ARMOUR'S DAUGHTER TO BE JUNE BRIDE

By Newspaper Enterprise.
CHICAGO, June 11.—Melody Farm, the country estate of the J. Ogden Armour, has been selected by Miss Lolita Armour, the packer's daughter, as the scene of her wedding to John J. Mitchell, Jr., which will take place June 18. The hour set for the ceremony, which is to be very simple, is four o'clock.

Lolita Armour, daughter of J. Ogden Armour, and John J. Mitchell, Jr., whose wedding will take place June 18.

Mrs. Robert Hunter, Mitchell's sister, will be matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Louise Mitchell, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Herman Nichols of Lake Forest; Miss Elizabeth Chapin of New York, cousin of the bride; Miss Martha Lyon of Pittsburgh, Miss Margaret Pirie and Miss Julia Bell Fairrot.

Mitchell has chosen Dunean Ford of Rockford, Ill., to serve as best man. Interesting in this connection is the fact that two of Miss Armour's attendants will be married just before Miss Armour's wedding. Miss Lyon's wedding to Thomas Jones of Pittsburgh will take place June 11 and Miss Pirie's wedding to Henry Withers will take place June 14 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Pirie of Lake Forest.

The Armour-Mitchell wedding unites two of Chicago's most prominent and wealthy families. Miss Armour is sole heir to her father's estate, estimated at $60,000,000. Mitchell will share in an estate valued at $10,000,000.

Mitchell has leased an apartment at 222 East Walton Place to which he will take his bride following their return from a short honeymoon.

FAVORABLE SEASON FOR DRIVING LOGS IS REPORTED

WALLOWA, June 11.—G. L. Smith, government scaler, returned from the Minam yesterday where he has been scaling logs for the Minam Lumber company. Mr. Smith states the company has cut 2,000,000 feet of logs this spring and have them in the river, 1,200,000 of which are already in the mill pond. The drive is down the river as far as Murphy creek, and in 10 days more will have them all in the pond. The water in the river has been favorable this year for driving and it has been the most successful drive the company has had. The splash dam has not been used at all. About 8 per cent of the cut is fir and tamarack, the rest is pine.

FIRE DESTROYS COVE RESIDENCE

COVE, June 11.—(Special to The Observer.)—Fire last evening destroyed the Tame home owned by Fred Houx, the building burning to the ground. The flames were first discovered by Lokan Anderson, who lives next door, and although the alarm was quickly sounded and a large crowd gathered, the fire had eaten its way too far to be put out.

The owner, Mr. Houx, works for the electric light company in La Grande, and had kept his house carefully locked. The fire is thought to be due either to the carelessness of children playing about the premises, or due to tramps or robbers who had broken into the house. The fire occurred just before midnight. The furniture was insured.

This demand was now decreasing, he added, the "hooby" for home brewing apparently having worn itself out in some extent.

HOME BREWERS USE 16,000 TONS RAISINS DURING YEAR 1919

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Home brewers used up more than 16,000 tons of raisins in 1919, W. M. Griffen, president of the California Associated Raisin company, estimated Thursday in giving a senate subcommittee his views on the pending bill to authorize collective bargaining by farmers.

He placed the raisin crop of 1918 at 167,000 tons and of 1919 at 182,000 tons, the difference, in his judgment, representing demand from home brewers.

This demand was now decreasing, he added, the "hooby" for home brewing apparently having worn itself out in some extent.

PENDELTON GROWERS SHIPPING CHERRIES

PENDELTON, June 11.—A carload of early cherries were shipped yesterday by the Milton Fruitgrowers' Union, says Fred Bennion, county agent. The Bing and Royal Anns are not yet ready to be picked. The entire cherry crop, say growers, is lighter than was expected, because trees are still in a weakened condition due to the severe winter of 1920. The strawberry season, Mr. Bennion says, has passed the peak. Growers are receiving a good price, considering the low figure quoted in other sections.

In Memory of Mrs. J. S. Stillwell

Dear loved one, thou hast gone for aye,
And left us here to mourn;
We, to tread the paths of life,
And thou on Heaven's bourne.
We grieve! We'll miss thee more and more
Upon this earthly strand;
But thy love will ever remind us,
Of thy kindly clasp of hand.

Thy step so light, thy kindly smile,
Were to us as a boon;
Thy loving look, thy bright and eye
Made sorrow bright as noon.
Thy graceful way will stay anon,
Thy kindly deeds remember.
Who has not drank thy depths of love
Who knew thee? Loving—tender.

Shouldst doubt arise above thy tomb,
Of the good that thou hast done,
"Go, ask it of the poor" or friends
Who hadst thy friendship known.
The lesson of true friendship's charm
That thou gavest on this life's strand,
Is known to all—is known to all,
By thy friendly clasp of hand.

How couldst a hand so small well speak
The language of thy heart?
How could a form so frail and little
Ever do the heroic part?
'Twas His love within thy pure, pure frame
That thou hadst to command;
It spoke its part to everyone
In thy loving clasp of hand.

As years roll on and on and on
Add thy loving friends are drifted—
Still their hearts will hold far aye
Thy loving heart so gifted.
Thy husband's, sons' and daughters' hearts
To thine are bound with a band,
That holds and keeps as stoutly
As thy earnest clasp of hand.

That hand that tolled and soothed,
That hand that good deeds done
Duties for all untrifling,
Until thy crown was won.
We'll not forget! We'll not forget!
Thou'rt past the realm of earthly care,
Past the open "Gates of Pearl,"
And thy white hand beckons us here.

We view thee a-past the "Gates of Pearl,"
Doing the angels' fair commands,
And, as they stoop to welcome thee,
They kiss thy pure white hands.
We see thee on the Path of Gold,
An angel by thee stands,
The greeting o'er, you look a-back
Upon these earthly lands,
Thy sweet voice calls, "Oh, come! Oh, come!"
As you beckon with blessed hands.
