this evening for Fort Worth, Texas, where they will remain this summer. Mr. Blystone fell in love with the Lone Star state when he was in the service stationed at one of the Texas camps and he will probably make his home in that state eventually.

Enterprise Men Here

Among the Enterprise men in the city last night were Ralph S. Martin and F. S. Ashley.

Street Department

The largest item of expense reported by the water, street and sewer department of the city for the month of April was an expenditure of $884.84 for the repair of Adams avenue, the repair work including scrubbing and grading the macadamized sections. The total expense of the department for the month was $1929.12. This sum was spent as follows: Water department $213.21; street department $1622.58; sewer department $94.23.

Labor Council Meeting

The Central Labor Council will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting this evening at the K. of P. hall. The question of foreign labor on the highway construction work in Union county will be among the matters to be discussed.

Engineer to Leave Here

Robert Pratt, resident engineer of the state highway commission, who has been stationed here, has been ordered to Union. Mr. Pratt expects to leave here in several weeks and will probably be at Union for four months.

Land Auctioned Off

About 440 acres of land, mostly in Morrow county, were auctioned off yesterday by Nolan Skiff, of the U. S. land office. The land is in isolated tracts and brought an average of about $3.25 per acre. Among those purchasing portions of this land were Elizabeth G. Ness, of Pilot Rock; William Scott, of Albion; R. W. Turner, of Heppner; J. L. King, of Whitney.

Recitals Before Chief

Hereafter, in order to qualify for the office of chief of police, a man must be musical, as well as strong and brave. The city ordinances make it difficult for the transient peddlers to receive a license, and last week Chief of Police Flexer and his nearby business friends were entertained while one of the musicians gave a recital before the Chief, showing that he was a musician extraordinary, and so should have a license.

Form High School Press

The local high school has received an invitation to send to Eugene on May 19, 20 and 21, delegates to attend the convention which will be held at the University for the purpose of forming an Oregon High School Press Association. High School editors from all over the state have been invited. The conference comes the same time as the annual Junior Week held at the University.
