

News From Surrounding Localities

FRUIT CROP AT COVE PROMISING

COVE, Ore., June 9.—(Special.)—The fruit crop in Cove is most promising for apples, pears, cherries, plums and all kinds of berries. The apple men are busy spraying.

Election in Cove was quiet, only 233 votes cast. Many citizens were on the street but were not enough interested to vote. The American Legion were out to the last man. Polling place precinct No. 1 was at the library. The board consisted of Lloyd Carter, Robert French, judges; Stella Dean, Cassie Orton, and Alvin Orton, clerks. William Guthrie, Deputy Sheriff, Precinct No. 2, at city hall, board, O. T. Severs, T. G. Wilson, judges; Fannie Conklin, C. L. Rowe, Bessie M. Stackhead, clerks and William Harris, deputy sheriff.

Mrs. J. J. Conley has gone to Portland to see the rose festival and be present at the graduation of her grandson, Royal Conley at Hill's military academy.

Mrs. Hugh McCall of Vale is visiting in Union for the stock show. She will then visit her many friends in Cove.

R. A. Corlew of Baker is assistant at the Power plant at Cove.

Clyde Howater, who has been assistant in the power plant at Granite Ore., is home on a vacation.

Mrs. Alfred Anderson and Mrs. J. Johnson have been quite ill from blood poisoning. The cause of one is a pin scratch and the other a silver. Both ladies are recovering.

Lang Bell, who is living on a ranch near Union, came home to vote. His wife, who has been ill in a hospital at College place, Walla Walla for some weeks is at home again.

Mrs. Lillian Meyers (nee Sutherland) of Walla Walla, has been visiting her father in Cove. Her grandmother, Mrs. J. J. Daugherty, went home with her for the summer.

Mrs. Claude Puckett and little daughter, Peggy, are visiting friends in Walla Walla.

Mr. O. T. Severs will spend the summer at his boyhood home at Cambridge, Wis.

S. A. Anderson Sr., of La Grande was in Cove election day.

Claude Puckett and Arthur Hancock cast their first votes Tuesday, having just attained their majority in time for the election.

Thos. Marten is seriously ill with heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Oren Robinson are again making their home in Cove.

Mrs. Richard Wade is at home again after spending a couple of weeks with her daughter in Walla Walla. Her granddaughter Margaret Beaudon returned with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Baker have taken up their abode in a tent for the summer. Mr. Baker has been ill for some time with tuberculosis, contracted while in the service.

Roy Conklin and family of Union Sundayed at the home of Ray Duncan.

Miss Mabel Gibson, who has been teaching at Minam is at home.

Miss Lela Bell Sanders, who has been attending school here and living with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bell, has gone to her father at Minam.

Miss Mildred Fulp is ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. William Reynolds who had a goitre removed at Hot Lake sanatorium a few weeks ago and came home apparently well, has found it necessary to return to the hospital.

Mrs. May Morgan, nee May Vincent who spent all her early life in Cove was here calling on old friends one day last week.

The Masonic party was a huge success. It was well attended and pronounced a most enjoyable affair.

D. McClellan of La Grande was in town a few days ago adjusting water rights.

Miss Eunice Ramsdell spent the week in La Grande the guest of Miss Helma Anderson.

Mrs. Anna Slinger has returned to her home at Blaine, Ore. She has been at the home of her uncle, Dr. C. R. Ramsdell, for the past month.

Several people climbed Mt. Fanny Sunday. They found the summit buried under several feet of snow.

The picnic party in the mountains consisting of the families of George Goley, Walter Murphy and J. W. Rollins was turned to a tragedy in the accident that befell the young son of the Goleys. The little fellow had gone on ahead and it is thought became frightened, lost his footing, and fell. The fall rendered him unconscious from which he never recovered, passing away before he reached Hot Lake. Funeral services were from the M. E. church. Interment in Rose Ridge cemetery.

The community chorus is busy preparing music for the Fourth of July celebration program. The sports committee, has arranged a good program for the event. Baseball game, horse racing, climbing a greased pole and all of the usual and many unusual features.

The city council postponed their regular meeting this month from Tuesday to Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Frank Williams and Mrs. Howater will entertain the Woman's Auxiliary Thursday, June 15.

Paul Ellis, forest ranger, is asking every one who has cut wood in the mountains this last winter to pile their brush ready for burning—to lessen the danger from forest fires.

Cove is almost a closed town during the stock show. Everybody attends.

Ray Lay is helping to furnish music at the stock show dances.

business in Elgin Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Woot of Pumpkin Ridge spent Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Sanderson.

C. J. Hale went to Lostine last week to see his wife, who has had the measles, at that place.

E. C. Myers of this place is serving on the grand jury in La Grande.

Mrs. K. Zweifel and daughter, Kate, of Elgin spent the week at their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Sanderson were entertained Sunday at the home of Wayne Park.

Helena Fries and Ray German were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Sunday at the home of the bride, Rev. Archer of North Powder officiated.

Cyrus McDowell has returned home after spending a few days in La Grande. Mr. and Mrs. Holly Horn of Elgin spent last week end at their home here.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hensley has been quite ill with St. Vitus dance. He is now much improved.

Miss Hester Pentecost of La Grande was visiting her cousin Viola Goodwin last week.

Hazel West is now staying at the home of her sister, Mrs. Hug of Elgin.

Ruth, Archer and Inez Woodell were guests of Edna Bell Myers Tuesday.

Mrs. James Wise went to Imbler Tuesday to visit her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Burr Slack went to La Grande Saturday to have dental work done.

TELOCASET, Ore., June 11.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hug of La Grande spent the day Sunday visiting at the home of M. E. Shafer.

Mrs. Young had her home, re-shingled this week.

Former and Lloyd Barnwell motored to La Grande Monday to attend the show that evening.

Mrs. L. B. Hyatt went to Hot Lake Monday for medical attention.

The home of Harry Starr's is quarantined with smallpox. Mr. Starr being ill.

B. E. Shafer has a new Ford car.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hill were shopping in North Powder Monday.

Mrs. George Hilyard left for Portland to attend the rose show and to visit relatives.

Fred Haller, Bill Fraizer and J. W. Herbert are La Grande visitors this week.

Mrs. J. T. Hill is quite sick with influenza.

Arthur Wilson of Enterprise is visiting at the C. A. Hill home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith motored to La Grande Wednesday to rent a house as they expect to move there in the near future.

Miss Adaline Lewis of La Grande is visiting her chum, Miss Rita Titus for a week.

Why Look to the Dark Side? Our every-day life is full of many troubles and disappointments that we are foolish to look on as dark sides of things and count them as rap that might otherwise be avoided.

Cleaning Baskets. Hood and Kitchen Baskets are best cleaned by rubbing with a stiff brush. If not waxed they may be scrubbed with soapy water, rinsed and dried.

OBSEVER WANT ADS PAY

You have not seen La Grande until you have visited the

HARRIS ART AND GIFT SHOP

The only exclusive Art and Gift Shop in Eastern Oregon

"Look us Over"

Harley H. Richardson "The Art Man"

Commercial Photography Our Specialty

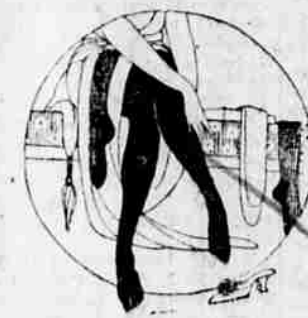

A Shower AND A Plunge

IN THE ELKS TANK FEELS MIGHTY GOOD THESE DAYS...

BUT, YOU NEED A

Batning Suit

And that is, where we come in. A complete new shipment just received. Men's, boys' girls' and women's, smart new styles and bright colors in great variety. The prices make possible a good wool suit for everyone.

Pure Thread SILK ROSE

There are just in Brown and White only, in all sizes. Supply your needs now as these will go quickly.

Prices

98c to $1.98

Muslin SHEETING Tubing

Bleached and unbleached muslin. Bleached and brown sheeting, pillow tubing, gauze, cambric and house-linings are here in variety and quantity again. Our prices on domestics save you money.

Oilcloth 33c yd.

J.C. Penney Co. A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION - 312 DEPARTMENT STORES

Madras Shirts 15c yd.

Are You Looking for a DELICIOUS NEW DESSERT?

Krause's MARSHMALLOW PUDDING

24 Krause's Marshmallows (1 1/2 oz. each) 1 lb. box. Pudding is just sweet cream over Marshmallows, and let melt overnight in low heat. Dissolve 1 1/2 level tablespoons Knox gelatin in water, beat a little, pour over the marshmallows, and let melt.

1 1/2 pint cream, whipped and stirred into pudding sufficiently to make fluffy. MAKES 5 TASTY PORTIONS was so enthusiastically received by Northwestern hostesses who dined there that they have secured for you the recipe and know you'll like it. It's easy to make, inexpensive, delightful to eat, and may be given endless variety with the use of fruits or fruit juices.

This Wonderful Pudding Originated in the Largest Tea Room in Spokane—

Krause's Marshmallows

IN TINS HALF POUND
20c 25c

FRESH EITHER WAY AT

SNAPP'S SNAPPY
La Grande Pharmacy

SHERRY'S

TODAY ONLY

Tom Mix

In A Big Western Production

The Heart of Texas Ryan

Also "MUTT & JEFF" and "THE GUMPS"

Rebuilt. Mrs. Mary Ann of Minneapolis, Minn., had no shins in her left leg three years ago. By skillful surgery a new one has been grown. Now Ann is studying planeing.

STRAWBERRIES $2.40

Cane Sugar Sack, $8.60

Mason Lids, Dozen 28c

Mason Jar Rubbers, 4 doz. 25c.

Headquarters for Canning Supplies

HOOVERIZED GROCERY