PROSPECTS ARE FOR MANY APPLES

IMBLER, May 18.—(Special.)—The orchards in this locality are all in full bloom. Prospects are good for a bumper crop of apples this fall.

The Imbler "Its" played Baker at Cove last Saturday. The score was 15 to 2, in favor of the "Its."

Archie Keown and family made a business trip to Teocasset last Saturday.

Bob Beem, of Elgin, returned to his home last Monday.

A very young blacksmith arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Berry last Tuesday morning, weight 7 pounds. A little light for that kind of work, but Jesse has decided to keep him, regardless. Mrs. Berry will be remembered as Miss Ivy Williams, one of the excellent teachers in the public school.

A very large crowd gathered at the chapel at the Summerville Cemetery last Sunday afternoon to hear the dedication of the chapel. Rev. Geo. R. Archer, of North Powder, spoke in a most pleasing manner, and everyone that took a part in the program was very much appreciated by all.

The presentation of the piano will forever be remembered by the many friends of Mrs. Lella Graham, having been her daughter, Kathleen's.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. "Doc" McCoy, a seven-pound son, last Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Furman and daughter, Mae, were visiting friends in Elgin last Tuesday.

Willis Byers returned to Imbler last Monday evening.

Another game of ball was played last Monday afternoon between Elgin and the famous "Its." The score was 10 to 3, in favor of Imbler. Rev. Lines was umpire.

Luella Hendrickson will leave next Thursday for her hometown north of Elgin.

Wm. Westenslow closed a very successful term of school last Friday evening out east of Elgin.

O. C. Coble, who has been very sick, is much better at this time.

The heavy rains have driven the farmers all to town.

Willis Perry is remodeling the William Glenn home west of town.

Gifts at Silverthorn's.

For School Commencement. Gifts to the graduates—a box of elegant candy, in beautiful boxes, or a prettily bound volume of poems, or an Eversharp pencil or fountain pen, is most adaptable and the expense at this store is not beyond your reach.

Light and Dark of the Moon. The light of the moon the time from new moon to full moon, and the dark of the moon is from full to new moon, or through the waning period.

Positive Sources. The positive force of writing or speech must come from positive sources—order, energy, depth of feeling or of thought.—H. J. Wilson.

Also Puffed Up. When a man completely comfortable without getting caught he knows he has brains enough to be a lawyer.—Exchange.
