Professor Budlong Puts Tanlac to Test

PROF. C. J. BUDLONG, Manchester, N. H.

"It's an actual fact I'm in good health for the first time in thirty years and I owe my present splendid condition to Tanlac and nothing else, was the emphatic statement of Prof. C. J. Budlong, well-known and highly respected citizen of Manchester, N. H., residing at 42 School street. "Practically all my life I had rheumatism, and when I say rheumatism I mean every word of it. It was all over my body and especially bad in my feet and legs and there were times when I couldn't get from my bed to my chair without help. And from the time I was a boy I couldn't sit down and eat a good meal without being in misery afterwards and I would have terrible pains around my heart and frequent attacks of palpitation and dizziness.

"I had a stubborn case of constipation, was troubled awfully with blinding headaches and hardly knew what sleep was. My suffering had almost made a complete nervous wreck of me and I was so weak I couldn't work a nickel as far as I was concerned I thought my troubles had a life-long grip on me and was about as discouraged as a man can get. Well, before I had finished my first bottle of Tanlac I realized it was different from anything I ever tried. It suited my case exactly. And now for almost the first time since I can remember I can eat anything I want and digest it. I haven't an ache or a pain and have gained fifteen pounds in weight. I just feel good all over and am full of life and energy these days. Everywhere I go I talk Tanlac. It hasn't an equal— (Advertisement.)"

The Screen

AT SHERRYS, LAST DAY TODAY, "THE RENT COLLECTOR"

Larry Semon has produced another riot of fun, using for his chief male-factor the ever popular rent collector. Larry takes a job as rent collector and gets into all sorts of trouble. In this comedy Larry introduces many new stunts. As usual he injects a number of thrills which end with comedy twists.

PAULINE FREDERICK IN STRONG ROLE AT THE SHERRY THEATRE

In "The Mistress of Shenstone," her second Robertson-Cole super-special production, adapted from the novel of the same name by Florence Barclay, Pauline Frederick, popular emotional star, has a role vastly different from anything which she has ever before done for the screen. The picture shows at Sherry's last times today.

Lady Ingleby is the wife of a man much older than herself, who regards her more as a pretty toy than a helpmate. Lord Ingleby is reported killed, and Myra after many months of loneliness meets a man who makes of her a confident and companion. But like a bolt out of a clear sky, comes the news that the report of Lord Ingleby's death is false.

How Myra meets the situation furnishes the many dramatic moments in the screen version of this famous novel.

JAS. OLIVER CURWOOD'S "NOMADS OF THE NORTH" AT ARCADE THEATRE

More than the usual interest attaches to the announcement of the forthcoming engagement of James Oliver Curwood's "Nomads of the North" at the Arcade theatre today and Tuesday.

Three high lights in the production, according to advance information, are: the remarkable performance of animals including many wild ones in general and a pet bear and dog in particular; a forest fire; a romance of all-absorbing qualities quite different than the ordinary run of love affairs so universal in the movies.

KELLY COMEDIANS HAVE ARRIVED IN LA GRANDE

In two special cars the Kelly C. medians arrived this morning from Pendleton and in a very short time the big show was on the Chestnut street lot and from outside appearances at least ready for business.

It was hard to find "Abie" and "Slivers" sandwiched in as they were with a whole flock of pretty girls but they were there as were most of the rest of those who were here last summer.

They all looked and expressed themselves as glad to be back in La Grande again.

A local young man, Bill Cowan, is now scenic artist for the company and he talks of deserting with the show to home.

It seems that the Kelly company all have a soft place in their hearts for La Grande if their joyous remarks are any indication and when an actor admits a fondness for a town it has to be some town.

This year the Comedians are going to co-operate with the merchants in a little advertising stunt and on Wednesday night will have a real old fashioned country store in connection with the regular show. Close to $1000 in merchandise will be given away from the stage, free. Among other things will be a chicken dinner served on the stage and it is essential that some La Grande couple must eat that dinner. Tonight the opening bill is the old favorite from last season—"All Aboard."
