Miss Frances Smith has chosen July 19, as the date of her wedding to Mr. Karl Reynolds. This announcement was made Wednesday evening, at a cleverly arranged party given by Mrs. Lee Reynolds at her pretty home east of the city.

Complimenting two former residents of this city, Mrs. W. H. Robinson entertained on Thursday afternoon for Mrs. M. N. Causey and Mrs. Turner Oliver. Mrs. Causey is a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Meyers, and Mrs. Oliver, who is now a resident of Spokane, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. McHarold.

Four tables were arranged for an afternoon of bridge, Mrs. F. S. Davidson winning high honors, while the hostess also presented guest prizes to Mrs. Causey and Mrs. Oliver.

The afternoon was brought to a pleasant close with the serving of dainty refreshments by the hostess.

Miss Smith is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. James Allen Smith, who have been residents of the city for the past two years. Following her graduation from Oregon College at Lees Ferry, Ariz., Miss Smith taught this past year in the local high school.

Mr. Reynolds is also a college graduate, having graduated from the Oregon Agricultural College, following his graduation from the local high school. During the past year, Mr. Reynolds has been associated in business with his brother, Charles H. Reynolds, and has also been interested in the business of the high school, being track coach.

These present besides the hostess guests, Miss Pauley were the Misses Adeline Ferguson, Margaret Palmer, Bertha Berger, Marjorie O'Brien, Bernice Thompson, Myrtle Bastard, Melba Hanks, Jean George, Clara Day, of Baker, and Helen and Ann Maguire.

In honor of Miss May March of New York City, Mrs. Lee Watson entertained the Girls Friendly Society at supper Wednesday evening. Miss March is national secretary of the society which is organized under the auspices of the Episcopal church.

During the social hour following supper Miss March told the girls of the work being done by branches in other parts of the United States.

Mrs. William Heltzel of Portland is a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds. Mr. Heltzel was also here, but was called back to Portland on business, and expects to return to La Grande about the first of the week.

Mrs. Lee Reynolds was a charming hostess yesterday afternoon when she entertained at a bridge party at her attractive country home east of town near the highway. Five tables were placed for bridge, and as a result of the afternoon game, Mrs. W. H. Tidcott won high honors.

The Reynolds' home was made especially attractive for the party, with large quantities of beautiful red poppies. Late in the afternoon, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The regular meeting of the A. F. and M. No. 726, will be held at Eagles' hall on Monday tomorrow.

Misses Kathryn Prosser and Hazel Sanders of Athena, are expected to arrive in the city this evening for a week's visit with Miss Dorothy Maycox. The Misses Prosser, Sanders and Meyers were sorority sisters at the Oregon Agricultural college, being members of Chi Omega.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harding (Mayor Keith) left yesterday morning for a two weeks' motor trip through Yellowstone Park. They have been visiting for several days with relatives in the city, being guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Meyers. Their little son, Robert, will stay at the Meyers' home during their trip through Yellowstone.

Mrs. W. H. Bartholomew and infant son are visiting Mrs. Bartholomew's mother, Mrs. H. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew are former residents of La Grande but now reside at Eugene.

Mr. Elmer R. Gaye will be hostess to the Eastern Star Social club at Masonic hall next Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. David B. Hill, of this city, Mrs. Barbara Stanfield, of Portland, Dr. W. E. Day and son, Mark Day, of Hot Lake, arrived in Pendleton this afternoon by motor from Portland. Mrs. Hill, who has been visiting in Portland and Salem, has been much pleased during her stay. Mrs. Stanfield, who is a niece of Dr. Hill, will go to the coast July 25. Her mother, Mrs. H. N. Stanfield, will later this month be a guest at the Hill home and she and her daughter will leave September 1 for Washington, D. C., where they will join Senator Stanfield. They will remain in Washington during the winter. Pendleton East Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Currier, of Baker, were guests of Mrs. E. R. Farley, Mr. Currier's sister, Friday. Their wedding was a recent event and they are on their wedding trip. Pendleton East Oregonian.

A pleasing recital was given Thursday evening in the piano studio of Miss Hilda Anthony, when she presented in recital two of her young pupils, Miss Helen Williams, assisted by her sister, Jean.

PERRY, July 2.—Mrs. Sadie Connor was hostess for the Ladies League of the Moose at their bi-weekly meeting last Thursday. Forty nine ladies of members and friends came up for the meeting. The afternoon was spent in a very well-attended for a summer later in the season, and by a general good time. Those present were: Mrs. Frank Shantin, Mrs. W. E. Heineke and daughters, Alice and Virginia, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Chris Conn, Mrs. Clara Benson and her two children, fifty and Annie, and her sister, Miss Marie Galt, Mrs. R. A. Wagon and daughter, Mrs. J. C. McInnis, Mrs. Jessie Miller and daughter, Josephine, Mrs. Carl Keller, Mrs. S. S. Shute and children, Milton, Eugene and Donald; Mrs. W. L. Crain, Mrs. D. E. Shanks and daughter, Bercebe Vernon; Mrs. D. Branford, Mrs. J. J. Harlan, Mrs. A. N. Mayhew. Mrs. Connor was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. J. E. Day and Mrs. L. E. Hall. The table being a centerpiece of the day. The home was decorated with bouquets of poppies and green leaves, ice cream and cake were served.

Camp Fire Girls

Honors and Rank.

I mentioned before the honors which were awarded for doing tasks. These honors have been increased and there are now over 100, and cover almost everything any girl anywhere can do, would want to do, or like to do. The honors are listed under seven crafts: Home-Craft, Health-Craft, Camp-Craft, Hand-Craft, Nature Lore, Business, Patriotic and Americanization. Besides honors, there are ranks to work for. When a girl first becomes a Camp Fire girl she receives a silver ring. Then she begins working for honors and for the rank of Wood Gatherer. Before she can become a Wood Gatherer, she must select a name for herself and a symbol, and make for herself a head band. She must have paid her annual dues of fifty cents and have won at least ten honors. For each of these honors she receives a purple bead. She must also have a ceremonial dress. The Wood Gatherer's Dues, the Camp Fire Girl badge and keys at the Council Fire, where she receives her first rank.

Wood Gatherer's Desire.

"As fagots are brought from the forest Firmly held by the sinews that bind them, I will cleave to my Camp Fire sisters Wherever, whenever I find them. "I will strive to grow strong like the pine tree, To be pure in my deepest desire; To be true to the truth that is in me, And follow the Law of the Fire." After a girl is a Wood Gatherer, she wants to become a Fire Maker, the second rank of the Camp Fire Girls. This rank is harder to win than the rank of Wood Gatherer—she has to do more difficult things, like knowing how to tie knots, and to know what to do in such emergencies as clothing on fire, person who cannot swim in deep water, both in open water in summer and through ice in winter, open cut, frost-bite, fainting, bite of insect. She has to know how to take care of her own health, and how to be a hostess in her own home, and a number of other useful things.

When she is made a Fire Maker, she recites this desire:

Fire Maker's Desire.

As fuel is brought to the fire So I purpote to bring My strength My ambition My heart's desire My joy And my sorrow To the Fire Of homeland, For I will tend An my fathers have tended And my fathers' fathers Since time began The fire that is called The love of man for God The hardest and last rank is that of Torch Bearer. To be a Torch Bearer, the girl has to be a fine, all-round girl who knows how to lead girls younger than herself. She must, besides winning fifteen positive honors other than those won for the rank of Fire Maker, be known to be trustworthy, happy, unselfish, and a good "team worker." It is a great honor to be a Torch Bearer, and every girl is very proud indeed when she says at a Council Fire: "That torch which has been given to me I desire to pass unblemished to others."

Summer Prescription.
Practically everybody in this vicinity depends on us for prescription work. That's not a surprise but a statement of fact.

There's nothing more important than a prescription—at home or away; there's nothing treated more importantly by us.

Suppose you go away this month or next. Suppose you take a favorite prescription with you which needs refilling before you return home. Suppose you are taken ill while away and the doctor gives you a prescription. Remember we can fill your old prescription if you mail us the numbers. If a prescription is filled by the local druggist wherever you are ask him for a copy and then we can refill it later when you are home again.

It is quite essential that you remember us when prescriptions are required because we promise (and give) as much in the way of quality drugs and care in compounding.

Besides, our prices are made especially low for you.

Yours truly,
Palace Confectionery Co.

ETIQUETTE

Second Marriage Etiquette.

A widow may celebrate her second marriage with as much gaiety as her first. She may again be married from her parents' home, or from her own home. She may celebrate her wedding ceremony in a church or in a private drawing room, and show her gifts and receive most wishes exactly as a maiden bride would. She does not, however, assume a white wedding costume nor claim the support of many attendants. A widow drives to the church with the gentleman who is to give her away and she leaves with her husband. After a second marriage the home celebration may take any of the forms suitable for a maiden bride.
