

Society

 Society items should be telephoned to the society editor of the Observer, Main 37, before 10 a. m. Wednesday and Saturday mornings. Items sent in by mail should be in the mails Tuesday or Friday night.

Late this afternoon, announcement was made by the officers and committee in charge of the annual breakfast of the Neighborhood Club, that the place of the party has been changed from Riverside Park to Honan Hall. The change was made because of the long-continued rainy weather. All of the members are asked to be at Honan Hall promptly at 11 o'clock, when the breakfast starts. The program will follow immediately after the breakfast.

The event this year will be superb in every way for a high class program of La Grande talent is included in the program that will be given during the breakfast hour. Those who have not already made reservations for the breakfast should telephone Mrs. Claude Seranton, who has charge of the guest list for the occasion.

The committee which has charge of the arrangements for the breakfast is composed of Mrs. C. H. Seranton, chairman; Mrs. B. H. Jesse, Mrs. Colton R. Eberhard, Mrs. C. B. Miller, Mrs. R. L. Poarch, Mrs. Harry Zurbrik, Mrs. Charles Reynolds, Mrs. W. G. Sawyer, Mrs. Vincent Palmer, Mrs. L. H. Russell and Mrs. C. H. Bidwell.

Miss Ruth Stewart, who has been teaching in the Elgin high school during the past winter, will come in on the branch this evening, and will join Miss Minna Ash and Miss Wilma Osterling on their way to Portland. Miss Stewart's home is in Portland.

Musical numbers and addresses on many subjects of interest are contained in the program prepared by the 21st annual convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs in Pendleton from May 31 through June 3. The club women of Pendleton will entertain one of the largest delegations of club women assembled in recent years in the state at that time, including a number of representatives from La Grande.

The program, as announced this week by the Pendleton club women is as follows:

May 31.—Afternoon, arrival, placing and registration of delegates; 8 p. m., convention called to order by Mrs. Ida B. Callahan, president; 8:15, invocation, Rev. G. L. Clarke; address of welcome, Mayor Hartman of Pendleton; welcome from Pendleton club women, Mrs. John Hailey; address of welcome from Pendleton chamber of commerce, James H. Sturgis, president; response, Mrs. Charles H. Castner; past president Oregon Federation of Women's clubs; address, Judge Lowell, of Pendleton; report of credentials committee; closing song, "America."

June 1.—9 a. m., call to order, Mrs. Callahan, presiding; invocation, Rev. Alfred Lockwood; 9:15, music, "American the Beautiful," led by Nettie Greer Taylor; reports of credentials committee, recording and corresponding secretaries, treasurer and auditor; 9:45, address, Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian; music; recess; 10:15, "Scholarship Loan Fund," Mrs. Sarah A. Evans; 11:15, fraternal greetings; 11:30, open forum; noon, delegates luncheon.

Afternoon—2:00, call to order; singing, "Oregon, My Oregon"; 3:15, president's annual report, Mrs. Ida B. Callahan; 3:25, five-minute reports on Americanization, conservation, thrift; 3:00, address, "Practical Pointers on Legislation," Mrs. Alexander Thompson; 4:00, play, presented by Pendleton club women; 7:45, call to order; assembly singing; 8:15, address, Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, president general federation; reception honoring Mrs. Winter; music provided by Pendleton hostess clubs.

June 2.—9:00 a. m., call to order, Mrs. Collins Elkins, vice-president, presiding; invocation, Rev. W. H. Cox; resolutions; reading of minutes; reports, arts, civics, child welfare and other standing committees, special committees, reports of Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. Roy Bishop and others; address, Professor A. R. Sweetser, University of Oregon; noon, luncheon at Athena, guests of Athena club women.

Afternoon—3:30, call to order; music, assembly singing; 3:00 report, motion pictures; address, Mrs. Bessie A. Dwyer; 3:30, music, supplied by Pendleton; 4:30, discussion of endowment fund; open forum for general club topics; president's conference and supper, Mrs. Killiam Bell presiding; 7:45, opening music and community singing; 8:00, address, Miss Elmore Thompson, University of Oregon extension department; 8:45, music, Mrs. Jabe Thatcher, Eugene; 9:45, address.

June 3, Friday morning—8:00 a. m., call to order; 8:10, resolutions; roll call; election of officers; business session; concluding ceremonies; installation of new officers, adjournment.

On Thursday evening Earl Reynolds entertained the members of the high school band of the La Grande high school with a stag party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds during the closing of the annual convention.

tion of captain was held. Grant Bean was chosen to lead the 1922 squad of track men to victory.

Earl Reynolds, who coached the team this year, was presented with a kodak by the members of the team. A delicious three-course luncheon was served during the evening.

Mrs. L. A. McPherson, mother of D. W. McPherson and Dr. J. L. McPherson, celebrated her seventieth birthday on May 14 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. F. Greene. Four generations were present.

Fred Williams, an O.W. employee, and Mrs. A. A. Marlin, were married Tuesday evening and are now at home to their friends at 1410 Jackson. They were surprised with an old-fashioned charivari Thursday evening by their many friends.

Little Vivian Penewell celebrated her seventh birthday by entertaining fifteen little guests at a lawn party. Refreshments were served from a prettily decorated table on the lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Budge, of La Grande, were here last night on their way to Condon, where they expect to spend several days with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. West. Mrs. West is their daughter.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Of interest to his La Grande friends comes the announcement that Clyde Seltz, son-in-law of Mrs. Sarah E. McCall, has sold the Casino theatre of The Dalles, of which he was owner, to T. E. Hawkins, of Portland. Seltz has operated the motion picture house since last spring, when he purchased it from Lew Cullins. The new owner will take possession June 1. Seltz plans to take a short vacation after turning the theatre over to the new owner, the "first in 14 years," as he expresses it. He expects to continue to make his home in The Dalles.

Mrs. Lettie McGoldrick, of La Grande, was one of the sixty-four women who received the decoration of chivalry in the ceremony performed at the convention of the Oddfellows in Albany this week. The decoration of chivalry is conferred by the Patriarchs Militant upon women who have rendered conspicuous service to the order in one way or another.

Seniors of the Class of 1921, La Grande High School, have issued invitations to the annual commencement to be held Friday evening, May 27, at the high school auditorium.

Miss Mabel Lyons was hostess on Thursday afternoon to the Elite club. The afternoon was spent in needlework. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess during the afternoon.

The next meeting of the club to be held Thursday, June 2, is to be at the home of Mrs. C.E. Gump.

Sarah McClure, of this city, was honored at the Rebekah assembly at Albany this week by being chosen as one of the trustees at the annual meeting.

The Westminster Guild voted to have their last meeting for the season, which comes on Monday, in the form of a picnic. All of the members are asked to meet at the Presbyterian church at 5:45 Monday evening, where cars will be in readiness to take them to the park. Each member is to bring a lunch and the necessary utensils for herself.

Miss Minna Ash and Miss Wilma Osterling are leaving this evening for Portland to spend the week-end, after which Miss Osterling will return to La Grande, and Miss Ash will go on to Corvallis to visit at the Gamma Phi Beta sorority, of which she is a member.

CORVALLIS, May 21.—Wytheil Wade, daughter of W. W. Wade, farmer of Island City, will be graduated from the school of home economics this spring. Miss Wade is a graduate of La Grande high school, where she was social chairman of the girls' student body organization, secretary of the literary society and was on the staff of the high school paper. Miss Wade has majored in household science at college.

Miss Wade is a member of the Y. W. C. A., of the home economics club and is vice-president of the Cauthorn Hall club. She has had practical experience in industrial club work.

Students numbering 581 have enrolled in the school of home economics so far this year.

Mrs. J. G. Snodgrass, Mrs. A. W. Nelson and Mrs. H. M. Bay were delightful hostesses at bridge Thursday and Friday afternoon of this week there were fourteen tables the first day and thirteen the second.

the hostesses and those attending declared the event to have been one of the most delightful of the week.

The Eastern Star Social Club will be entertained at the Masonic Hall on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

The ladies have the days and the men have the nights, according to the adage, and, in a way, this holds good with bridge players, for Wednesday night of this week the Wednesday Bridge club met for its first evening session for many months, at which both the ladies and gentlemen attended. The ladies exclusive division, which is an afternoon function, has met regularly, but the night sessions had not been held for some time past.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carr and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Scroggin entertained the players at the Country Club in a most delightful event. Refreshments were served after announcing the prize winners, who proved to be A. C. Hampton and Mrs. A. V. Andrews.

On Friday evening, May 27, in the high school auditorium, forty-eight members of the senior class of the La Grande high school will be handed their diplomas, having completed their four years' studies.

An interesting program has been prepared for the occasion. The high school orchestra will open the program with several selections. "The New Ideal," a march by Mackie-Beyer; "Love's Dream," a waltz, by Emil Ascher; and "Trinity Cadet Corps," a march by Gustav Schumann, are the opening selections of the orchestra.

Following the orchestral numbers the Girls Glee Club will render several selections. The numbers chosen for this part of the program are "Summer Fancies," by Metra and "Moonlit Meadows," by Alphonse Czibulka.

Invocation will be pronounced by Dr. Joseph W. Gunn, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church. Following this, Dr. Stephen B. L. Penrose, president of Whitman College, of Walla Walla, Washington, will deliver the commencement address.

The presentation of diplomas to the forty-eight graduates will be by Colon R. Eberhard, chairman of the board of education. The benediction following the presentation of diplomas will be by President W. D. Hanks, of the Union-Stacke of the L. D. S. Church.

The honor students of the class are Bessie Hope Andrew, Julia Evelyn Hulse, Waldo Isaac Stoddard and Grace Patricia Yeck. The other members of the class are Ingar Annes, Loyd Barnwell, Frank S. Black, Milo Francis Van Hokenand, Eva Bernice Briggs, Ruth Frances Brown, Ethyl Jane Burbridge, George Palmer Byrkit, Myron Francis Chandler, Myrtle Flora Chapman, Wright Christian, Robert Ralph Clark, Eunice Naomi Fowler, Merle Cleo George, Evelyn May Guleman, Melba Hanks, Myrtle Harriet Harland, Myrtle Maye Houx, Mildred Wayne Hoyt, Myrtle May Hoyt, Franklin Murray Kingwell, Iris Anne King, Frieda Amelia Klipfenstein, Vera Zora Ladd, Mabel Helen Langley, Bernice Matilda Lofand, John Showalter Lynch, Ruth Calvin Mays, Greta Irene McShain, Sybil Esther Muhlolland, Aladene Scroggin, Ruby Geraldine Shirley, Geneva Timmons Smith, Delber Thomas Sailer, James Harris Snodgrass, Lavton Whittier Stearns, Willard John Stone, Elsie Jacqueline Stover, Arthur Joseph Theisen, Bernice Vernelle Thompson, Robert Elton Williamson and Viola Imogene Workman.

The officers of the class are Frank S. Black, president, and Geneva Smith, secretary-treasurer. The class colors are green and white and the flower chosen as the emblem of the class is the carnation.

Monday evening at Eagles Hall the Catholic ladies will give one of their enjoyable dances and the music for the occasion will be furnished by the popular orchestra composed of home boys, under title of the Castle Five. As usual, the ladies are leaving nothing undone in the way of preparation for a fine evening and the dancing people of La Grande are sure of a high grade entertainment at this dance.

A delightful dinner in honor of Byron Rutlin was given Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Zurbrik. Mr. Rutlin is the house guest of the Franklin Zurbrik family. His home is at Lancaster, New York, and he has been visiting at the Franklin Zurbrik home on his way home from an eight-months tour of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Zurbrik were hosts at a delightful dinner for a number of their intimate friends Thursday evening. Those enjoying the hospitality of the Zurbrik home were Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson, Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Mossman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gaskill, and Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Landis. Pink palps were used for the centerpiece. Following the dinner, the party attended the movies.

Miss Fay Armstrong, supervisor of physical training in the local schools, spent last Sunday in Elgin visiting with her sorority sister, Mrs. E. E. Vehrs (Ethel Wright).

The Maccabees will hold a rally here next Friday at which the supreme officers will be present. The officers coming here include the supreme commander and the state commander. Visitors will be here from the Pendleton Review, as well as from Echo and Baker. About 75 are expected from Pendleton. They will arrive here on No. 24 on Friday.

Shortly after their arrival a big banquet will be given at Eagles Hall. All Maccabees and all Maccabee ladies are invited to attend this banquet. A school of instruction is to be held in the afternoon and to this all members, whether officers or not, are invited. Lunch will be served in the evening at six o'clock.

The Pendleton Drill Team and the La Grande Drill Team will exemplify all floor work at the evening meeting which will begin at 7:30 and continue until the program is finished.

NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB BREAKFAST CHANGED
 Announcement was made late this afternoon, that the Neighborhood Club breakfast, which had been originally planned for Riverside Park, will be held at Honan Hall Tuesday, instead. The change in location was made owing to the past several days of rain. Breakfast is to be served promptly at 11 o'clock and the program will begin immediately following.

La Grande's Greatest Dep't Store!

Henderson and Nemo CORSETS

It is often said that the corset may make or mar your gown.

Some women pay high prices for their gowns, yet never look stylishly dressed. Others pay modest prices and their dresses or suits have a smartness and fashionable appearance that is admired wherever they go.

Select your corset carefully. We sell and recommend both the Henderson and Nemo Corsets. We have fine new stocks now, and those who know them will find their favorite number here. Prices start at $2.00 and range up to $8.00. Sold here only in La Grande.

HAVE YOU BENEFITTED By Our Sale of HOSIERY?

So many people were early shoppers Thursday and Friday and bought a supply of both Lisle and Silk Hosiery off these bargain tables.

There are still about one-half of the original 650 left—to be sold during the coming week. These are slightly imperfect hosiery, but hardly noticed, and are exceptional values at their prices.

Fibre Silk in Black and White—all sizes complete, priced at 49c each.

Mercerized Lisle hose in Black and Brown, 29c

49c and 29c

Lingerie Krinkle GREPE 40c

This material—so popular for the making of undergarments, gowns, etc., comes in delicate shades of Blue, Pink and Lavender; also white with small flower design. Price 40c yd.

The Nemo CIRCLET

It beautifies as it encircles. That bit of over-fleshiness at the top of your corset in the back—a circlet smooths it away. You will really be amazed as how much slimmer it can make you appear even as you try it on. It is designed to give perfect comfort in wearing.

No hooks nor eyes.
 No bumps or bulges.
 Prices $1.50 and $2.25.

IMPORTED PONGEE

Imported natural Silk Pongee, 32 inches wide. Prices at $1.00, $1.25, $1.45 and $1.50 yd. Buy now while quantities are sufficient.

TOILET ACCESSORIES

(center aisle)

Our lower prices are constantly attracting women to this department. Our stocks are complete—all creams, powders, soaps, toilet waters, perfumes, etc. Your favorite brand should be here—if not, tell us.

IMPORTED ORGANDIES

Beautiful Swiss Organdies that retain their transparency and original finish after washing and ironing. Colors are Blue, Pink, Flame, Rust, Apricot, Coral and White. 44 inches wide. Price $1.25 yd.

To Make Your WHITE SKIRT

Burtonette
 Mignonette
 Dacotta

$2.50 to $5.00

Materials were never so beautiful for the making of White Skirts. Sport Silks of all kinds—plain and fancy—44 inches wide. See them while stocks are complete and you have time to sew.

United States? Not for Her!

The Mrs. Phoebe Vanderburgh, British wife of W. H. Vanderburgh, Minneapolis attorney, refused to live in the United States as a result of her husband's suit in Minneapolis to annul their marriage contract. Mrs. Vanderburgh is contacting the suit.

The Country Club will be the scene of an enjoyable luncheon Monday afternoon, May 23. The members of the Lucky Thirteen Club will entertain in honor of Mrs. L. A. McAllister, who is leaving for Seattle to make her home shortly.

A one o'clock luncheon will be served and following the luncheon hour, the ladies will spend the afternoon at bridge.

Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp is entertaining the Clio club this afternoon.

The Parkdale Club will be entertained Wednesday, May 25th by Mrs. Nellie Harrison, assisted by Mrs. Bart Owsley, at the home of the former.

The Maccabees will hold a rally here next Friday at which the supreme officers will be present. The officers coming here include the supreme commander and the state commander. Visitors will be here from the Pendleton Review, as well as from Echo and Baker. About 75 are expected from Pendleton. They will arrive here on No. 24 on Friday.

Shortly after their arrival a big banquet will be given at Eagles Hall. All Maccabees and all Maccabee ladies are invited to attend this banquet. A school of instruction is to be held in the afternoon and to this all members, whether officers or not, are invited. Lunch will be served in the evening at six o'clock.

The Pendleton Drill Team and the La Grande Drill Team will exemplify all floor work at the evening meeting which will begin at 7:30 and continue until the program is finished.

NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB BREAKFAST CHANGED
 Announcement was made late this afternoon, that the Neighborhood Club breakfast, which had been originally planned for Riverside Park, will be held at Honan Hall Tuesday, instead. The change in location was made owing to the past several days of rain. Breakfast is to be served promptly at 11 o'clock and the program will begin immediately following.

Mrs. R. A. Pratt was a delightful hostess on Thursday evening at a five hundred party. Three tables were arranged for cards, at which Miss Marjorie Barratt won high honors. At the close of the evening a delicious luncheon was served to the guests.

Those present were the Misses May Neill, Lois Gunn, Jean Stearns, Mae Stearns, Fay Armstrong, Sarah and Miriam Smith, Helen McDonald, Hazel Magnusson, Marjorie Barratt, Cressa Wells and Mildred Riddle.

Mrs. E. W. Oliver, of Portland, a former resident of this city, has arrived in the city to spend the coming month visiting with her relatives and many friends. Mrs. Oliver has been spending the past two months in Idaho with her daughter, Mrs. A. Thomas.

Mrs. Joe Woods, former resident of this city, now living at Reith, has arrived in the city for a visit with relatives.

Miss Stella Desilet is spending several days in Portland.

Scent of Vanilla.
 The umbrauna of Brazil is a soft yellow wood so delightfully scented with vanilla that one is tempted to eat it, says the American Forestry Magazine.

LESS THAN PRE-WAR PRICES
 20% REDUCTION ON

Goodrich Tires

At these new prices you can't afford not to ride on Goodrich

SIZE	Silvertown Ribbed or safety	Fabric Safety	Grey Tubes	Red Tubes
30x3 Smooth	12.00	2.14	2.65
30x3 Safety	12.45	2.15	2.65
30x3 1/2 CL	24.90	16.00	7.55	3.19
31x4 CL		22.40	3.45	3.75
32x4 1/2 SB	32.90	20.25	2.90	2.50
32x4 SB	41.85	26.90	3.53	3.95
32x4 1/2 SB&QD	45.10	28.30	3.70	4.10
32x4 1/2 SB	47.30	36.90*	4.50	5.00
32x4 1/2 SB	48.40	37.15	4.65	5.15
32x4 1/2 SB&QD	49.65	38.25*	4.75	5.20
32x5 SB&QD	55.50	44.80*	5.55	6.15
32x5 SB&QD	61.90	47.95*	6.25	6.50

*Available in quantities of 100 or more

BUY NOW FROM ECONOMY

Union Motor Co.

Cor. Jefferson & Fir St.

ADVERTISE FOR POST ARTICLES IN OBSERVER