Houston, of the Methodist church, delivered an address on "Eureneo Nightingale, founder of the professional nursing as we know it today." Mrs. A. L. ### TAKE A LONG PLANE FLIGHT

Following a flight over the valley with Walter E. Lees as pilot, Chase Bohrenkamp yesterday afternoon announced that two times up in the air indulging in "straight flying" only has made him such an addict to the sport that next time he will go through some stunts to add zest to the trip.

Mr. Lees took Mr. and Mrs. Chase Bohrenkamp on the longest trip he has taken this year in the La Grande Airplane company's plane yesterday afternoon. At the start of the trip Mrs. Bohrenkamp showed some of the fear that many show on their first flight but once up in the air she thoroughly enjoyed looking down on the towns and cities and farms and their people as they sped over the valley for an hour, about an hour and ten minutes being taken for the trip.

The trip took them to Union, Cove and Elgin and on their way back they went to Summerville and from there made a side trip to Mt. Emily to see how much snow is still on the summit. They came within about three hundred yards of the point and report that there is still much snow on the top now. From there they went back to the landing field east of La Grande.

Moroccans Making Little Progress

The director of indigenous arts in Fez, Morocco, recently came upon a book written in the Fourteenth century and describing Fez as it was at that time. The director has compared the statements in the book with Fez as it is today, and finds the book to be perfectly up to date. If reprinted it would pass very well as a modern account of present day Fez. The people of Fez are still doing things just as they did them in medieval times.

Sigh for the "Good Old Days"

Jud Tunkins says he sometimes wishes we could get back to the old times when the average person was not expected to make a speech except on his birthday or when he got elected to something.

Mildly Smoked Long Ago

Smoking among women started when Sir Walter Raleigh offered the "detriment" to Queen Elizabeth, but he almost paid the penalty with his life. So very sick did the few whiffs of tobacco make the royal lady that courtiers whispered Master Raleigh had poisoned her, and dark looks were his portion. Her business recovered, however, and took a truly Elizabethan revenge by making the countess of Nottingham and all her maids smoke out a whole pipe among them.
