City and county officials several days ago received word asking them to be on the lookout for two men, alleged to be the slayers of Sheriff Smith at Fallon, Nevada. The men were last reported being seen at Caldwell, Idaho, and it was believed that they were coming west, but local officials failed to intercept them going through here.

At the time they left Nevada they stole an Essex car bearing a Nevada license number, the number being 51953. Both men are heavily armed, according to reports.

OTHERS PRAISE OUR COUNTRY CLUB LINKS

While in Portland last week George Garrett, city manager, heard much praise of La Grande from various quarters. On his return yesterday he brought back some praise for the municipal golf links of Portland.

The grass is kept short so that it isn't necessary to hunt the balls and the grass on the greens is kept shorter than the rest, making the links an almost ideal place for the golf enthusiast.

Garrett says that he hopes that the Country Club links here will be developed into as good a links as the city of Portland provides. "The people in Portland think that there is a lot of Enterprise behind the members of the La Grande Country club in undertaking to build and support a Country club with all the advantages that are extended to its members," Mr. Garrett declared.

Babe Ruth Without His Bat.

What's missing here? The big stick, of course. You've seen so many pictures of Babe Ruth at bat that here are two times he's visible to a club in other ways. The league managers say Babe's almost as good a hitter as ever when he's sitting as he is at awaiting them. Babe's hand is on the bat, he's on the bench, and makes his call easy as pie.

BAKER TAKES ELGIN IN THE FIRST GAME

BAKER, June 14.—Baker Sunday administered the first defeat the Elgin players have had this season. To make it good they did the job well by making it strong with a score of 11 to 5. Throughout the game was one with good and bad spots.

In the box Fosbury was master of the situation practically all the time, pitching a good game, while John Grant on the receiving end played an errorless game.

After the game, Iver Simmons, manager of the Elgin team, stated that it was one of the cleanest games his team had played this season, and that the umpiring was the best they have had any place.
