ETIQUETTE

Invitations to House Parties

A well worded note offering the hospitalities of one's roof for two days, or for two weeks, should, with special exceptions, explicitly stipulate the exact dates on which it will be most convenient to welcome the coming and speed the parting guest.

Such vague and indefinite terms as "Will you stay with us over the Fourth of July?" or "Can you not give us the pleasure of your company for a few days next week?"

serve but to puzzle the recipient of the note and convey a doubtful compliment. Not infrequently a hostess asks a friend to fix for himself the time and length of a visit or names two or three dates on which she will be at liberty to receive him. But ordinarily it is not only no discourtesy, but a kindness and a compliment, for the hostess to designate the day and hour when she will be best prepared to receive her friend and she may also specify the host or train on which the visitor shall come.

It is a thoughtful precaution usually for a hostess to drop a hint in her invitation as to any special activities she has arranged for the diversion of her visitors, besides a word or two as to the other guests.

Tomorrow: "Receiving at a Reception."

Palace Confectionery Co. FIDLER PROVES TOO MUCH FOR BILLY BORDEAUX AT BAKER

BAKER, May 12.—George Fidler of Haines, Saturday evening was awarded the decision over Billy Bordeaux, of Baker, in the fourth round of the ten-round bout scheduled at the Baker Athletic club. Things were pretty even up to the fourth round, when Fidler put Bordeaux to the mat with one of his well landed punches. Bordeaux was up again at the count but dazed and his brother jumped into the ring stopping the bout. A return match has been requested by Bordeaux.
