Local News In Brief

Resolution Passed

A resolution calling upon the federal authorities to transfer the battleship Oregon to Portland and have it stationed there permanently was passed at the meeting of the city commission last evening. The action is being taken following similar action by the Portland city council and a request from the Portland officials that other cities aid them in securing the ship.

Heavy Rains Hinder Trip

Word received today by the Observer from H. G. Trull and wife, owners of the Sherry theatre who are on a motor trip, states that "heavy rains and bad detours on account of the new roads, have played the deuce with our progress. We rode thirty miles today in the worst storm we ever saw. The roads were just like sheets of water. We are now in North Platte, Nebraska, which is a nice town of 11,000." The Trulls expected to go as far as Maine, for a visit at the boyhood home of Mr. Trull. The card was dated July 4, from North Platte.

BOY SCOUTS MAKE PLANS FOR THEIR SUMMER CAMP

At a meeting of the patrol leaders of Boy Scout Troop No. 2, it was decided that each patrol shall make arrangements for its own shipment such as tents, bedding, etc., for the week-end trip which will be started Saturday and which is to be taken for the purpose of selecting a camp site for the Boy Scout camp in August. The site will be selected somewhere on the Big Mitten.

During Chautauqua week the boys, divided into small groups, will have charge of the ushering and various other parts of the work. A schedule is to be prepared which will assign certain hours to each of the boys.

COMING EVENTS

- July 8-18—Chautauque at Riverside Park.
- July 15-17—State convention, United Spanish War Veterans in Astoria.
- July 7 to 16—Patrons of Industry, state grand, Klamath.

Nineteen in Family

The Jarvis Enight home is the scene of a happy family reunion these days, for Grandfather Jarvis has gathered a goodly number of his family around him. Visiting at the home are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller, and two children of Burley, Idaho, who are enroute home from California; Mrs. Mima Daves and four children of Walla Walla; and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Crowley of Roy, Wash. Mrs. Daves is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emigh, and Mrs. Crowley is the youngest daughter. There are now nineteen in the Enight family, nine of them grandchildren. Grandfather Jarvis declares that the family is just the right size, and they are all having a jolly good time.

ERROR IN PRICE

Unintentional typographical error in yesterday's display ad for the N. K. West & Co., Summer Footwear Department, left a vague impression of what the sale price was. The $8.50 and $9.00 broken lines are on sale at $5.00 and not $2.00 as might be inferred from the reading of the ad.
