

A MAN FOR THE AGES

A STORY of the BUILDERS of DEMOCRACY
by IRVING BACHELLER
COPYRIGHT IRVING BACHELLER

The Most Widely Discussed Story That Has Been Written in Many Years

In taking for his theme the most interesting period and the greatest figure in American history, and bringing out by the true story teller's art the romantic attributes which they so plentifully possessed, the author has produced a remarkable narrative—one that will grow in importance as the years advance. Around Abraham Lincoln the writer has woven his tale and placed a great cast of characters—sturdy pioneers, men and women, young and old, white and black, rough and gentle, wayward and upright. It is a wonderfully beautiful and moving story.

Has Written an Epochal Story

Irving Bacheller

The voice of the conscience of the nation speaks in the work of this author. "A Man for the Ages" is a story of the life of Abraham Lincoln, the greatest of our statesmen. It is a story of the life of a man who was born in a log cabin and who died in a white house. It is a story of the life of a man who was born in a log cabin and who died in a white house. It is a story of the life of a man who was born in a log cabin and who died in a white house.

America in the Making and the Very Spirit of Democracy

A Man for the Ages

By Irving Bacheller

A tale which shows the staunch heart, majestic mind and noble soul of Abraham Lincoln. A novel told in the charmingly romantic vein which one expects from an able writer of fiction, yet no historic fact has been tampered with. Dealing with the days of Lincoln's youth and manhood at New Salem, Ill., and those of his growing political career which followed, it is a picture of the times, of types and of thrilling incidents of the pioneer period. And although a story, not a biography, it presents the most humanly interesting portrayal of the great Emancipator ever made. A story which has seized the heart of the nation. This paper is fortunate in being able to offer it in serial form.
