

EAT SOMETHING SWEET NATURE DEMANDS IT

The United States government spent large sums of money to supply candy to our soldiers in the Great War, because NATURE CRAVES SOMETHING SWEET.

Our candies and other sweets will satisfy that craving you have, and it only requires a SMALL amount of money.

Fresh, delicious, wholesome, and a benefit to health.

Always the best to be found in this town.

DEMPSEY WINS TITLE AND RISKS IT

This story of Jack Dempsey's Career has been written for the La Grande Observer by Hal Cochran on information much of which was furnished by Dempsey himself. The rest was obtained from Dempsey's close acquaintances and official records.

BY HAL COCHRAN

After considerable training under Jack Kearns, Dempsey K. O'ed Chas. Miller and Al Norton, his second meeting with the latter, in one round each and won from Bob McAllister, Gunboat Smith and Carl Morris in four rounds each.

The next bout switched to the east, in Racine, Wis., on Jan. 24, 1918, where Dempsey put Homer Smith to sleep in one round. Carl Morris was then taken on at Buffalo and Dempsey won in the sixth, on a foul.

Evens Up On Flynn.

Jack then got even for the knockout Jim Flynn handed him back in 1917. He laid the big fireman low in the first round at Fort Sheridan, Ill.

Bill Brennan was next and went down in the sixth round. Knockouts over Bill Sadee and Tom Riler followed and Dempsey then fought a no-decision 10-round bout with Billy Miske. On May 22, Dan Ketcher went out in the 2nd, and one-round knockouts over Arthur Polky, Kid McCarthy, Bob Dever, Porky Flynn and Fred Fulton followed in order.

Dempsey then staged a no-decision exhibition scrap with Clay Turner, at Buffalo, and followed up with a knockout of Terry Kellar in five rounds, at Dayton.

The next scrap was with Willie Meehan at San Francisco. Meehan was handed the decision. Jack Moran then fell in one round. Battling Levinsky in three and Porky Flynn in six. These bouts led to a second meeting with Billy Miske, which was a six-round no-decision affair. Carl Morris then took the court in one round as a windup of the 1918 battles.

Has Run of K. O's

Jack started 1919 with three one-round knockouts, at ... January. Big Jack Hickey, Kid Harris and Kid Henry fell in order. Then Ed Smith was silenced in one round on Feb. 13 and Tony Drake on April 2.

The long list of wins and one-round knockouts led to the championship battle with Willard. After a long layoff Dempsey pitched camp in Toledo and trained for the big fight. When it came off on July 4, Jack knocked Jess out in the third. He pulled down $27,000 as challenger but took with him the heavy weight crown. Willard's share was $100,000 and the loss of the title.

Machinery was then set in motion for a world's title bout between Georges Carpentier, champion of France, and Jack Dempsey, heavy king of America.

In the meantime Dempsey toured with a circus and vaudeville. His troubles with his wife resulted in litigation and a divorce. Then he entered the movies. He finished

MONDAY'S GAME IS CANCELLED

Announcement was made this afternoon that the ball game which had been scheduled to be played at Union on Monday by some members of the La Grande team has been called off, owing to the fact that the managers were unable to secure the Union grounds for the game. No game will be played that day by any of the locals as a unit.

Tomorrow, the team will journey to Baker for a game there, and the following Sunday the Baker team will meet the locals on the La Grande field.

The game Sunday between Baker and La Grande ball teams will be the first ball game between these two towns since last Labor Day. La Grande winning 2 to 1. Baker has since felt that they could not do it again.

Rivalry between these two towns has always been keen and those who witness the game Sunday will be sure of seeing something worth while. Baker's team has been strengthened for the game.

Films Developed.

Think of having all your films developed absolutely by us. Indeed, that is an interesting offer to every amateur photographer because developing costs money, as does any other process. Save on this! We develop all films, give you fine service, perform the work in 8 hours or less and use the best products in the process. All we ask is that you let us do your printing. Films developed are of no value, prints or pictures are the results you want. Let us do this part of the work. Remember to get your camera out and put it to work now. Spring is at her best, nature at her prettiest. All outdoors invite you and your camera. We carry a full line of Eastman and Vulcan films, the best you can use with any camera. We also enlarge pictures for a small charge and guarantee satisfaction.

DEMPSEY IS NOW GETTING SET TO BATTLE FOR THE WORLD'S HEAVYWEIGHT CROWN, AFTER SPENDING THE PAST FEW MONTHS IN MOVIES, VAUDEVILLE AND UPON THE GOLF COURSE.

ished a picture, in which he was ed down a proposed tour of Europe, and then sought more battles. He was matched with Billy Miske, Labor Day, Sept. 6, 1920, at Benton Harbor. Miske lasted three rounds and Jack drew $55,000 for knocking him out.

The next fight was with Phil Brennan, Dec. 14, at New York City. Dempsey knocked him out in the twelfth round. It was the longest time any fighter had stayed in the ring with Jack.

The champ then returned to his home in Salt Lake City. He turned
