ETIQUETTE

Hostess and Guest, Out Motoring

When taking another lady out driving, the owner keeps her seat while the guest steps into the seat unless the latter be an elderly lady who requires assistance. In passing acquaintances she inclines her head in recognition, not attempting to speak her salutation. A guest who is younger than her hostess, asks which seat the latter wishes her to take and in the event the car is slightly crowded, requests that she be permitted to take one of the movable seats in the back of the car. If the car stops in front of a shop, the guest who is older than her hostess asks if she may make the necessary purchases, thus saving her hostess the necessary exertion of alighting.

Postal cards

The use of postal cards for correspondence should be very much restricted. Nothing of a personal nature should ever be written on one, and an affectionate salutation or closing term of endearment should be omitted. In signing it, the initials and surname only should be given. Occasionally a lodge, committee or society meeting is announced to the various members by means of a postal card, but this is only in the instance of a business or otherwise not strictly elite and formal occasion.

COME TO THE FREE DEMONSTRATION TOMORROW AFTERNOON AT THE MILNE ELECTRIC COMPANY. 5-23-1f

If In Doubt, Try Berkeley.

Real pleasure is found in that elegant Berkeley ice cream which is served regularly at Al Cain's, at the Palace Confectionery. His fruits and fruit flavors at his Soda Fountain are always fresh and pure. Service is the last word in modern sanitary cleanliness.

The Kiddies Know.

Kiddies go to Silverthorn's Fountain for ice cream cones because of good measure and good prices—5c each. They have always served about the best of everything at their fountain. We notice they say the Berkeley ice cream is far superior in flavor and to the taste of any ice cream made and at 30c a pint or 60c a quart.
